Weekly Message

Hello again friends,

The world – especially the barrage of voices during this pandemic – can greatly disturb our peace. When our peace is disturbed we can try to control every detail of what happens or get frustrated when people don't agree with us. How do we cultivate peace and understanding during a time of major disagreement? If ever there was a time to trust in God's will, this would be it.

When we're able to trust in God's will, the uncertainties and questions fade away, and it is easier to become a grateful people. Our parish staff continues to adapt to the ever-shifting landscape of life during COVID-19. There are more regulations on how and when to meet than ever before to promote safety. Those regulations pose - what some people would say - a problem. But most problems are just opportunities in disguise, right? Look at all the "problems" that Jesus' apostles navigated: not having enough food (Matthew 14:13-21), being caught in a storm (Mark 4:35-41), or denying Jesus (Luke 22:54-61). Jesus' lordship negates every problem when the disciples have faith in God's will.

So, too, with us. The problem that has presented itself, is that our two parishes of St. Bruno and St. Paul are being given the opportunity to share space and have a truly Christian spirit. Due to the need to maintain social distancing and sanitizing after every meeting, we have decided to move all St. Bruno and St. Paul meetings to the St. Paul campus for the 2020-21 year. God has blessed us with the ability to work together and have enough space to accommodate our many ministries. After this year of uncertainty, we will reassess. Additionally, we are working on virtual meeting capabilities so our faith family can stay connected. We are a grateful people that can help each other stay spiritually strong.

Fr. Dan

DAILY MASS TUESDAY & FRIDAY AT 8AM

Please enter the church on the belltower (west) side only.

CONFESSIONS 2ND AND 4TH SATURDAYS AT 10AM.

Please come to the East side church door under the canopy at St. Paul. Either walk up or pull up in your car, Fr. Dan will meet you outside under the canopy to hear your confession.

Annual Mass of Atonement

The annual Mass of Atonement will be held on July 28, at 5:30 p.m. at St. Dominic Parish at 18255 W. Capital Drive in Brookfield, WI. This Mass is one of the ways that the current leadership of the archdiocese publicly atones for the clergy abuse crisis and scandal. This year's Mass will be available for limited, in-person attendance. The Mass will be recorded, closed-captioned and made accessible through the Archdiocese of Milwaukee website for those unable to attend in-person. Visit www.archmil.org for more information. We would ask that you please remember all those that suffer from the wounds of abuse in your prayers for peace, healing, and justice.

Welcome! We hope you accept this as your invitation to rediscover the truth, wonder and mystery of the Catholic faith. If you are a practicing Catholic and have decided to make St. Paul your church home, simply visit www.stpaulgenesees.net or call 262-968-3865, to start to get registered.

CAMPUS UPDATE-ST. PAUL:

THE OFFICE AND CAMPUS (OTHER THAN MASS) WILL REMAIN CLOSED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE

We were very blessed to come together again for Mass. We have been working hard to sustain the sanitizing of the campus with cleaning by our staff and a newly created "Saturday Clean Team" for the month of August. If you are interested in donating toward our newly needed supplies such as masks, gloves, or sanitizer, or have any questions about our campus, contact Sherri Meyer at 262-968-3865 or smeyer@stpaulgenesees.net.

BIRTHDAY WISHES

Happy Birthday to Al Motzel on July 26 and Robert Flemming on July 27.

Best Wishes to all who are celebrating this week!!

We Belong We Believe We Become

Our beautiful Confirmation Mass celebration is scheduled for Wednesday July 29th at 6:30pm at St. Paul Parish.

PRAYER FOR CONFIRMATION CANDIDATES:

Lord, You send out Your Spirit to touch the hearts of all people, so that they may believe in You and in Jesus whom You sent. Look kindly on all candidates for Confirmation as they listen to Your voice. Open their hearts to Your Spirit and bring to fulfillment the good work that You have begun in them. As we prepare each of them for Confirmation, make each of us an instrument of Your love. Teach us to appreciate what is holy in others, and to be patient with what we do not understand. Deepen our faith in the Gospel and help us to pass it on by our example. We pray that You will continue to guide us and sustain us. Through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Faith Formation

There is this scene in the movie, The Lion King, which has been coming to me a lot lately. It's the scene where Simba is looking at the stars and suddenly a vision of Mufasa, Simba's father, appears. Mufasa questions his son why he has forgotten him? Simba tries to deny it, but the truth is, by abandoning his place in the lion pride, he has "forgotten" his father.

He does not live like he is the son of a king. He lives like a coward who is afraid to be who he was destined to be. As Mufasa leaves the vision, he urges Simba, "Remember who you are!"

