HOMAGE

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Faith and Fear

When I was little, you could tell I believed in the destructive power of the monsters who lived beneath my bed because I would never let my ankles anywhere near the bottom of the mattress. (It's common knowledge that bare ankles are premium monster bait — ask any child you know).

You can often tell what a person believes by what they fear.

But here's the thing: belief isn't always enough. It's obvious that Herod believed in Christ's power because of how terrified he was by it and by the room he made in his life for the possible impact of the Messiah. In fact, if belief was the only measure of orthodoxy, you could stand most modern Christians next to Herod and he would tower above them.

Remember, there's something just as bad as disobeying God: discounting Him. I know I am guilty of that in a thousand small ways each day. In the person I ignore or the opinion I sneer at. In the unkind words I let roll from my tongue. In the prayers of thanksgiving that I don't say because I am "too busy."

I believe in God, but I do not fear Him — mostly because my very modern understanding of the concept of "fear" would lump God in with those monsters beneath my bed.

But what if we understood fear in a more traditional sense — awe, reverence, and wonder? "All kings shall pay him homage, all nations shall serve him." — Psalm 72:11

When Herod heard the news of the coming of the Messiah, it compelled him to do something. Not the right thing, mind you, but something. It moved him into action.

So, then, it should move us all.

We saw his star at its rising, and have come to do him homage. — Matthew 2:2 ©LPi

Please Join Us NEXT SUNDAY for Sweet Treats and Time together!

Each Donut Sunday this year will feature a St. Paul ministry and present an opportunity for you to learn more about our church's outreach ministries and how to get involved.

Child & Family Ministry

There are many traditions for celebrating the Epiphany that stem from all over the world, from King's cake to chalking your door. The feast itself is a celebration of the 3 kings arriving to visit baby Jesus, and there are many ways to celebrate the Epiphany with kids. Epiphany Quick Facts:

- The 3 Kings can also be referred to as the 3 Magi or the 3 Wise Men
- Day the 3 kings arrive to see baby Jesus
- This day is also called "3 King's Day" or "Twelfth Night"
- Celebrated by Christians all over the world
- Kings followed a star to find Jesus, so a star is a common symbol of the Epiphany
- Crowns are worn by kings so crowns are also a common symbol of this day
- The story of the 3 kings is found in the Bible Matthew 2: 1-12
- The names of the 3 kings are: Balthasar, Melchior, and Caspar
- They brought gifts to Baby Jesus- gold, frankincense, and myrrh
- Epiphany closes the Christmas season and marks the start of the carnival season and ushers in the Mardi Gras season. Some people celebrate by sharing King Cake.

Chalking of the Doors

Epiphany marks the occasion of a time-honored Christian tradition of "chalking the doors." The formula for the ritual — adapted for 2023 — is simple: take chalk of any color and write the following above the entrance of your home: 20 + C + M + B + 23.

The letters have two meanings. First, they represent the initials of the Magi — Caspar, Malchior, and Balthazar — who came to visit Jesus in His first home. They also abbreviate the Latin phrase, Christus mansionem benedicat: "May Christ bless the house." The "+" signs represent the cross, and the "20" at the beginning and the "23" at the end mark the year. Taken together, this inscription is performed as a request for Christ to bless those homes so marked and that He stay with those who dwell therein throughout the entire year.

Continue to build your Domestic Church by chalking your door at home. What a great activity to do with your family to celebrate the Epiphany.

Sharing FAITH and LIFE in a small group is a unique opportunity for fellowship, prayer, learning, and growing deeper in your faith. One group member had this to say: "Our small group of people discussing and praying together continues to bring me hope: hope for moving closer to God, hope to plant the seeds that will help others grow closer to God and a reminder to never lose hope as God is always near!"

LET US PRAY

The over 60 million abortions since the 1973 decisions of Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton reflect with heartbreaking magnitude what Pope Francis means by a "throwaway culture." However, we have great trust in God's providence. We are reminded time and again in Scripture to seek the Lord's help, and as people of faith, we believe that our prayers are heard.

And while, on June 24, 2022, the Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization decision overturned Roe v. Wade, right now state and federal laws, in many instances, are still hostile to preborn children. So, great prayer and advocacy is still very needed.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal, no. 373, designates January 22 as a particular day of prayer and penance, called the "Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children."

PRAY TO PROTECT HUMAN LIFE! JANUARY 19-27, 2023

9 Days for Life is a novena for the protection of human life. Each day's intention is accompanied by a short reflection and suggested actions to help build a culture of life. Go to respectlife.org/9-days-for-life to sign up.

POPE'S WORLDWIDE PRAYER NETWORK

"Through the Incarnation and birth of Christ, God reveals to us the dignity of all human life. Human life, as a gift of God, is sacred and inviolable. The Son of God has united himself with every human being and desires for us to share eternal life with him... Each of us is made in the image and likeness of God, and we reflect his glory in the world."

Baptisms!

THE GIFT OF CHILDREN

We celebrate the Feasts of the Epiphany and the Baptism of our Lord back to back this week. Let us pause to thank our Lord for the gift of children in our parish community. Let us resolve to do all we can to provide these beloved children of God, who have been baptized in the past year, with a sense of belonging in our family of faith. We pray for their parents, striving to create a domestic church in their homes as they pass on to this next generation what we believe as Catholics. Celebrating the Sacrament of Baptism is the first step in becoming the people God created them to be, let us pray for these families on their journey of faith.
