Weekly Message

When I was in middle school, there were times I didn't want my fellow students to see my parents drop me off or pick me up in the school parking lot. I was embarrassed of my parents. Why? I have no idea. Maybe it was our station wagon. Or I didn't want to look like a little kid. But in retrospect that was a silly thing to do. I was a kid. And I had two parents who loved me and had built a wonderful family. I was afraid of the other kids' judgment. How silly! I should have been afraid of forgetting or downplaying my family, which is where my identity had its deep roots.

This is a way to understand Jesus' words to his disciples this Sunday, when he says, "Don't be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna." Fear, in this sense, refers to where we find our deepest identity and our highest love. That's why Jesus says next that when we acknowledge him before others, he will acknowledge us before the Father. It doesn't mean we're brash or boastful. But rather we unhesitatingly and humbly embrace our identity as followers of Jesus and children of God the Father. After all, if we love who we are and where we come from, who cares what the other kids think about us?

— Father John Muir ©LPI

Back To Ordinary Time

The Church has its own way of marking the passing of time and the liturgical seasons of the year. Ordinary Time is the longest season of the liturgical year. During Ordinary Time, we celebrate the whole life of Christ and learn the meaning of living as his disciples.

We reflect on and celebrate the life and teachings of Jesus Christ, making Catholic Ordinary Time an extraordinary time to learn and follow the teachings of Christ in our daily lives and to grow as his disciples. We also learn about and celebrate the lives of the saints.

Ordinary Time is an extraordinary time to learn and follow the teachings of Christ!

The season of ordinary time is divided into two periods, with the first falling between the end of the Christmas season and the start of Lent, and the second at this time of year, between Pentecost and the start of Advent.

Ordinary in the sense of Ordinary time is derived from the word ordinal, meaning "to count". We call Ordinary time ordinary because the weeks are named in number order: The Second Sunday in Ordinary Time follows the First Sunday in Ordinary Time, and so on.

During the season of Ordinary time, the Lectionary readings focus on the ministry and teaching of Jesus. Source: Sadlier.com

Green is the color of Ordinary Time. We teach our younger students that green is our "growing time". Listen closely to the gospels each week. How is Jesus inviting you to grow in your relationship to Him? Watch for ways to celebrate Ordinary Time in the coming weeks.

Enjoy this Extraordinary Ordinary Time,

~ Amy Golden: Shared Directory of Child & Family Ministry

Youth Ministry (Middle & High School)

This summer, St. Paul Catholic Church is excited to announce the creation of a brand new prayer space in our green space on campus. It will feature a prairie-like landscape with wildflowers; within it, there will be an outdoor Stations of the Cross/Walking Rosary. This will be a space for Parishioners as well as the community to use to engage in their Spiritual Life for years to come. We are so excited to announce that this will be a youth-driven project!

The first step on this project is the formation of a "think-tank" for this project where we will discuss design elements and other ideas for the space. We will talk further about this at our High School Summer Small Group this weekend. If your teen is interested in joining the "think-tank" have them reach out to me at awass@stpaulgenesee.net.

Throughout the summer, we will then begin construction on this area which will involve planting, helping to spread mulch/gravel, digging holes for the Stations of the Cross posts, placing the posts, and more! 2023/2024 CONFIRMATION PREP STUDENTS, any hours spent on this project will count toward your 25 service hour (10 hours to be spent at St. Paul or St. Bruno) requirement for this upcoming Fall!!! ~ Abby Wass: Shared Director of Youth & High School Ministry

