Weekly Message

"LOVE CONTAINS ALL VOCATIONS,"

Participation in the Church is based on baptism, when God gives us new life in Christ, and on faith, when God gives us the grace to see and assent to a vision of things beyond the purely visible. Those who share a common baptism and who profess the same faith participate in the one Church.

Some lay people have what theologians are now calling "a vocation within a vocation," a calling to ecclesial ministry within their basic baptismal calling to be servants of the world. For many years, lay people have served the Church and her people as catechists, liturgists, directors of charities and good works, administrators, principals and teachers in Catholic schools. Some of these activities are full-time and some part-time, some are salaried positions and some are done by volunteers. While exercised always in cooperation with ordained priests, "the ministries, the offices and roles of the lay faithful find their foundation in the sacraments of baptism and confirmation and, for a good many of them, in the sacrament of matrimony." (Christifideles laici, 23).

Those lay men and women involved with ministry, whether formally instituted or in other fashions, build up the Church and enrich the lives of all of us. Ministry in the Catholic Church is far more diverse now, and it is difficult to imagine what the Church's life would be without lay ministers. Participation in ministering to people is complemented by the many liturgical ministries that now enrich our worship of God,

St. Therese of the Child Jesus, the Little Flower, whose feast is celebrated on Oct. 1, knew what is at the heart of all participation in the Church: love. She had a heart which desired to do everything for God. This cloistered Carmelite nun wanted to teach, to be an apostle, a priest, a martyr and, especially, to be a missionary from the dawn of creation until the end of time. She laughed at herself for such desires, for she fully accepted St. Paul's reminder to the Christians at Corinth that God has determined different roles and offices in the Church. The Church is made up of many parts, and one part cannot say to another, "I have no need of you." (see 1 Cor 12, 21). The abundance of God's love filling her heart made her want to do everything possible to return that love. God made known to her how she could truly do everything if her vocation was to be love in the heart of the Church. "Love contains all vocations," wrote St. Therese. "Love is everything. It is love alone that enables the Church's members and ministers to act." We must continue that same spirit of St. Therese as our ministries and committees start up again this fall.

Is the Church Relevant?

AN INTERACTIVE EVENING
FOR ALL FAMILIES AND AGES

With Rich Curran

Is the Church Relevant?

It's a tough question many are asking today. Relevant to who and why? If it does not seem relevant to me today, why should it? If the Catholic faith and teachings really are a road map for a holy way of life and the core of that life is expressed within a family unit, we must not be afraid to ask the tough questions. Regardless if you have been a devout Catholic your whole life or you are struggling to believe any more, we invite you to join us for a night of laughter and learning as we explore the critical questions of relevancy and dialogue about concrete ways to strengthen the relational bonds for both our household and Church family.

See you November 7, 6:30-7:30pm, St. Paul Church featuring Rich Curran, Parish Success Group. Families of all ages are welcome, applicable to children grade 6 and up. Childcare will be provided.

Fellowship to follow in the St. Paul Cafeteria. The Scholastic Book Fair will also be open that evening.

Partially funded by The Catholic Experience Fund

ALPHA IS COMING!

Have you ever wondered: Is there more to life than this? Or why you are here? Ever think: Is this it? If you have, come and see. Alpha is a series of talks about various aspects of our Christian faith. Each Alpha session begins with a meal, features a video with more food (for thought!), and ends with small group conversation - a place where you can ask questions, delve into different issues and find out what others think. Alpha will be held at St Paul's this fall and at St Bruno's in the spring. The fall session begins Tuesday, October 2 in St Paul's Galleria. Alpha starts with dinner at 5:45pm and ends promptly at 7:30pm. For more information, please go to the parish website or contact Mary Kral in the parish office. Come and see!

Faith Formation

The 2018-2019 RCIA season is about to begin. RCIA is the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults. Anyone who would like to become Catholic or anyone who is Baptized Catholic but never was confirmed are welcome. This year the team would also like to open the group up to those of you in the pews who are already confirmed. It's a wonderful way to walk with others on their faith journey as they prepare to join the Catholic church during the Easter Vigil, and another opportunity for folks who are interested in getting a deeper understanding of our Catholic faith. Peter and Beth McFadden like to think of it as "Catholic 101". The group meets on Sundays after St. Paul's 9am mass until 11:30 or so. They will meet about three times per month in the Family Room. The schedule and the topics will be posted on the parish website for those of you who are curious. Our first meeting will be October 14. Come join us in "the best kept secret" in the church!

Contact Mary Kral with questions.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?-CATHOLIC TRADITION EXPLAINED

Question: I've heard that we become angels when we die. Is this what the Church teaches?

Answer: As human beings, we are both spiritual and corporeal. We are body and soul. This makes us unique in all creation. No other physical creature -- plant or animal -- possesses an immortal soul made in God's image and likeness. Like the distinction with plants and animals, angels have an entirely different sort of existence. Angels are pure immortal spirit, and they have been so since the moment of their creation. While they may take on an appearance of a body in Biblical history, they are not a body like we are. Angels are neither male nor female, despite the art we often see.

As the result of the Fall, human beings experience death. Our souls are temporarily separated from our bodies. However, we do not become something other than human. Every Sunday in the Creed we profess "I believe in the resurrection of the body." As Jesus was united with his body on the third day, so, too, will we be united with our bodies at the end of time.

For the Kids

Sharing the Gospel

If a girl is doing good things and helps you to do good things for God, she is a good friend. If a boy reminds you of how much God loves you, he is a good friend. If a child really is being helpful, don't push him or her away because he or she is not part of your family or church. God is very happy when you accept others even when they are not like you.

Prayer

Lord, help me understand that everyone is part of your family.
