

TRY * SHOW * LIVE GOD'S MERCY

Christ makes this revelation: "If anyone comes to me without hating wife and children, even his own life, he cannot be my disciple." Saint Paul demonstrates the depths of his discipleship in sending back to Philemon the beloved Onesimus whom Paul cherishes as "my child, my own heart." The Lord wants to give us a grace that exceeds even the love of a parent, a spouse, or a child. The kind of detachment that Jesus calls for in the Gospel today creates the desire that disposes us to receive all that God is eager to give us. Since "the earthen shelter weighs down the mind that has many concerns," the Lord insists that we carry our own cross. For that cross separates us from anything that conforms us to our own inadequate ideas and measures, so that we can follow Christ faithfully.

St. Rosalia

St. Rosalia, daughter of Sinibaldi, Lord of Roses and Quisquina, was a descendant of the great Charlemagne. She was born at Palermo in Sicily. In her youth, her heart turned from earthly vanities to God. She left her home and took up her abode in a cave, on the walls of which she wrote these words: "I, Rosalia, daughter of Sinibaldi, Lord of Roses and Quisquina, have taken the resolution to live in this cave for the love of my Lord, Jesus Christ." She remained there entirely hidden from the world. She practiced great mortifications and lived in constant communion with God. Afterward she transferred her abode to Mount Pellegrino, about three miles from Palermo, in order to triumph entirely over the instincts of flesh and blood, in sight of her paternal home. She is said to have appeared after death and to have revealed that she spent several years in a little excavation near the grotto. She died alone, in 1160, ending her strange and wonderful life unknown to the world. Her body was discovered several centuries later, in 1625, during the pontificate of Pope Urban VIII. In 1624, a plague beset Palermo. During this hardship Saint Rosalia appeared first to a sick woman, then to a hunter, to whom she indicated where her remains were to be found. She ordered him to bring her bones to Palermo and have them carried in procession through the city. The hunter climbed the mountain and found her bones in the cave as described. He did what she had asked in the apparition. After her remains were carried around the city three times, the plague ceased. After this Saint Rosalia was venerated as the patron saint of Palermo, and a sanctuary was built in the cave where her remains were discovered.

Trata * Muestra * Vive La Misericordia de Dios

Cristo hace esta revelación: " Si alguno viene a mí y odia a esposa e hijos, hasta su propia vida, no puede ser mi discípulo. " San Pablo demuestra la profundidad de su discipulado en el envío de vuelta a Filemón el amado Onésimo quien Pablo valora como " mi hijo, mi propio corazón. " el Señor quiere darnos una gracia que supera incluso el amor de un padre, un esposo, o un niño. El tipo de desprendimiento que Jesús pide que en el Evangelio de hoy crea el deseo de que nos dispone a recibir todo lo que Dios está dispuesto a darnos. Ya que " el refugio de tierra pesa sobre la mente que tiene muchas preocupaciones, " el Señor insiste en que llevamos nuestra propia cruz. Por esa cruz que nos diferencia de cualquier cosa que nos conforma con nuestras propias ideas y medidas insuficientes, por lo que podemos seguir fielmente a Cristo.

St. Rosalia

Santa Rosalía, hija de Sinibald, Señor de las Rosas y Quisquina, era un descendiente del gran Carlomagno. Ella nació en Palermo en Sicilia. En su juventud, su corazón se apartó de vanidades terrenales a Dios. Ella salió de su casa y tomó su residencia en una cueva, en las paredes de las cuales ella escribió estas palabras: "Yo, Rosalía, hija de Sinibald, Señor de Rosas y Quisquina, he tomado la resolución de vivir en esta cueva para el amor de mi Señor, Jesucristo". Allí permaneció completamente oculto para el mundo. Ella practicó grandes mortificaciones y vivía en constante comunión con Dios. Después se trasladó su residencia a Monte Pellegrino, a unas tres millas de Palermo, con el fin de triunfar en su totalidad sobre los instintos de carne y hueso, a la vista de su casa paterna. Se dice que han aparecido después de la muerte y de haber revelado que pasó varios años en una pequeña excavación cerca de la gruta. Murió sola, en 1160, poniendo fin a su vida extraña y maravillosa desconocido para el mundo. Su cuerpo fue descubierto varios siglos más tarde, en 1625, durante el pontificado de Urbano VIII. En 1624, una plaga acosado Palermo. Durante esta dificultad Santa Rosalía apareció por primera vez a una mujer enferma, a continuación, a un cazador, a quien le indicó donde sus restos se encontraban. Ella le ordenó recoger a sus huesos a Palermo y tenerlos llevadas en procesión por la ciudad. El cazador subió a la montaña y encontraron sus huesos en la cueva como se ha descrito. Él hizo lo que había pedido en la aparición. Después de que sus restos fueron llevados por la ciudad tres veces, la plaga cesó. Después de esta Santa Rosalía fue venerado como el santo patrón de Palermo, y un santuario fue construido en la cueva donde se encontraron sus restos.

