Weekly Message

Gospel Meditation

Encouraging Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Could it be that God's image has become so soiled and distorted that it is hard for us to see it? Our self-serving agendas have done a great job twisting God's image into what profits us. We want our agenda to be God's agenda and use prayer as the convincing leverage we need. Worse still, our success and egocentric agenda often erases God's image completely, replacing it with our own. St. Oscar Romero instructs us that the Son of Man "dies on the cross to cleanse God's image, which is soiled in today's humanity, a humanity so enslaved, so selfish, so sinful." Striving to preserve control of our destinies at all costs, we fail to see the risen suffering servant, the Christ, standing right beside us.

Jesus, who suffered and died on a cross and was raised from the dead, corrects our soiled image of God. He shows us God as God is, not who we want to make God to be. God is the God of the poor, the weak, and the marginalized. He is the God who tenderly caresses us when we are suffering and hurting, assuring us that all will be safe and well. He is the God of equity, peace, justice, and compassion who wants happiness for each of His children, desiring their wellbeing and success. God goes where men and women are afraid to go, sitting with the lost, the broken, and the sorrowing. St. Oscar Romero challenges us to illuminate with "Christ's light … even the most hideous caverns of the human person: torture, jail, plunder, want, chronic illness. The oppressed must be saved." The resurrection calls us to be God's microphone, a messenger, and a prophet (St. Oscar Romero).

Using eyes that see beyond the limited constructs and desires of our world, we can see the true and real Jesus standing before us, calling us to transformation and change. Asking us more than once, "do you love me?" We are beckoned to give an answer. Answering in the affirmative, it is now our task to feed the sheep and the lambs who belong to God. In short, equipped with the power of the resurrection and a corrected image of God our task is to make things better, brighter, holier, more life-giving, and just for all of God's children. Considering our choices, our interactions, our philosophies, and aspirations, how can we do this? ©LPi

IMPORTANT! Please Note:
Mass on Tuesday, May 3rd is Cancelled.

Welcome to St. Paul Catholic Church

Welcome! We are happy to have you join us at Mass. If you are visiting, looking for a new parish or just need more information about the Catholic faith, simply visit our website at www.stpaulgenesee.net, call us at 262-968-3865 or email at office@stpaulgenesee.net

Meet MATT BYCZYNSKI

Please welcome Matt! Matt will be our new Director of Liturgy and Music serving St. Paul and St. Bruno parishes. He will work alongside Peggy Kolonko beginning April 30, until she retires in June. Matt holds a Master's Degree in Business Administration from Cardinal Stritch University and has been involved in liturgical music throughout the Archdiocese for more than 2 decades, serving multiple parishes over the years. He's looking forward to meeting all of our parishioners, volunteers and staff as well as deepening the way that music connects us to liturgy. When you see Matt, say hi!

Meet KARIN MARCUS

Please welcome Karin! Karin is our new Director of Administrative Services at St. Paul. Karin has spent the past 30 + years with Marcus Promotions, in accounting and human resources and holds a degree in Organizational Communication. She looks forward to collaborating, creating and developing processes that will increase efficiency in a faith-filled environment and serving our St. Paul family. Welcome aboard, Karin!

Adult Faith Formation

ALLELUIA!

We are an Easter people and we have so much to celebrate in this Easter season. Jesus is risen. We have new life! Speaking of new life, we celebrated at the Easter Vigil! Alleluia! Dan Brogli was baptized and received in the Catholic Church! Alleluia! Gayle Klawitter was received into full communion in the Catholic Church! We welcome Dan and Gayle into our family of faith. We pray for them as they continue their journeys of faith and look for ways to help them belong, believe, and become.

Youth Faith Formation

The Eucharist is such a gift. Jesus comes into our lives each and every day to be received. Because of Jesus, we are never alone. We have an opportunity to live in the very life of God! No other world religion has revealed a God who so relentlessly seeks out His creation so ardently. And, we often wonder why we don't see evidence of God in our lives, but how often do we really open our hearts up to know God and to let Him move in our lives?

Aslan in the series, The Chronicles of Narnia, is the Christ-figure. He's the lion who lays his life down for those in need. In the book, Christian C.S. Lewis describes Aslan as good, but not safe. Jesus is not safe in the sense that we will never be challenged or asked to go out of our comfort zone. But He is good. He knows that our comfort zones are more like prisons by which we live. We want comfort, but how often do we wonder, is this it?

But, my friends… there is. God is far bigger than anything we could ever desire. And He fills and stretches our lives in ways that multiply the life we have. We are more than we ever thought possible. But it does require an act of our will. A desire to say yes to Him and give Him all the stuff of our lives… the good, the bad and the ugly.

And… we can't remain indifferent. Not choosing is a choice. And if what Jesus did is true, and there is a lot of evidence that He really did die and rise again, it's too big not to truly consider. May you enter into the reality of Jesus. May you come to know Him, and may your life never be the same!

Our Parish

We Wish Fr. Dick a Fond Farewell

Sisters & Brothers at St. Paul Parish,

I have been re-assigned to our Redemptorist assisted-living community south of St. Louis. I have recently developed what is technically known as a "bum knee". After consulting over a period of 2 weeks with urgent care, emergency room, and orthopedic doctor, I have concluded that I can best have easy access to any care I need at our only Redemptorist community specifically designed for assisted-living. I will be moving down there on Tuesday, April 26. My new address will be: St. Clement Community, 300 Liguori Dr., Liguori, MO 63057. I am leaving my computer here, so I cannot be reached by email. However, you can text me (262-490-9124). I cannot respond because I only have a flip phone. Please sign your name to any text. On a personal note, I cannot adequately express to you what a blessing for me my time sharing ministry with you at St. Bruno has been over the past 12 years, beginning with the week-long parish mission given by 5 parishioners and me back in 2010. Followed by countless celebrations of Mass, Reconciliation, being part of the parish men's group, religious formation program, school, and many other activities. You will always have a special place in my heart. I wish you and your families every blessing.

Your OLD help-out priest, Fr. Dick Mevissen, CSsR
