EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Art Buchwald, the longtime humorist for the "Washington Post" who died in 2007 is credited with saying, "The best things in life aren't things." As Christians, we know this statement to be true. Certainly the best things in our lives are not those items that money can buy or things we can create in the material world. Faith, hope, and love are more precious than anything we can see with our eyes. Yet, as humans we often find ourselves longing for the very things that we claim are not nearly as valuable. We lose sight of what is real and true.

Paul wrote in the fourth chapter of his Letter to the Philippians that he has experienced both living with abundance and then with very little. Regardless of what we have in terms of worldly goods, Paul reminds us that God provides for all our needs. God may not provide for our wants, but he does give us what we need.

The flesh seeks what it wants, but the spirit seeks what it needs. In a stewardship way of life, we must always remind ourselves that true wealth never comes from material possessions and money. True wealth comes from the love we share, the faith we develop, and the hope we bring to others. The best things in life aren't free, though. They require work, commitment, and fortitude. We need to cultivate these things daily. If we are serious about living life in this way, we will find that when our days on this earth are through, we really had it all.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Therefore be merciful, even as your Father is also merciful.

-Luke 6:36

FOR THE KIDS

Sharing the Gospel

Imagine how it would feel to be invited by a king to come to his palace for a party!

Well, you have been invited! God wants you to come. People who ignore God will not go to heaven. Don't ignore God. Say "yes" to his invitation. Go to God's party in heaven!

Prayer

Thank you for inviting me to heaven, God. I want to go!

WELCOME TO ST. PAUL PARISH

A Place For You

Welcome! Maybe you have been away from the Church for a little while or for quite some time, but now you feel a tug at your heart calling you back to the Catholic Church. Listen to that tug. It's your Heavenly Father reaching His arms out to you, the Holy Spirit whispering in your ear, hoping to draw you home.

We hope you accept this as your invitation to rediscover the truth, wonder and mystery of the Catholic faith. As your brothers and sisters in our worldwide Catholic family, we want you back. We've missed you, and our Parish is not the same without you.

If you are a practicing Catholic and have decided to make St. Paul your church home, simply call 262-968-3865, come by or visit www.stpaulgenesees.net to get registered.

Anointing of the Sick will take place after 5:30pm mass on Oct. 21 at St. Paul's. Also available after 10:30am, Oct. 22, at St. Bruno's.

In the Epistle of St. James we read "Is anyone sick among you?" Let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord". If you would like to be anointed please remain in your seat after the service.

PRAYER INTENTIONS

- ✠ A group of Candidates and Catechumens and their leaders will begin their journey through RCIA beginning October. Please keep them in your prayers.
- ✠ Pray for our Confirmation Candidates who are on retreat this weekend. Let them be guided by the Holy Spirit to a greater understanding of how their faith is always present in their lives.
- ✠ For those who are participating in our 24 Adoration and Rosary Rally. Add your prayers to the litany for our Parish.

SPECIAL MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

There will be a special Mass of Remembrance at 6:30pm on Thursday, November 2 to remember, in a special way, those St. Paul parishioners who died in the past year. All parishioners are welcome to attend this mass to remember those who've died from our parish.

Keeping the Faith

E is for Eucharist

P - Pray

R - Read Scripture

E - Eucharist - receive the Eucharist regularly

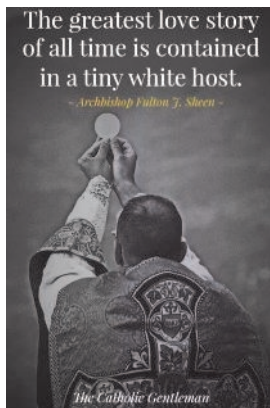

P - Participate in parish life

A - Ask for Forgiveness; go to Reconciliation

R - Reach out to the Least of our brothers and sisters

e - Evangelize - share the love of Jesus with those around you!

It was a trying time in my life. I felt as though my heart was torn in two; I was weary and tired. I walked into the Adoration Chapel (a room reserved to pray before the Eucharist), went on my knees and knew that Jesus was there, and all would be ok. I was met with a peace which surpassed all understanding (c.f. Philippians 4:7). My lot did not necessarily change that day, but it didn't matter. I was met with the love of a God who not only loves me enough to die for me, but also to want to become one with me, fallen and broken though I am, in the Eucharist.

The Eucharist is so much more than a symbol. That little host contains within it the God whom the world cannot contain. The very same God who chose to surrender heaven in order to save me from sin. It is the very same God who humbles Himself to become our spiritual food. Going to Mass and receiving the Eucharist is an encounter with Eternal, Unconditional, RADICAL Love.

Each Sunday this very same God waits for us to come to Him at Mass. He longingly desires to be invited in and to transform your heart into His palace. But this is not something He will ever force anyone to do. It is always an invitation. Are you willing to accept His invitation?

St. Paul Annual Spaghetti Dinner

Special Welcome for Veterans

After the Masses On October 21/22, representatives from the parish will be available to provide information about this year's Women of Christ conference at Washington County fairgrounds. You may sign up and also receive car pool information as well.

There is something extraordinarily powerful about women supporting and building each other up. I wish I could give it words – but there are times words fail. Women of Christ is an opportunity for us as women to build up and support each other in a manner only women can. And this overflows into your life in amazing ways. It is an encounter with the God who'd rather die than live without us. It may seem like you can't do it because of life being so busy, but I would say this is something we can't not do BECAUSE our lives are so busy. It is a time to work on your relationship with God. Mark your calendars for November 4th. In the next couple of weeks we will have a sign-up genius. If you don't come with us, that is ok. But please make sure you do something... and husbands and dads – make sure you are encouraging your wife. Remember, moms often take care of everyone else before they take care of themselves. They need to be reminded to take care of themselves.

Other Talent Needs of the Parish

ART & ENVIRONMENT

Do you decorate your home for the holidays? Why not consider helping to decorate God's house? An Art & Environment Committee needs to be formed. It's time for new ideas, new energy, and new members. Join together. Many hands are needed. You do as much as you are able. Contact Jean Lindemeyer at jalindemeyer@gmail.com or Peggy Kolonko at pkolonko@stpaulgenesees.net (262-968-3865) if you are interested. Watch the bulletin for further information.

Your help is needed NOW!

You are invited for Bereavement Support.

St. Paul Catholic Parish is offering Four sessions for people who are grieving the loss of a loved one. Please allow us to nourish you, pamper you, and empower you, all offered in a loving environment. We, St. Paul's Bereavement Committee, believe that as we are supportive of people in times of joy, we also want to walk with those in times of sadness, loneliness and mourning, and help them bear their burden of sorrow.

Four sessions are planned for Sunday mornings in the Family Room from 10:15 – 11:30am. The facilitator will be Cathy Labinski, a retired hospice chaplain.

- ~ On November 19, an overview of the grieving process will be presented.
- ~ On November 26, we will reflect on the wide gamut of feelings that overwhelm a grieving person.
- ~ On December 3, we will focus on how to take care of oneself as one moves through the grieving process.
- ~ On December 10, ideas will be shared on how to get through the holidays which are just around the corner.

Light refreshments will be served, so please RSVP to St. Paul Parish Office at 262-968-3865 to help us plan appropriately – or just come. We want to help you walk through a dark time.