Nos gustaría extender un inmenso "Muchas gracias!" a todos los que hicieron posible que la Misa de Instalación y celebración de Padre John Dominic fuera un maravilloso éxito. Que Dios los bendiga abundantemente por su amabilidad y generosidad!

Act of Love

O my God, I love You above all things, with my whole heart and soul, because You are All-Good and worthy of all love. I love my neighbor as myself for the love of You. I forgive all who have injured me, and I ask pardon of all whom I have injured.

What does the Catechism of the Catholic Church say?

Paragraph 478:

Jesus knew and loved us each and all during his life, his agony and his Passion, and gave himself up for each one of us: "The Son of God. . . loved me and gave himself for me." He has loved us all with a human heart. For this reason, the Sacred Heart of Jesus, pierced by our sins and for our salvation, "is quite rightly considered the chief sign and symbol of that. . . love with which the divine Redeemer continually loves the eternal Father and all human beings" without exception.

Father in heaven, we thank You for the communion of saints so that we can draw near to You through the prayers of St. Rosalia. Through her prayers help us to remember that our destiny is heaven. As St. Rosalia forsook all for Your Kingdom, through her prayers may we love more fully for Your Son our Lord Jesus Christ, who together with You and the Holy Spirit are one God forever and ever. Amen.

O God, our Father, You are offended by sin but pleased by penance. Mercifully look upon Your people who come to You and grant through the intercession of St. Rosalia, who turned away from earthly delights to the joys of contemplation, that we may be delivered from the consequences of our sins and those of the world through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Padre en el cielo, te damos gracias por la comunión de los santos, para que podamos caminar hacia ti a través de las oraciones de Santa Rosalía. A través de sus oraciones nos ayudan a recordar que nuestro destino es el cielo. Como Santa Rosalía dejándolo todo para Su Reino, a través de sus oraciones podemos amar más plenamente a su Hijo, nuestro Señor Jesucristo, que junto contigo y el Espíritu Santo son un solo Dios por los siglos de los siglos. Amén.

Oh Dios, nuestro Padre, se siente ofendido por el pecado, pero satisfecho por la penitencia. Por fortuna en consideración a Tu gente que viene a Usted y otorgan a través de la intercesión de Santa Rosalía, que se apartó de las Delicias a las alegrías de la contemplación, para que seamos librado de las consecuencias de nuestros pecados y los del mundo por medio de Jesucristo, nuestro Señor. Amén.

Legion of Mary

Meetings are Saturdays 10-11am in the conference room.

All welcomed. The Legion of Mary is a lay Apostolic association of Catholics who, with the sanction of the Church and under the powerful leadership of Mary Immaculate, serve the Church and their neighbor on a voluntary basis.

Eucharistic Adoration

You are invited to participate in Eucharistic Adoration each Friday. Adoration begins after 8:15 Mass and ends with Benediction at 11:50 am. You can spend as much or as little time as you desire.

Our Mission Statement

Prayer for Priests

O Jesus, our great High Priest, Hear my humble prayers on behalf of your priest, Father [N]. Give him a deep faith, a bright and firm hope and a burning love which will ever increase in the course of his priestly life. In his loneliness, comfort him in his sorrows, strengthen him in his frustrations, point out to him that it is through suffering that the soul is purified, and show him that he is needed by the Church, he is needed by souls, he is needed for the work of redemption. O loving Mother Mary, Mother of Priests, take to your heart your son who is close to you because of his priestly ordination, and because of the power which he has received to carry on the work of Christ in a world which needs him so much. Be his comfort, be his joy, be his strength, and especially help him to live and to defend the ideals of consecrated celibacy. Amen.