So... if I were to tell you to remember who you are, what would come to your mind? Would you remember that you are chosen by God, an adopted son or daughter of the Most High God, who is heir to His kingdom? Would you remember that you come from a long line of men and women who would rather die than deny Jesus? Would you remember that their willingness to die for what they believe is an ever present reminder that what we believe is not ONLY worth dying for, it's also something for which to live? Do you remember that we also have trail-blazers who went before us, beginning hospitals and schools and transforming the world into a place that is kinder and more gentle and a little more holy? Would you remember that Jesus came to die and to rise to save YOU? Would you remember that you have lineage that goes even further back... all the way to the Garden where God put our First Parents and that He delighted because He would one day be able to create YOU and be in relationship with YOU?

What would the Church be like if we remember this with a greater fervor? What would our parish be like if we collectively remembered who we are and where we come from?

What would our lives look like if we lived and breathed this reality on a daily basis?

We are loved. And yet how often do we keep this status in our minds and on our hearts? It is so easy to forget. Life knocks us down a lot. And, we are sinners. We do things that are not worthy of our adoption as sons and daughters of God. And, to be honest, our sinfulness often stems from forgetting who we are.

I lived a long time struggling with the idea that I was a beloved child of God. Intellectually, I knew all of the theology and could recite the passages, but the truth is it could not penetrate my broken heart. A heart that was broken from sin - both mine and others. So all of those promises in Scripture, they were true... but not for me.

But then, something happened. God sent people into my life to speak Jesus to and it began to penetrate my heart. No longer did I see myself as someone outside of God's love, but rather an integral part of HIS family. A part that is beloved.

The same is true for you. No matter what you think or feel about yourself, no matter what lies you have been told, or what lies you have told to yourself. Your existence gives glory to the God of the universe, and to deny that is to deny His glory.

So, remember who you are.

Adult Formation

What is YOUR purpose?

Today's second reading reminds us that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to His purpose.

PURPOSE: the feeling of being determined to do or achieve something. (dictionary.com). So what is YOUR purpose? St. Paul goes on to say that we are to be conformed to the image of his Son. There's a purpose for you! This reminds those of a certain age of the Baltimore Catechism: God made me to know Him, to love Him, and to serve Him in this world, and to be happy with Him forever in the next.

We BELONG to Him – we were baptized and adopted into the Trinity through the gift of the Holy Spirit. Living in our family of faith helps us belong. Sharing faith brings us unity (pause here for a word from our parish: pray about joining a small group!). As we get to know Him, we come to belong more and more to Him – and unity with the Head of the Body of Christ brings unity in the entire body of Christ. We belong to each other. On purpose. For HIS purpose - to be in relationship with Him.

Through the gift of creation of the world, this bumblebee was created for a significant purpose – cross pollination. Without his gift, the world will be missing something so important (about 1/3 of our food crop depends on pollinators).

Are you living your purpose? BEE (sorry I just cannot resist) conformed to the image of His Son, BEE the light of Christ, BEE loving, BEE His presence in the world. The world is missing something if you aren't living your purpose!

Love ONE ANOTHER

BY: ARCHBISHOP JEROME E. LISTECKI

July 13, 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I have always been inspired by those who achieve a level of intellectual, athletic, artistic or economic superiority. You know that it took a great deal of work and effort; rightfully, the society holds them up as role models. However, without a doubt, the most influential impact on my life has been by those who exercised kindness in any field I was engaging in. It's not that any of the achievements of role models in various fields are less important, but without kindness, those achievements lose a sense of connectedness.

It has been through the kindness of others that I was encouraged to strive for goals. Embedded in the sense of kindness is the care of others. In college, it was the kind teacher who encouraged me to consider law studies and did so to the advantage of the Church that I love. In high school, it was the kind English teacher who took the time to critique my creative writing and share his passion for literature that this LOA, as well as many of my homilies, respect the written word and its influence. It was the kindness of a college baseball teammate who consoled me after a two error game to shake it off and come back the next day, helping me to get over my self-pity and see the larger responsibility to the team. In my priesthood, and as a bishop, I have been the recipient of many acts of kindness by women, men and children, which has shaped my priestly ministry and made me a better Christian.

I believe at the root of our Christian faith is kindness. Kindness is more than empathy. Empathy identifies with another person, but with kindness, there is outreach and an act of goodwill. Kindness moves one to speak or act on behalf of another person, who really has no obligation to do so.

I imagine that one of the attractive traits of Jesus was His kindness. You hear in the Gospels that He was moved to pity for the crowd; he cured them, he fed them and he preached to them. He owed them nothing; in fact, they owed Him. Kindness doesn't always receive a thank you. Did the couple at the wedding feast send Him a note of gratitude for the wine? Even on the cross, Christ did not think of Himself but of Dismas, reassuring the good thief of his place in paradise.

Our society could use a strong dose of kindness. We are so politicized that we are unable to give simple praise for a job well done or support for leadership efforts on behalf of our nation without accusations that bespeak partisan politics.

Part of evangelization starts with a sense of kindness. There is a balance in kindness. We want to be a member of a Christian community that reflects a sense of kindness that contributes and builds up rather than wastes or tears down. We can easily practice kindness by the way we LOVE ONE ANOTHER.

Sincerely,

Most Reverend Jerome E. ListECKI

Archbishop of Milwaukee
