Weekly Message

Brendan wouldn't stop. He continued nagging his mom to let him have a little more time with his phone. He knew the rules but wanted to finish a game and text a few more friends. He begged, had a temper tantrum, pleaded, screamed, pouted, and used every means he could think of to get Mom to change her mind. Mom had a busy day and was tired. At first, she held her ground. Then, her son's persistence got the best of her, and she caved. "Brendan, you can have 30 more minutes and no more!" she retorted. Brendan's determination paid off. He won.

Is this how it works with God too? If we want something enough and feel it is our due, does our persistence allow us to eventually get our way? Judging God by human standards, it would seem so. But is this the way God works? It gets a bit confusing when Jesus tells his disciples to "pray always without becoming weary" and then further tells them how God will "secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night." If we catch God at the right time, when he's having a weak moment, then our tenacity ought to pay off. What we want, we will get. Really? Sadly, the way many approach prayer suggests that this is precisely how it goes.

Good parents set boundaries and offer proper discipline. They learn the art of being steadfast when presented with determined minds and wills. They know what is best and, at times, have to say "no." God is always there with His full attention and unconditional love showering itself upon us. God also knows what is best. And, as with any good parent, the one constant that is always available and never withheld is love. We can be as persistent and determined as we want if what we are seeking is God's love. We are never a bother and requests for God's love are never denied. This is the prayer of the heart. Desiring God alone and not only what we want God to do for us places this love relationship foremost in our minds, hearts, and souls. God is never bothered by this prayer. As we breathe in and exhale out, the Divine Life freely flows. ©LPi

Child & Family Ministry

Building the Domestic Church Tip #8

Demonstrate love for your spouse, your children, your neighbors, and the world. Remind your children that they are loved by God and have been given gifts to serve others.

My parents at age 88 still hug, kiss, and say "I love you" before they go to bed. It just makes me smile to know that after 67 years as a married couple they still know the importance of demonstrating their love for each other. It reminds me to demonstrate my love to people. Maybe that "I love you" is a kind word or letting someone check out ahead of me at the Pick 'n Save. Look for ways to show people your love!

Have a great week,

Amy Golden ~ Shared Director of Child and Family Ministry

Youth Ministry (Middle & High School)

I am excited to announce that St. Bruno and St. Paul Parishes are launching a new brand for our combined Youth Ministry program, GO FISH!

GO FISH! is centered in the philosophy of taking ownership of one's own faith and following the example and mission of Christ.

We want to launch into an exciting new year with our exciting new brand with a game of kickball on the St. Paul church grounds. This fun event will take place Sunday, October 23 at 4:30pm at St. Paul. After the game is over, the teens will go to their Faith Formation classes. Teens 6th-12th grade are invited to come and play; snacks and beverages will be provided (there is a contingency plan in place in the event of bad weather).

Please complete the electronic permission on the website to register.

Abby Wass ~ Shared Director of Youth & High School Ministry

Adult Faith Formation

BE CATHOLIC - COME AND SEE

If you know someone who would like to become Catholic or if you were baptized Catholic and would like to receive First Eucharist or Confirmation, stop by to learn more and meet our RCIA team: Beth and Peter McFadzen and Cody Horlacher. An informational meeting will be held Sunday, October 23 at St Paul at 10am in the Family Room. No commitment required, just come and see!

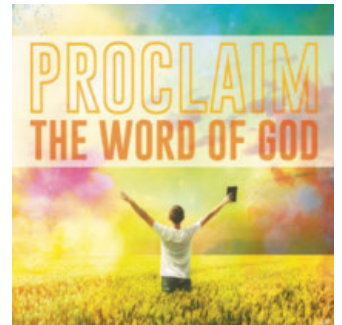

Mary Kral ~ Shared Director of Adult Faith Formation & Human Concerns

PROCLAIM THE WORD

Paul wrote that to Timothy and he could just as easily be writing it to us today – it was as important then as it is now. All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for refutation, for correction, and for training...

Check out what Paul says next: so that one who belongs to God may be competent, equipped for every good work. WE, who belong to GOD, are equipped.

We have no reason to offer excuses why we can't share our faith or serve on a committee or volunteer for a ministry because GOD has EQUIPPED us! By virtue of our baptism, we believe we have the power of the Holy Spirit within us. Paul says proclaim the word. Maybe that's sharing a bible verse with someone who needs some encouragement, or perhaps you have the chance to step out of your comfort zone and talk about how God is at work in your life, or jump in to be the hands and feet of Christ in service to others. Go to your bible and read 2 Timothy 3:14-4:2, this passage is so rich! However you do it, call on the power of the Holy Spirit and Be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient; convince, reprimand, encourage through all patience and teaching. THIS is how you become the person God created you to be! Mary Kral ~ Shared Director of Adult Faith Formation & Human Concerns

Human Concerns

RESPECT LIFE in action

For over 30 years, St Paul parish has provided a "baby shower in a bag" through its Heavenly Babies Ministry. This outreach supports 12 agencies within Milwaukee and Waukesha Counties who work with women who have chosen life for their babies and are in need of a few extra services. These agencies assist mothers with their pregnancy and teach healthy parenting skills. Heavenly Babies contributes to these efforts by assembling 35 – 60 bags each month to lift the spirits of these moms who likely do not have anyone to throw them a baby shower. This is one way we are Walking with Moms in Need, a nationwide initiative of the US Catholic bishops (walkingwithmoms.com)

We are in need of your assistance to donate new and gently used clothing 0 to 6 months for boys and girls (most needed: onesies, sleepers, outfits, jackets). Please label the donation for Heavenly Babies and deliver to the parish office or the basket in the coat room at church.

See the September 11 bulletin (or <https://stpaulgenesees.net/latest-news>) to learn about two unique young ladies who celebrated joint birthdays by supporting Heavenly Babies. They are lovely examples of faith in action and respect life. If you have any questions or would like to join the group, please contact Mary Kral in the parish office or Jennifer Aldrich, ministry chairperson, at 262.501.8411 in the evening/weekend or email at jaldrich38@hotmail.com.

Dear St. Bruno and St. Paul Parishioners,
 You and your family are warmly invited to join us for a Mass of Remembrance on Wednesday, November 2, 6:30 PM, at St. Bruno Parish. This liturgy is offered for anyone who has had a loved one die recently or some time ago. During Mass that evening, the names of all the departed will be read and a candle will be lit in memory of our loved ones. The coming holidays can be an especially difficult time for families who have had a death in the family, and this is our way of joining you in prayer and remembrance.

Please use the response form to let us know if you will be joining us at this special Mass. It is important that you complete and return the form if you want your loved one's name spoken aloud at this special Mass. This form is due not later than Wednesday, October 26, NO EXCEPTIONS! You can mail the form to the St. Bruno or St. Paul Parish Office or place completed form in the offertory basket during Mass. There will be extra copies of this form in the Parish Office and in the Gathering Place. If you have questions, please call Sandy Mayernick, at 262-968-4422, for St. Bruno Parish, or Ruth Palzkill, at 262-506-4135, for St. Paul Parish.

Please check the parish websites, www.stbrunoparish.com OR www.stpaulgenese.net as the date draws near in the event of any updates.

God's peace and comfort,
 St. Bruno Circle of Life Bereavement Ministry and St. Paul Bereavement Committee
