ADORATION:

(Fridays/viernes)

8:45 am - 11:45 am

Obedience well lived frees us from selfishness and pride, and so it helps us to find God and in him the whole world. Obedience is a special grace and it produces unfailing peace, inward joy, and close union with God.

Obedience transforms small commonplace things and occupations into acts of living faith, and faith in action is love, and love in action is service of the loving God. Obedience lived with joy creates a living awareness of the presence of God...

This complete surrender of self to God must secure for us perseverance in God's service, since by obedience we always do his most holy will and consequently obtain freedom from doubts, anxieties, and scruples.

We are infallible when we obey. Ask the Holy Spirit to give us that one grace. Only Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, Jesus on the cross, can teach us obedience, and that is by the reality of his own example...

If I live constantly in the company of Jesus, I will look like him and do as he did. Nothing pleases God more than when we obey. Let us love God not for what he gives but for what he deigns to take from us. Our little acts of obedience give us the occasion of proving our love for him.

By St. Teresa of Calcutta (Taken from the September 2017 issue of Magnificat)

St. Teresa of Calcutta

The remarkable woman who would be known as Mother Theresa began life named Agnes Gonxha Bojaxhiu. Born on August 26, 1910 in Skopje, she was the youngest child born to Nikola and Drane Bojaxhiu. Receiving her First Communion at the age of five, she was confirmed in November 1916. Her father died while she was only eight years old leaving her family in financial straits. Gonxha's religious formation was assisted by the vibrant Jesuit parish of the Sacred Heart in which she was very involved as a youth. Subsequently moved to pursue missionary work, Gonxha left her home in September 1928 at the age of 18 to join the Institute of the Blessed Virgin Mary, known as the Sisters of Loreto, in Ireland. She received the name Sister Mary Teresa after St. Therese of Lisieux. In December of 1929, she departed for her first trip to India, arriving in Calcutta. After making her First Profession of Vows in May 1931, Sister Teresa was assigned to the Loreto Entally community in Calcutta and taught at St. Mary's School for girls. Sister Teresa made her Final Profession of Vows, On May 24, 1937, becoming, as she said, the "spouse of Jesus" for "all eternity." From that time on she was called Mother Teresa.

La obediencia bien vivida nos libera del egoísmo y del orgullo, y así nos ayuda a encontrar a Dios y en él el mundo entero. La obediencia es una gracia especial y produce paz inagotable, alegría interior y estrecha unión con Dios. La obediencia transforma pequeñas cosas comunes y ocuparon en actos de fe viva, y la fe en la acción es amor, y el amor en acción es el servicio del Dios amoroso. La obediencia vivida con alegría crea una conciencia viva de la presencia de Dios ... Esta entrega total de sí a Dios debe asegurarnos perseverancia en el servicio de Dios, ya que por obediencia siempre hacemos su santa voluntad y consecuentemente obtenemos libertad de dudas, ansiedades y súplicas. Somos infalibles cuando obedecemos. Pide al Espíritu Santo que nos dé esa gracia. Sólo Jesús en el Santísimo Sacramento, Jesús en la cruz, puede enseñarnos obediencia, y esto es por la realidad de su propio ejemplo ... Si vivo constantemente en la compañía de Jesús, me veré como él y haré lo que hizo. Nada agrada a Dios más que cuando obedecemos. Amemos a Dios no por lo que da, sino por lo que se digna a tomar de nosotros. Nuestros pequeños actos de obediencia nos dan la ocasión de probar nuestro amor por él. Por Santa Teresa de Calcuta.

La bendición expresa el movimiento básico de la oración cristiana: es un encuentro entre Dios y el hombre. En la bendición, El don de Dios y la aceptación del hombre están unidos en el diálogo juntos. La oración de la bendición es la respuesta del hombre a los dones de Dios: porque Dios bendice, el corazón humano puede en cambio bendice a Aquel que es la fuente de toda bendición.

Bienaventurado el hombre que no camina en el consejo del malvados, ni se paren en el camino de los pecadores, ni se sientan en compañía de burladores. Más bien, la ley del Señor es su gozo; y en su ley medita día y noche. Es como un árbol plantado cerca de corrientes de agua que da su fruto en la estación; sus hojas nunca se marchitan; todo lo que hace prospera. Salmo 1: 1-3

Catechism of the Catholic Church Paragraph 2626

Blessing expresses the basic movement of Christian prayer: it is an encounter between God and man. In blessing, God's gift and man's acceptance of it are united in dialogue with each other. The prayer of blessing is man's response to God's gifts: because God blesses, the human heart can in return bless the One who is the source of every blessing.

Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, nor stand in the way of sinners, nor sit in company with scoffers. Rather, the law of the Lord is his joy; and on his law he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted near streams of water that yields its fruit in season; its leaves never wither; whatever he does prospers.

Psalm 1:1-3

Dear Lord, We pray that the Blessed Mother will wrap her mantle of protection around Your priests and through her intercession may they be strengthened in their ministry. We pray that Mary will guide Your priests, dear Lord, to follow her own words, "Do whatever He tells you".

May Your priests have the heart of St. Joseph, Mary's most chaste spouse. May the Blessed Mother's own pierced heart inspire them to embrace all who suffer at the foot of the holy cross for the love of God the Father. May Your priests be Holy, as you are holy, And through the power of the Holy Spirit, may they be filled with the fire of Your love seeking nothing but Your greater glory and the salvation of souls. Amen!
