Weekly Message

Barry had a life sentence in prison for doing unthinkable crimes. He would often remark to the chaplain that he was an atheist and could not bring himself to believe in any "god." When the chaplain asked why, Barry quickly retorted that the book of Genesis speaks of God creating everything and feeling very good about it. God's creation of people and things is beautiful. Barry continued, "If there is a God who creates something and likes what He makes and that God is good, then how could He have created someone as evil as me?" The chaplain fell silent as tears welled up in his eyes. "God loves you too, Barry. The stuff that you did is another matter. God puts His image and likeness in each one of us, in our souls. How can God not love himself?" God cannot despise or hate anything or anyone. He made you. Life hurt you. He is always about unconditional love and mercy. Barry found a glimmer of hope that day and was touched by love.

Zacchaeus met love incarnate in Jesus. He knew there was something special about him, and he had to see Jesus for himself. Realizing and knowing God's unconditional, penetrating love is a game-changer. Sinners don't repulse Jesus, he wants to eat with them! We can often find ourselves conflicted about how God sees us. We want to believe that He loves us, but other tapes playing in our heads convince us that this cannot be true. We carry our sins around like heavy sacks weighing on our shoulders. We are crippled.

God's divine blessing lives in each of our souls. It is our essential goodness, a free gift given to us by God. The beginnings of salvation's blessings are discovered when we begin to understand who God is, who we are, and how we are to act relative to our brothers and sisters. We become more focused and courageous, eager to gather up all of the fragments of our lives and become whole. Zacchaeus, after meeting Jesus, finally knew who he was. He saw his sins and his potential for goodness as a blest child of God. When we allow God to meet us and touch us in such a profound way, we find what our selfishness has lost. We are on the road to salvation. ©LPi

Word Of Life

"The mystery of the redemption of the human person is rooted in the loving involvement of God with human suffering. Hope is always possible. To those who care for the sick, the scene of the Cross provides a way of understanding that even when it seems that there is nothing more to do there remains much to do, because 'remaining' by the side of the sick is a sign of love and of the hope that it contains. Healed by Jesus, we become men and women called to proclaim his healing power and provide care for our neighbors, until the very end."

Child & Family Ministry

Building Domestic Church

Taking a "break" from the tips on Building the Domestic Church series, to remember what Domestic Church means. "Domestic Church" refers to the family, the smallest body of gathered believers in Christ.

Catholic parents must learn to form their family as a domestic church, a church in the home as it were, where God is honored, his law is respected, prayer is a normal event, virtue is transmitted by word and example, and everyone shares the hopes, the problems and sufferings of everyone else.

For the past few weeks while preparing bulletin articles, I kept thinking about this poem first published in 1954, and very well known in the 1970's. It is worth sharing.

CHILDREN LEARN WHAT THEY LIVE

Dorothy Law Nolte (1924-2005)

If a child lives with criticism, he learns to condemn.

If a child lives with hostility, he learns to fight.

If a child lives with ridicule, he learns to be shy.

If a child lives with shame, he learns to feel guilty.

If a child lives with tolerance, he learns to be patient.

If a child lives with encouragement, he learns confidence.

If a child lives with praise, he learns to appreciate.

If a child lives with fairness, he learns justice.

If a child lives with security, he learns to have faith.

If a child lives with approval, he learns to like himself.

If a child lives with acceptance and friendship, he learns to find love in the world.

Have a great week! Will continue with Tip #10 next week.

Adult Faith Formation

ALL are called to be SAINTS

The communion of saints is a timely topic as November approaches, the month we celebrate All Saints (November 1) and All Souls (November 2) and pray for the dead. This core belief is stated in the Apostles' Creed: "I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting."

The communion of saints is a "communion," a union, a common bond, a profound connection, a great fellowship — shared among the "saints," the holy ones, the Christian faithful, those who are filled with grace, members of the one body with Christ as the head. The communion of saints is the Church (Catechism of the Catholic Church, No. 946). It has three states or divisions: the communion of saints of the living, those who are still on their pilgrim journey on earth; and the communion of saints of the dead or the faithful departed, some of whom are being purified, those in purgatory, and the ones who are enjoying eternal glory in the presence of God, those in heaven (Catechism, No. 954).

(TheCatholicSpirit.com)

Celebrate the saints! Use the month of November to read up on the canonized saints, pick a favorite one to learn more about. It's also a good time to reflect upon the communion of saints of the living. Who are those people in your life that are models of faith? Thank them for their example. In celebration of All Souls, share memories of those beloved friends and family members who are no longer with us to keep their spirit alive by telling stories of their gifts in your life. We belong to the communion of saints, we believe in the intercession of these saints for us, and we pray every day to become more like the saints.
