National Vocation Awareness Week—November 3-9, 2019

Sin is not a "deal breaker" when it comes to our vocations! God calls despite our weaknesses. In his mercy, he gently leads us our of sin toward his plan-our vocation. Why? Because deep within each of us, god has planted part of Himself: "Your imperishable spirit is in all things." God wants to wipe off the grime of sin so His spirit can shine through us!

In our second reading, Paul lays forth two main ideas. First, that God ban make people worthy of His calling. As the saying goes, "God does nor call qualified; he qualifies those who he calls." Second, God can "powerfully fulfill" our human efforts, weak as they are.

"Fear of unworthiness" is a huge obstacle for young people, often preventing them from even considering the priesthood or religious life. Zacchaeus is a counterpoint to this fear. Despite his sinful status as a dishonest tax collector, Zacchaeus feels a tremendous desire to see Jesus—and even more amazingly Jesus feels the same about him! This encounter leads to conversion and transformation. Tell young people today: "Today, if you feel dead in your sin, look to Jesus and repent! An more than that – ask him what he wants from you. Don't be afraid to climb high when seeking the Lord!"

A Family Prayer for Vocations

Father, increase our family's love for one another. May we honor each other in times of happiness or hardship, bearing with one another in love, just as You love us. In a special way, help us strive for holiness in our current states of life. Should You call some of us to the priesthood or religious life, help us to respond with courage and joy.
Together, we make heaven our goal, and pledge, with Your grace, to help each other on life's journey to You.
Through the intercession of the Holy Family:
Jesus, Mary, and Joseph.
Amen!

Semana Nacional de Concienciación Vocacional: del 3 al 9 de Noviembre de 2019

¡El pecado no es un "factor decisivo" cuando se trata de nuestras vocaciones! Dios llama a pesar de nuestras debilidades. En su misericordia, nos conduce suavemente de nuestro pecado hacia su plan, nuestra vocación. ¿Por qué? Porque en lo profundo de cada uno de nosotros, Dios ha plantado parte de sí mismo: "Tu espíritu imperecedero está en todas las cosas". ¡Dios quiere limpiar la mugre del pecado para que su espíritu brille a través de nosotros!

En nuestra segunda lectura, Paul expone dos ideas principales. Primero, que la prohibición de Dios hace que las personas sean dignas de su llamado. Como dice el dicho: "Dios no llama ni califica; él califica a los que llama ". Segundo, Dios puede" cumplir poderosamente "nuestros esfuerzos humanos, por débiles que sean.

El "miedo a la indignidad" es un gran obstáculo para los jóvenes, que a menudo les impide incluso considerar el sacerdocio o la vida religiosa. Zaqueo es un contrapunto a este miedo. A pesar de su condición pecaminosa como recaudador de impuestos deshonesto, Zaqueo siente un tremendo deseo de ver a Jesús, ¡y aún más sorprendente, Jesús siente lo mismo por él! Este encuentro lleva a la conversión y la transformación. Dígales a los jóvenes de hoy: "¡Hoy, si te sientes muerto en tu pecado, mira a Jesús y arrepiéntete! Y más que eso: pregúntale qué quiere de ti. ¡No tengas miedo de subir alto cuando busques al Señor! "

Una Oración Familiar Por Las Vocaciones

Padre, aumenta el amor de nuestra familia el uno por el otro. Que nos honremos unos a otros en momentos de felicidad o dificultad, teniendo amor el uno con el otro, tal como Tú nos amas. De una manera especial, ayúdenos a luchar por la santidad en nuestros estados actuales de vida. Si nos llama a algunos al sacerdocio o a la vida religiosa, ayúdenos a responder con valentía y alegría. Juntos, hacemos del cielo nuestra meta, y nos comprometemos, con Tu gracia, a ayudar-nos mutuamente en el viaje de la vida hacia Ti. Por intercesión de la Sagrada Familia:
Jesús, María y José. ¡Amén!

More Dominicans Campaign 2019:

There are 12 Dominicans (priests and brothers also known as friars) living at the Priory at St. Anthony of Padua. There are four specific aspects (or pillars) that distinguishes the Dominicans from any other Roman Catholic religious Order. Last week we discussed the first which is prayer. This week we explore the second pillar which is COMMUNITY.

The integral nature of Dominican community life lies in the fact that the community continually shapes, supports, and challenges each friar. More than just residences, a Dominican community (priory) is a home—a place where the friar lives, prays, recreates, and continually encounters Christ in his brothers. Because of this, it is often the starting point for preaching.

On Sunday, November 17, a second collection will be taken to support the continuation of the 800 year legacy of St. Dominic by supporting our young friars in formation. Please be generous in your support. God bless!

