A parish trustee is an active, responsible lay parishioner who is called to serve the parish as a member of the corporate Board of Directors. Trustees act in a leadership role as a member of the Pastoral Council and the Finance Council. A more complete description of the Trustee-Secretary's responsibilities can be viewed at the Parish Office during normal office hours. Each term is for 2 years with no limit on the number of terms that may be served.

MEMORIALS TO ST. PAUL CATHOLIC CHURCH:

As a parish community, we have been very blessed to receive memorials in honor of loved ones who have passed on. These financial gifts allow the parish to provide perpetual care (upkeep, lawn care, etc.) for our private cemetery. We ask for God's continued blessings upon our parish and those who have gone before us.

WELCOME TO ST. PAUL'S

We do have social distance protocols in place for your safety. Masks are required. The rest of the campus (other than Mass) will remain closed until further notice. Feel free to give the office a call at 262-968-3865 or stop by! We'd love to see you.

Stewardship: Belong, Believe, Become

Today's Gospel is from John 15:1-8, which - ironically - I touched on last week! While I focused on the "remain in Jesus" part of the verse last week, I want to focus on the last line: "By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples." God is glorified when we bear much fruit and become Jesus' disciples. But what does it mean to "bear fruit?" I have pondered what this means for my daily life. I don't have actual branches coming off me. And I don't think Jesus meant that I need to be an actual farmer, which is good because I do NOT have a green thumb! But I was challenged recently when I heard this question "What kind of fruit is your life producing?" This question, posed by Fr. Dave Pivonka in the "Wild Goose" series, was followed by Galatians 5:22-23 which gave me a different view on bearing fruit: "...the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control." Jesus' words were to remain in Him. If we are remaining in Jesus, then the Holy Spirit dwells within us. And when we allow the Holy Spirit to dwell and work through us, we naturally bear fruit. It is not something we need to grasp at or earn. It comes, like flowers blooming in the spring after a good rain. Allow the Holy Spirit to work through you, then those fruits of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control will bloom in your life and bear fruit for the Kingdom of God.

To God be the Glory, Kelsey - kdemara@stpaulgenesees.net

Faith Formation

I grew up during the time when "WWJD" (what would Jesus do?) was all the rage. I remember reading someone commenting that, apparently, He would go shopping as a response to this question. That thought has long stuck with me. I know there have been times where I felt I needed something that would better help me on my journey of faith, so of course I would get it. After all, God is the most important facet of my life. Nothing could be too much for Him. Or, another thing I have slipped into, when I feel as though I have been rather lukewarm in my prayer life, I start thinking I will read this book... or maybe that book over there. The list becomes endless.

And I share this with you because I am willing to bet that you have spent some time in one of these camps at some time in your life. Or maybe not. I do know I have witnessed others doing both of these - from buying up all the merchandise at a Christian concert to getting the latest book to going on the next best pilgrimage. Now, all of these things... they are good in and of themselves. It can be a little concerning when you witness people going through all of these "things". Why? Because at the heart of it all is one of two things: insecurity in who you are as a beloved child of God OR it is a badge of honor. There is nothing you won't do...

And the truth is... none of the stuff really makes us holy. It can be a great sign post towards holiness, tools to help us sojourn onward, but ultimately the life of faith is marked by the cross.

The reading for today reminds me of this. The best grape vines have been pruned... a lot. And in fact, most of the branches that grew from the single seed, they have been cut away. Only the strongest and most fruitful branches remain. And the thing is... I think if you are not a gardener (and I am not), you would tend to think that the more branches and the more leaves you have on the vine, the better. You get more chances to have delicious grapes. Yet, the more 'full' the vine is, the less energy it has to grow the rich fruit that we love... the rich fruit that can become wine.

I think, in our own spiritual walk, it is important not to allow the things that are to point us to God become an actual hindrance. It's not the one who has the most "stuff" of our faith that are holiest. It is those who abide in Jesus and truly are willing to cut off the things that keep them from Him that become the holiest. It is hard... it's a little like our own cross... but the reward is far greater than the sacrifice. You see, when we have pruned away the extras... even the good extras... the things that don't help us... we have the God of the universe desiring to see us. And that can't be found in any book or CD. It only comes by laying your heart down before the Lord, receiving the Sacraments and allowing God to be the Lord of your life. And... it doesn't get any better than that!

NEW LIFE IN CHRIST

Chapter 2

For the next few weeks, we will hear from people who have been in parish small groups for faith sharing. Last week I wrote about the new growth, like mayapples in spring. Just as the mayapples are growing, so, too, are your fellow parish members.

"I love the small group discussions. It is one of the reasons I joined the men's group at the parish. Sometimes you think you are alone in the way you think or struggles you are having in life or faith. Then you sit down and talk with others that you don't know and you find you are not alone. Other people in your parish are struggling with the same items you are. It also gives me a chance to listen and learn from others. I also meet other members of the parish that I may not know and that has blossomed into long term friendships. Small groups help us to open our minds up more and do things to help strengthen our faith that normally we may not do. I am very grateful my wife "pushed" me into the men's group years ago. I know for a fact my faith is much stronger today because of it. [Studies like] Alpha and The Search are great ways to strengthen our faith by challenging us to look at our faith differently than we have in the past."

Human Concerns

GENEROUS LENTEN ALMSGIVING FOR PERU

As one of the three pillars of Lenten practice, almsgiving is "a witness to fraternal charity" and "a work of justice pleasing to God". (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #2462) This Lent we had the opportunity to exercise justice for God's people in Peru in the form of donations over $4500.00. Our parish has a relationship with the School Sisters of St Francis in Paita, Peru, at the St Clare Community. Covid has been especially hard on the families in Peru who had already been suffering unemployment due to a change in water temperatures affecting their fishing industry, worsening the poverty in that area. You were so generous in your almsgiving.

Thank you for being a witness to fraternal charity. You can learn more about our brothers and sisters in Paita on our website: <https://stpaulgenesee.net/sister-parishes>

HYGIENE DRIVE is a collection to support our brothers and sisters at St Ben's. Please return the hygiene items by May 1 to the bins provided at the entrances to the church or to the parish office.

Please join us this month in supporting Heavenly Babies "Baby Shower in a Bag". We need boy and girl clothing (onesies, sleepers, and outfits) size 0 - 3 and 3 - 6 months new or gently used (spring/fall, winter, summer). Bibs, hats, socks, receiving blankets, crib blankets, are also greatly appreciated. Watch clearance/closeout sales, thrift shops, and collect items from home, friends, family, rummage or handmade items. This collection will help us provide baby showers to new mothers in June and beyond. Look for dropoff bins in Church or bring to the Parish Office.
