17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field." - Mt 13:44

When a merchant finally finds a priceless, perfect pearl, he sells all he has and buys it. He does this because that pearl matters to him. It has significance and brings a depth of joy like none other. What matters and is of importance to you? When what matters to us has something to do with the kingdom of God, God is delighted. His exuberant happiness is hard to contain because He knows that we are happy stumbling upon this beautiful wisdom. Ask God to help you discover this pearl of great price. There are many things competing for our attention every day. But not all of these things are important. We focus too much energy on the unimportant, superficial stuff and neglect paying attention to the things that really make a difference and have the greatest impact. Things all too easily become more significant than people, and our agendas become more essential than God's. We do not have to empty our bank accounts and totally detach from everything we have in order to serve God. But, we are asked to prioritize our lives and make what matters to God what matters most to us. In doing so, when we rise each day, we will be able to see what really needs our attention and embrace it with great joy!

Catechism of the Catholic Church Paragraph 1117

As she has done for the canon of Sacred Scripture and for the doctrine of the faith, the Church, by the power of the Spirit who guides her "into all truth," has gradually recognized this treasure received from Christ and, as the faithful steward of God's mysteries, has determined its "dispensation." Thus the Church has discerned over the centuries that among liturgical celebrations there are seven that are, in the strict sense of the term, sacraments instituted by the Lord.

But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. John 16:13

Cuando un comerciante finalmente encuentra una perla invaluable y perfecta, vende todo lo que tiene y la compra. Hace esto porque esa perla le importa. Tiene significado y trae una profunda alegría como ninguna otra. ¿Qué es lo que vale y es importante para ti? Cuando lo que nos importa tiene algo que ver con el reino de Dios, Dios está encantado. Su exuberante felicidad es difícil de contener porque sabe que somos felices tropezando con esta hermosa sabiduría. Pídele a Dios que te ayude a descubrir esta perla de gran precio. Hay muchas cosas que compiten por nuestra atención todos los días. Pero no todas estas cosas son importantes. Centramos demasiada energía en las cosas superficiales sin importancia y descuidamos prestar atención a las cosas que realmente marcan la diferencia y tienen el mayor impacto. Las cosas se vuelven fácilmente más significativas que las personas, y nuestras agendas se vuelven más esenciales que las de Dios. No tenemos que vaciar nuestras cuentas bancarias y separarnos totalmente de todo lo que tenemos para servir a Dios. Pero, se nos pide que prioricemos nuestras vidas y hagamos de lo que le importa a Dios lo que más nos importa a nosotros también. Al hacerlo, cuando nos levantemos cada día, ¡podremos ver lo que realmente necesita nuestra atención y abrazarlo con gran alegría!

Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica ~ 1117

Como ella ha hecho por el canon de la Sagrada Escritura y por la doctrina de la fe, la Iglesia, por el poder del Espíritu que la guía "en toda verdad", ha ido reconociendo gradualmente este tesoro recibido de Cristo y, de los misterios de Dios, ha determinado su "dispensación". Así, la Iglesia ha discernido a través de los siglos que entre las celebraciones litúrgicas hay siete que son, en el sentido estricto del término, Sacramentos instituidos por el Señor.

Pero cuando él venga, el Espíritu de verdad, te guiará a toda la verdad. El no hablará solo, pero hablará lo que oye y te declarará lo que viene. ~Juan 16:13

Why do Catholics do that?

Question:

Why do Catholics light candles in church?

Answer:

Candles have been part of the Church's worship from the earliest times. In the days before electricity, candles and oil lamps were the ways that people lighted buildings. Even today, we often still depend on candles during power outages, relying on their flickering flames to bring light into the dark.

Like our ancestors, we also light candles on special occasions. Think about a festive family meal or a romantic dinner for two — there will often be candles on the table, special objects for a special event. We light candles on birthday cakes and carry them in processions. We also place candles at makeshift memorials that appear when there has been an accident or act of violence. In these moments, their light casts aside a different kind of darkness — the darkness of grief, fear, and death.

The custom of the early Christians lighting candles and lamps at the tombs of the martyrs gave way to the practice of having candles at Mass, honoring the sacredness of the celebration.

As Christians decorated their worship spaces with statues and icons, they would burn candles in front of sacred images and the relics of the saints, basically "shining a light" on what they held to be sacred. When pilgrims would visit these shrines, they would often bring candles to light before the image or relic. These candles came to be a symbol of the person, and their prayer and the burning these candles came to be understood as an extension and continuation of the prayer that was offered. What began as a practical way to provide light has come to be a symbol of the hopes, desires, loves, losses, fears, and faith of everyday Christians offering their prayers to God and his saints.
