EASTER SUNDAY

Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. - Jn 20:8

Weekly Message

Why do you seek the living among the dead?

He is not here, but has risen" (Lk 24:5).

These words of the two men dressed "in dazzling apparel" rekindle the hope of the women who had rushed to the tomb at the break of dawn. These women did not yet know that this was the dawn of the most important day of history. They could not have known that they, they themselves, would be the first witnesses of Jesus' Resurrection.

Each of us must encounter the risen Christ in our own way if we are to go beyond simply a rational acceptance of church teaching to build a personal relationship with God. In some way we must go through our own passion, crucifixion and descent to the dead, to recognize the gaze of the risen Jesus. "I will be with you always, even to the end of the age," Jesus told his disciples in Matthew's Gospel. And, indeed, He is, in response to prayers, in the sacramental life of our church, and in even in our human relationships.

Then, in recognizing the risen Christ in our own lives, we begin to see him in others. And be Christ to others. This can, and should, be the gift of Christians to the world.

After the risen Lord encountered the apostles in Jerusalem and asked them why they were troubled, he showed them his hands and his feet. He affirmed to reality of his resurrection, and they became "incredulous for joy and were amazed" (Lk 24:41).

Joy is a hallmark of our encounter with the risen Christ, for we who were lost have been found.

Our age is not so different from every other age. The sins are not new. The shortcomings are not original. The suffering is no more painful than in other eras.

And our responsibility as Catholics is no different either. We are to care for the weak, bring aid to the sick, visit the prisoners, comfort the dying. We are to bring solace to the despairing, friendship to the lonely, hope to the hopeless. And we are to do all of this with joy.

This Easter, let us kneel before our risen Lord and ask him to transform our hearts, so that all who see us, see him in us. Let us joyfully celebrate Christ's final victory over death, and let us share this joy with our world. I would like to wish you and your family a Blessed and Happy Easter!

Fr. Dan

(Friday, April 6, Mass at 8:00am.)

Service at Hope Center

Members of three families answered the call in the Youth Ministry newsletter to volunteer at the Hope Center earlier in March. Here's what they had to say: "It was a great experience; my daughter and I enjoyed it. All of the attendees were very appreciative of us being there and expressed their thankfulness."

"We really had fun volunteering with and meeting other members of our church (St. Paul & St. Bruno) community while serving others in Waukesha who don't have the luxury of dinner on the table each night. The families and community members who come to The Hope Center for dinner are so kind and thankful, it makes us want to come back and help out again. We would be more than happy to volunteer again anytime in the future."

FAITH FORMATION

Holy Spirit

We rejoice in the Resurrection of Jesus at Easter and celebrate the Easter season right up to Pentecost. What a glorious time to keep talking about the love of God we've witnessed during Lent and through Holy Week. Come learn more about the Holy Spirit. Small groups will meet for six weeks between Easter and Pentecost to share how we can work with the grace of the Holy Spirit to enflame our hearts with God's love by learning more about the role of the Holy Spirit, living in the Holy Spirit, obstacles to living there, and gifts and fruits of the Spirit. Please sign up on line on the website (or call Mary Kral to sign up) so we know how many books to order ($10 cost).

Mondays, 9-10:30am, St Bruno Parish Room beginning April 9
Wednesdays, 7-8:30pm, St Paul Parish Office beginning April 11

PRAYER WALL

The concept is extremely simple. We all have many needs and things to pray for in our lives, great and small, so, therefore, you are encouraged to write out prayer petitions and place them in the wall at any time. We encourage you to also take another's petition home with you and pray for it. It is our hope that this will become a perpetual prayer wall and a place where you can leave your prayer requests and prayerfully support the needs of others in our community.

Happy Easter!

Jesus lives! The love He has for us that brought Him to the cross could not be contained by the grave!

He LIVES!

And because He lives, we are invited to live in the FULLNESS of His life.

All we need to do is step out of the grave.

Happy and Blessed Easter!

May you encounter the Risen Jesus in your hearts!

Know that we are ALWAYS praying for you.

FOR THE KIDS

Sharing the Gospel

Mary Magdalene was surprised when she found the empty tomb of Jesus. She ran and told Peter and John that his body was gone. Peter and John ran to the tomb. They found no body, just strips of cloth.

One piece was the cloth that covered the face of Jesus. Peter and John knew that Jesus was not in the grave, even though they did not understand what it meant to rise from the dead.

Prayer Jesus, you died and rose from the dead so I can share your life on earth and in heaven. Thank you.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?-CATHOLIC TRADITION EXPLAINED

Question: What is the most important holiday on the Catholic calendar?

Answer: In our daily life, we often refer to "holidays." The word "holiday" actually comes from the word "holy day." More than a simple celebration or family gathering, these days connect us to God in a unique way. We remember - and share in - the events in God's plan of salvation. Some feasts may be celebrated with more traditions and secular attention, like Christmas, but the most important holy day is Easter.

When Jesus died and rose again, he destroyed the ultimate weapon of sin and made it possible for us to have eternal life with him in Heaven. Without the resurrection, St. Paul tells us, our faith is in vain. This past Holy Week, we walked through the Paschal Mystery, the suffering, death, and resurrection of Christ. Easter is commemorated each time we celebrate the Mass. As St. John Paul II said, "we are an Easter people and alleluia is our song!" Jesus was born for Easter. Our joyful celebration of the resurrection is at the core of what it means to be a Christian!
