RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Art of Retreat

Social media has made it far too easy for me to share my opinion.

These virtual spaces tend to strip our words of all empathy. Someone will post something that I think is nonsense, and I just have to tell them why — and quickly! Hurry! Before they delete it!

Nine times out of ten, when the dust is settled, I find that I've said too much and listened too little.

As I've gotten older, the motto I try (not always successfully) to live by is this: You do not have to be on the attack all of the time, even if it's for what you think is the truth.

I can't help but notice that the first thing Jesus does when he hears of the arrest of John the Baptist is to retreat. He doesn't punch a hole in a wall or take to the streets in protest. He withdraws.

And what does he do after withdrawing? A lot of praying, I would imagine. A lot of thinking, a lot of reflecting. A lot of listening to the voice of his Father.

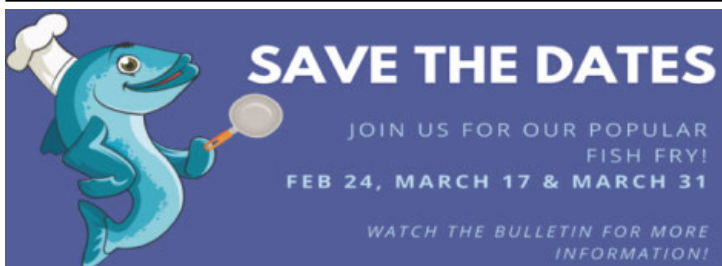

Sometimes we mistake stillness with vulnerability. But Christ shows us that to withdraw, to contemplate, can actually be a tremendous show of strength. Even the fiercest dogs wait for the command of their master before they act.

For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel, and not with the wisdom of human eloquence. — 1 Corinthians 1:17 ©LPi

Mark Your Calendars!

HAPPY PARISH FEAST DAY:

Conversion of St Paul the Apostle, January 25

This feast not only celebrates Saint Paul, it specifically celebrates his conversion. Think about that glorious conversion. Those three days that Saul spent in Damascus after encountering Jesus on the road changed his life. During those three days, he pondered Jesus' words, fasted, prayed, listened, thought, and changed. Facing the truth within his soul might not have been easy, but he did it. From that time on, the zeal that he had poured into persecution became zeal for the spreading of the Gospel. He spent the next three years in isolation, praying and studying. Over the approximately twenty-seven years that followed, Paul arguably became the greatest evangelist in the history of the world. At least thirteen of the twenty-seven New Testament books are traditionally attributed to Paul, providing us with much of what we know about Jesus. His letters are not only historical in nature, they are also rich in theology, providing the most sturdy foundation for all that we believe as Christians today. Paul personally founded more than a dozen Christian communities during his missionary travels, but the members of those communities then went forth to found many more, making Paul not only a spiritual father to many early Christians but also a spiritual grandfather to countless others. He was tireless in his efforts, despite enduring much suffering...It's easy to see Saint Paul in the bright light of all that he accomplished. But one truth we must never forget is that he was only a man. He was a man who experienced a profound conversion and dedicated the rest of his life to the will of God. Saint Paul must be a model for each of us. As we ponder his conversion today, think about your own conversion. If you are not as zealous for God as was Saint Paul, work to change that. You are just as capable of living a radical Christian life as was Saint Paul. Allow God to fill you with zeal so that God may use you in glorious ways. (mycatholic.life)

Building the Domestic Church Tip #15

Start small to create your domestic church.

January is a good time of year for home organization. For many of us, it starts with packing up the Christmas décor. The house may look like a disaster until that last box is tucked away. When you feel that sense of accomplishment, why not tackle other areas of the home, weeding through what will stay and what to get rid of. Do one room or closet at a time. Before you know it, your house is in order. Taking small steps can really make a big difference.

We are on tip # 15 of the Building the Domestic Church series. Lots of ideas have been shared, not meant to overwhelm, but to inspire. If you try to incorporate every tip that has been given, you may feel overwhelmed and not try any at all.

Instead, start small. Take one idea to integrate into your daily life. For example, dedicate a time to pray together each day as a family. Prayer helps to bring the family together and grow in your relationship with God. Prayer is the perfect small step to take in building the domestic church. Keeping you in my prayers,

~Amy Golden: Shared Director of Child and Family Ministry

Adult Formation

NOT ordinary time

Now that the Christmas season is over, we in the Church celebrate Ordinary Time. For this group of people, the time they spend together is extraordinary! Jenell, Matt, Michelle, Angelina, Mark, and Hanah are journeying toward the Easter Vigil to be received in Full Communion with the Catholic Church. In addition, Angelina's husband, Scott, will receive Adult Confirmation. This group is facilitated by Beth and Peter McFadzen and Cody Horlacher. They meet several times per month, after 9am mass, to discuss readings on various topics in the church such as Sacraments, our Blessed Mother, Scripture, the Mass, the Trinity, moral decisions, and more. It's a time of instruction and belonging as well as an opportunity to ask questions as they learn and grow in their faith together. Please pray for these sons and daughters of God as they soak in what we believe as Catholics and orient their lives to become the people God created them to be.

UNITY

In the second reading, St Paul admonishes the people of Corinth: I urge you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ... that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and in the same purpose. St Francis de Sales, whose memorial we celebrate this week, wrote something in the 1500's related to that same point: "Do everything for God, uniting yourself to Him in word and deed." How timely that we are in the middle of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. What are some ways I need to focus on unity in my life?