#iGIVECATHOLIC on #GIVINGTUESDAY

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

St. Anthony of Padua Parish will once again participate in the #iGiveCatholic Campaign which is an online giving event that is sponsored by the Catholic Foundation of the Archdiocese of New Orleans.

Through your generosity, we exceeded last year's #iGiveCatholic goal by raising over $15,000. This gave us the funds to improve our security by installing an electronic key fob system, digital dead bolt locks, and security cameras throughout the facility, and improve the outside lighting and the lighting inside the church. We are now in the process of repairing the external sacristy doors. This is a great accomplishment and I thank you for making it all possible for your parish.

This year, our goal is to raise $25,000 in order to repair, re-glaze, and/or replace the church's external windows which serve to protect our beautiful stained glass windows. These repairs will extend to the window frames which are riddled with rust, peeling and chipped paint, and failed caulk. Once the repairs are made, the window frames will be prepared and receive a fresh and much needed painting. We would also like to begin repairing and repainting the windows on the rectory and the priory.

Scripture says in 2 Corinthians 9:6-7, "Consider this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each must do as already determined, without sadness or compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver." Will you be a cheerful giver? Can we count on you to help us achieve this year's #iGiveCatholic financial goal?

You can contribute online to this campaign beginning Monday, November 18, 2019; the online campaign ends at midnight, Tuesday, December 3, 2019. To access our #iGiveCatholic webpage, please go to our website, www.sapparish.org and click on the IGiveCatholic icon. If you prefer to donate by check or cash, please place the donation in an envelope marked "iGiveCatholic Donation". Donations can be mailed or brought to the parish office or dropped into the collection basket at Mass.

If you have any questions or to keep up with our latest events, contact us or visit our website. You can also follow us on Twitter, or "like" St. Anthony of Padua, New Orleans on Facebook.

Thank you for your support and may God bless you 100-fold in your kindness and generosity.

In Christ,

Rev. John Dominic Sims, O.P.

#iGIVECATHOLIC on #GIVINGTUESDAY

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

La parroquia de San Antonio de Padua participará una vez más en la campaña #iGiveCatholic, que es un evento de donaciones en línea patrocinado por la Fundación Católica de la Arquidiócesis de Nueva Orleans.

Gracias a su generosidad, el año superamos la meta del año pasado de $ 15,000, dándonos fondos suficientes para instalar cerraduras y cámaras inteligentes en toda la instalación, actualizar la alarma de seguridad y mejorar la iluminación exterior y la iluminación dentro de la iglesia. Ahora estamos en el proceso de reparar las puertas externas de la sacristía. Este es un gran logro y les agradezco por hacerlo posible.

Este año, nuestro objetivo es recaudar $ 25,000 para volver a esmaltar, reparar y / o reemplazar las ventanas externas de la iglesia que sirven para proteger nuestras hermosas vidrieras. Estas reparaciones se extenderán a los marcos de las ventanas que están plagadas de óxido, pintura descascarada y astillada y calafateo que se está separando. Una vez que se realicen las reparaciones, los marcos de las ventanas estarán preparados y recibirán una pintura fresca y muy necesaria.

Las Escrituras dicen en 2 Corintios 9: 6-7: “Considera esto: el que siembra con moderación también cosechará con moderación, y el que siembra generosamente también cosechará generosamente. Cada uno debe hacer lo que ya está determinado, sin tristeza ni compulsión, porque Dios ama a un dador alegre”. ¿Serás un dador alegre? ¿Podemos contar con usted para ayudarnos a lograr el objetivo financiero #iGiveCatholic de este año?

Puede contribuir en línea a esta campaña a partir del lunes 18 de noviembre de 2019; la campaña en línea finaliza a la medianoche del martes 3 de diciembre de 2019. Para llegar a nuestra página web #iGiveCatholic, por favor vaya a nuestra página www.sapparish.org y presione en el icono iGiveCatholic. Las donaciones en efectivo o con cheque pueden enviarse por correo o llevarse a la oficina de la parroquia o depositarse en la canasta de recolección durante la misa. Marque su donación como "iGiveCatholic". Vea el volante adjunto para más información.

Si tiene alguna pregunta o para mantenerse al día con nuestros últimos eventos, contáctenos o visite nuestro sitio web. Síganos en Twitter o haga clic en "Me gusta" en San Antonio de Padua, Nueva Orleans, en Facebook.

Gracias por su apoyo y que Dios los bendiga 100 veces en su amabilidad y generosidad.

En Christo,

Rev. John Dominic Sims, O.P.
