Sunday, January 29th,

Thoughts from
Fr. Dan

Last Wednesday, our Church celebrated the feast of St. Paul's Conversion. If you recall Pope Benedict XVI had declared the Church would observe a celebration in honor of St. Paul the Apostle, from June 28, 2008, to June 29, 2009.

Why a Year of St. Paul? Periodically, the Church sets aside an entire year to encourage all of us to focus on some particular and important aspect of our Faith. This past year, we have been given an opportunity to honor one of the great saints and founders of the early Church — the Apostle Paul.

Saints' days are usually associated with their deaths. Paul's is the only feast in the Church calendar commemorating a saint's conversion. Why is this particular conversion so important to the Church? Acts of the Apostles tells how Jesus apprehended Paul on the road to Damascus and shows just how critical that event was to the Church's beginnings. This tireless convert, once a Church opponent, became what some call "the second founder of Christianity," after Christ himself.

Paul's entire life can be explained in terms of one experience—his meeting with Jesus on the road to Damascus. In an instant, he saw that all the zeal of his dynamic personality was being wasted, like the strength of a boxer swinging wildly. Perhaps he had never seen Jesus, who was only a few years older. But he had acquired a zealot's hatred of all Jesus stood for, as he began to harass the Church: "...entering house after house and dragging out men and women, he handed them over for imprisonment" (Acts 8:3b). Now he himself was "entered," possessed, all his energy harnessed to one goal—being a slave of Christ in the ministry of reconciliation, an instrument to help others experience the one Savior.

One sentence determined his theology: "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting" (Acts 9:5b). Jesus was mysteriously identified with people—the loving group of people Saul had been running down like criminals. Jesus, he saw, was the mysterious fulfillment of all he had been blindly pursuing.

From then on, his only work was to "present everyone perfect in Christ. For this I labor and struggle, in accord with the exercise of his power working within me" (Colossians 1:28b-29). "For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and [with] much conviction" (1 Thessalonians 1:5a).

Paul's life became a tireless proclaiming and living out of the message of the cross: Christians die baptismally to sin and are buried with Christ; they are dead to all that is sinful and unredeemed in the world. They are made into a new creation, already sharing Christ's victory and someday to rise from the dead like him. Through this risen Christ the Father pours out the Spirit on them, making them completely new.

Paul's great message to the world was: You are saved entirely by God, not by anything you can do. Saving faith is the gift of total, free, personal and loving commitment to Christ, a commitment that then bears fruit in more "works" than the Law could ever contemplate.

God Bless, Fr. Dan

Feast Day of our Patron

God, who taught the whole world through the preaching of the blessed Apostle Paul, draw us, we pray, nearer to you through the example of him whose conversion we celebrate today, and so make us witnesses to your truth in the world. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: A special blessing of throats occurs on the feast of St. Blaise, February 3. What is the origin of this?

Answer: St. Blaise was a bishop of Sebaste, Armenia, in modern Turkey, who was martyred for witnessing to the faith. He was tortured and beheaded for his beliefs by the local Roman governor around AD 316. This is all that is known about him, the rest being legend. We know much more about devotion to and the popularity of St. Blaise than historical facts.

The special blessing of throats associated with St. Blaise is due to a miracle attributed to him. While in prison, he miraculously saved a boy choking on a fish bone. Early in the sixth century, evidence exists in the Eastern Church that Blaise was prayed to for ailments of the throat. To this day, his feast is a holy day in the Eastern Church. In the ninth century, veneration of St. Blaise came to the Western Church and became very popular. Blessing of the throats with crossed candles began in the 1500s, the height of devotion to St. Blaise, and that blessing is still part of the devotion of the Catholic Church. Celebrated at St. Bruno 8:45am mass Feb 1 & St. Paul 8:45am mass Feb 3.

FOR YOU.....ADULTS

.....fan into flame the gift of God

Thelma Walker: Prayer, Food for the Journey.

February 12 @ St. Bruno 9-10:15

Scripture and our faith tradition have given us many examples to assist us in understanding how the way we pray changes during our lifetime. We'll learn from people like Therese of Lisieux and Julian of Norwich along with examples from Joyce Rupp's book, "The Cup of Our Life," the many styles of prayer and how to discern our prayer style.

Good timing with Lent just around the corner. Thelma's Advent talk at St Paul's was beautiful, please mark this prayer talk on your calendar. For more information, contact Mary Kral, Adult Formation (marykral4@gmail.com, 262-968-2276 x 202).

CHALLENGE YOURSELF!

This Lent, challenge yourself to a deeper encounter with our Lord. Challenge yourself to sign up for a small faith sharing group. Or really challenge yourself and invite a group of friends to join you in looking at the upcoming Sunday readings (all materials and support to you, as leader, will be provided). Challenge yourself to attend the Holy Week services and to join in for Stations of the Cross, Adoration, and Reconciliation more frequently this Lent. Look for sign-ups in the Gathering Space @ St. Paul's.

Note to parents of young ones: we are in the process of identifying students in our parish who would be willing to babysit for their FIAT (Faith In Action Task) requirements, so don't let that stop you from considering a small group this Lent. It can be very valuable, both spiritually and personally, to be in a small faith sharing group with other parents.

Questions? Please call Mary Kral (especially for more conversation if you are thinking about challenging yourself to lead a small group!)

Silent Preached Retreat - Don't let "silent" scare you!

Please pray about this as a gift for yourself, your spouse or even an adult son/daughter. The Redemptorist Retreat Center is nearby and the beautiful grounds offer ample chances for prayerful reflection and solitude. The opportunity to get away from Friday around 6pm until Sunday at 1pm can be a blessing in your busy life, especially now as you are recovering from Christmas busyness? There are weekends set aside for St. Paul/St. Bruno members but you can go to any retreat. Check the website:

www.redemptoristretreat.org.

Men of St. Paul/St. Bruno - let's go Feb. 17-19!

FAITH FORMATION

Help IS NEEDED!

We are currently looking to have more volunteers for our Kid Zone - childcare during the 8:30 a.m. Mass. Volunteers take a rotation and help watch children in the gym. We really need to have some help - this goes a long way in helping parents with young children feel they can get spiritually nourished.
