Weekly Message

After the recitation of the Our Father at every Mass, the priest prays to the Lord: "In your mercy keep us free from sin…"

When people pray for freedom, perhaps they pray first for freedom from illness or violence or misfortune; but at each Mass we pray for freedom from sin, because sin is the basic form of slavery. During Lent, we undertake an examination of our lives in the light of God's mercy. We discover again our own sinfulness and taste again the forgiveness won for us by Christ on the cross. To examine ourselves, we search our conscience; to obtain forgiveness, we confess our sins and receive absolution.

What is conscience? For some, it seems to be another name for moral autonomy, a little box inside that carries our willful convictions about right and wrong. For Catholics, conscience is an exercise in judgment, and right judgment on our part reflects God's judgments about right and wrong. Since we are made in God's image and likeness, if we listen carefully to how our nature itself basically orients us, our actions will conform to God's will. What gets in the way between our actions and God's will is our own sinfulness, our own willfulness. Conscience is not a matter of will; it's a work of well-ordered reason.

To free us from personal sin, the Lord has given his Church the gift of the sacrament of Penance or Reconciliation. During Lent, Catholics are urged to confess their sins and receive absolution. The priest in the confessional is an active minister of God's infinite mercy. A good confessor is also a frequent penitent, knowing personally both the reality of sin and the limitless, renovating power of God's love, which constantly restores life. God uses the confessor to restore friendship broken by sin. Only as new creatures, freed from sin's slavery, can we recognize and celebrate the Lord's resurrection from the dead.

Freedom is a precious gift. Sometimes we destroy it ourselves, by our sinfulness; sometimes it's taken from us, both legally and illegally. During Lent, we read Exodus, the second book of Moses, the story of God's delivering the Israelites from slavery in Egypt by giving them public and social freedom in a land of his choosing. We read this story in the light of our own faith in Christ's resurrection, his breaking the shackles of our sinfulness so that He and we can live freely and in perfect conformity with His Father's will.

We might start our personal examination of conscience this Lent by asking how we have, individually and as a people, strayed and wondered from Christ and His teachings. With a well-formed and well-examined conscience, use Lent to confess your sins and experience anew the freedom of the sons and daughters of God. Then work to protect religious liberty and the freedom of the Church in our country. God bless you.

TAKE the PARISHWIDE SURVEY!!

St. Paul Catholic Church will be participating in a parish-wide survey! Please Read.

St. Paul will be participating in a parish survey about discipleship conducted by the Catholic Leadership Institute! We need your help.

Please help us by participating in a 10-15 minute survey online. The survey can be accessed at www.disciplemakerindex.com from Sunday February 23rd to Monday, March 23rd and will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide feedback on our parish's efforts to help you grow. All responses will be confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as whole.

We are trying to get the highest response rate possible. This information will be invaluable to Fr. Dan and our various ministries at St. Paul as we plan for the future and strive to be the best disciples we can be. We will receive the results this spring/summer at which time we will share what we have learned with the entire parish.

If you don't have access to a computer you can complete the survey in the parish office during regular business hours. Thank you!

Monitoring the Corona Virus

Letter from Archbishop Listecki

March 16, 2020

Dear Faithful of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, Praised be Jesus Christ! We continue to be mindful of the latest recommendations from our health departments and the CDC. With the latest directive from CDC asking that public gatherings be limited to no more than 50 people, I am providing you the latest directives with regard to the celebration of Mass and other sacraments.

Effective Wednesday, March 18, I am suspending the public celebration of Masses throughout the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, through Friday, April 3. This includes weekday and Sunday Masses. I ask that priests still celebrate Mass in their parishes, without an assembly, including the Sunday "pro populo" Masses as required by canon law.

This is a big decision and I don't make it lightly. As Catholics, the Eucharist is the source and summit of our lives. In times of public crisis, people naturally turn to the Church for spiritual direction, and we need to continue to do whatever we can to support people through prayer. However, taking precautionary measures is a prudent course of action. I would ask that, where possible, our churches remain open for private prayer and that our people reserve some part of their day for private prayer or devotions.

Liturgy for weddings, funerals and baptisms should still be celebrated, but you should work with families to try and limit attendance at these events. Communal reconciliation services should be canceled and confessions should be limited to individual confession. The 12 hours of Reconciliation across the archdiocese on April 1, will continue as scheduled. For those in RCIA, the archbishop has dispensed individuals from the scrutinies.

All non-essential Parish gatherings should be postponed, including fish fries. Schools are discontinuing face-to-face instruction this week and Religious Education programs should also stop for the time being. All of these measures will be re-evaluated on April 1, with additional communication at that time.

The Chrism Mass scheduled for Tuesday, April 7, will not be celebrated publicly. I will celebrate the Mass with our auxiliary bishops and live-stream it. The oils will be blessed and consecrated and information will be shared with you later about how we will get the oils to parishes.

Two Sunday Masses at the Cathedral will still be celebrated but without an assembly. The 9 a.m. Mass is available on Radio 920 AM, WOLF, and the 11 a.m. Mass is live-streamed on the Cathedral website. Other TV Masses are available on WVTV, My24 at 7 a.m. and 9 a.m., and on WITI Fox 6, at 5:30 a.m.

Lastly, let us hold each other in prayer during this time of concern, asking Mary Help of Christians to intercede on our behalf. Together we can pray this Spiritual Act of Communion.

An Act of Spiritual Communion My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

With the assurance of prayers,

I am, Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Jerome E. Listecki Archbishop of Milwaukee
