FROM YOUR PASTOR'S PEN

CHURCH'S TEACHING ON MARRIAGE

The Archbishop of Sydney Australia, Anthony Fisher, recently reaffirmed the Church's teaching! Here are some excerpts!

"Married couples (as man and woman) are 'signs of contradiction' to parts of our present culture. Marriage, as traditionally understood, as universally understood meant a comprehensive bodily, psychological and spiritual union between a man and a woman whereby they become "one flesh" and so found a family. That's why these couples did not promise to become 'spouses' or 'partners' but to become 'husband' and a 'wife'. That's why they promised to be faithful ('for better, for worse', 'to the exclusion of all others') and fruitful (open to new life) and final (indissoluble, 'till death do us part'). These dimensions of real marriage make it a prophetic sign today, a sign of contradiction, because some want to reduce marriage to no more than a public statement of a physical-emotional bond between any two people. On the Christian view, on the other hand, what is so special about marital relationships, is that they bring together for life people of opposite sex, of complementary sexuality, as 'man and wife', hopefully to found a family, the fundamental cell of Church and society, and to give their all to that end, exclusively and for life. Marriage brings together and attempts to hold together things that otherwise tend to fall apart: man and woman, sex and love, love and babies, parents and children...

"To say this is not to criticize anyone. We all know and love people who have genuinely given marriage their all and yet it has fallen apart. We know and love others who have tried and failed to have children. We know and love others with same-sex attraction, who understandably want their friendships to last and be honored. We know and love others whose vocation has been to remain single and find other ways to serve life and love. To say marriage is special is not to demean these other realities; rather it respects the diverse ways of being human and loving, not pretending away the differences.

"But there are voices in our culture that no longer think marriage need be for life, or be open to children, or be exclusive, or be between man and wife. They write off as bigoted those who stand by marriage as traditionally understood. As a result Christian couples today can find themselves in an uncomfortable position, for some politically, culturally and commercially powerful forces are determined to silence any alternative to their 'politically' correct position in this matter; to bully us all into accepting the deconstruction and redefinition of a fundamental institution; and to relegate questions of what marriage is and is for as secondary to an homogenizing 'equality'.

"We must resolve to support marriages, so they really can be faithful, fruitful, final unions of people of opposite sex, while also supporting and loving people in other situations too. Thank you dear married couples for your prophetic role in teaching us all how to love and to bear witness to Christ!

May God bless you abundantly!" Fr. Ralph

THANKS FOR THE GOLF OUTING!

For months Cindy and Jack Gaudion along with a team of helpers shepherded the coordinating and planning of the St. Paul School Golf Outing at the Legend of Merrill Hills Country Club. On Monday, July 13, both the golf outing (65 golfers) and a dinner auction (101 people) took place and was a great success. The event raised over $59,000. I want to thank Jack and Cindy and all those others who volunteered their time and efforts to make this event happen. Thanks too to the donors of auction items and to those who bid on and purchased those items.

God reward you all for your generosity! Fr. Ralph

Pray for our High School students and their chaperones as they attend a Steubenville Conference this weekend.

Faith Formation

Faith Formation Registration still being accepted.

(See our website for necessary forms.)

Can you be sincere in sharing your faith with kids?

Why not consider being a small or large group leader for 1st – 8th grade students in our faith formation program here at St. Paul's.

Large group leaders teach the main lesson while the small group leaders discuss and apply the faith lesson in their lives. This program is different from what has been done in ages past – we have taken the wisdom from before and are applying it in a new way to help reach the children of St. Paul's for Christ.

If you are interested – even if just a little – in helping, please contact Karen at (262) 968-2276 or kfarrell@stpaulgenesee.net.

Do you love playing with children? We are looking for volunteers for our Kid Zone during the 10 a.m. Mass. This is a wonderful service that we offer for families with young children. It simply requires attendance of our Safe Environment sessions and a background check and you will be able to hang out with some amazing little people while their parents go to Mass.

Contact Karen at the Parish Office if you are interested: kfarrell@stpaulgenesee.net or (262)968-2276.