Adult Faith Formation

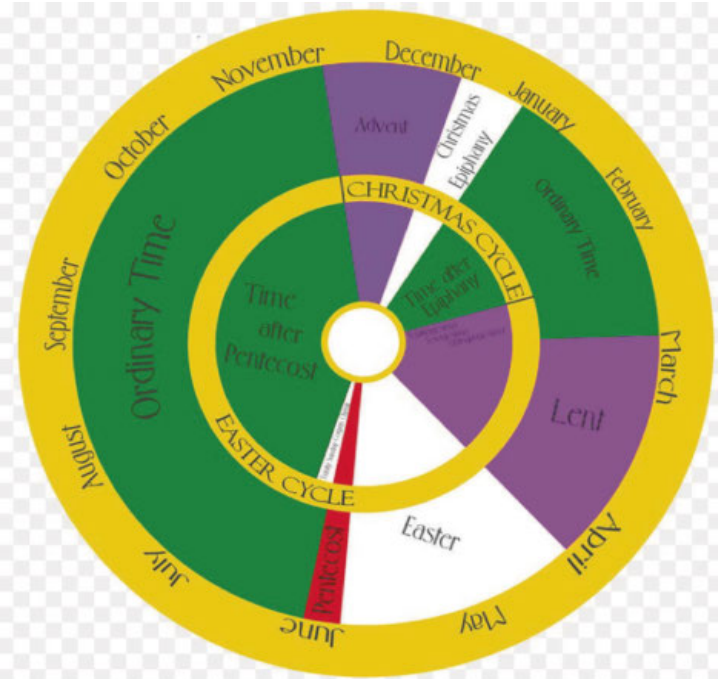

"Fear no one."

These are the first words of today's Gospel. Jesus is sending the Twelve on a dangerous mission; sharing His message will not be easy. He reassures them that the Father is intimately aware of everything that goes on with them; every hair on their heads is accounted for. Jesus references a sparrow in this conversation but, as I often do, I like to think of a flower. The Creator, who watches over this, created US. He created you and me for so much more. When I use my macro lens, I am just so awestruck by the details. If I didn't get that close, I would miss the fine points of God's creation. 'Fear no one' is a reminder, that sharing His message of love and mercy, getting up close and personal may have a cost, as it did for the Twelve. On the plus side, maybe it will allow us to deepen our own faith or to make a new friend or to find we are more alike than different if we take the time to listen and be vulnerable. Fear no one. The Father's got your back (and every hair on your head!) Get up close and personal and you may discover an unexpected delight. It works with nature and with people! ~ Mary Kral: Shared Director of Adult Faith Formation and Human Concerns

Eucharistic Revival

"For when Christ took on our human nature, He become subject to the limitations of space and time, and therefore was physically present in only a certain circumscribed geographical region and only for a few years: the thirty years of His hidden life and the three years of His public ministry, prolonged briefly by the forty days from His Resurrection to His Ascension into heaven. Yet, as the Word Incarnate, He is the Savior and Bridegroom in whom all men find fulfillment and salvation. He would not leave all of those born in the centuries after His death and living in other regions deprived of contact with His sacred humanity. In order to overcome the limitations of space and time, He devised a way to continue to be present not just in one place but in all the churches of the world, through all the ages, for everyone who was to come into the world, despite that He has ascended definitively into heaven."

"Why did Christ institute the Eucharist? . . . Christ instituted the Eucharist for the same reasons that he become incarnate."

Lawrence Feingold, "The Eucharist: Mystery of Presence, Sacrifice, and Communion"

"In our self-centered culture and classic American emphasis on work, we often feel we have to accomplish something during our times of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. We rate our experience by how 'good' our prayer was, how heartfelt our devotion was, or how focused we could remain. Yet prayer and contemplation are fundamentally God's work, in which we are invited to participate. We need only to give Him the opening, and He will do the rest. By coming to adoration, we are handing Him the keys to our hearts, allowing the rays of His love and grace to bathe our souls in the light of His Presence, as the rays of the sun bathe our bodies in light. If we can take the time to pull away from the busyness and distractions of life and just sit at His feet, He will lead us."
—Poor Clares of Perpetual Adoration, p. 33

WORD OF LIFE

"O God our Creator... we ask you to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty. Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith."
