Then Jesus said to her
in reply, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And the woman's daughter was healed from that hour.

Weekly Message

The suffering of a child symbolizes uniquely terrible evil as well as despair about the future. This week's Gospel gives a "limit" case in which Jesus encounters this evil in the form of a mother with a suffering daughter. What he does is stunning and massively helpful for us if we bravely ponder the details.

The Canaanite woman comes to Jesus and begs his mercy. "My daughter is tormented by a demon," she declares to him. Shockingly, he responds first with silence, then with a dismissive comment, and only then finally accedes to her third request. Is this simply a lesson in perseverance in our petitions to God, who is like a genie in a bottle? Does that justify the humiliation and pain this woman suffers? Is the Lord cruel?

I don't think so. Notice how the encounter ends. She compares herself to a dog at the table of a master. Jesus responds by praising her great faith and fulfills her deep desire. Somehow this non-Israelite woman intuitively that this harrowing situation is not dumb suffering. She senses that the door of God's family is, in Jesus, being opened to her and her loved ones. She trusts she is at the Lord's table, and her desires will be fulfilled and that all her sufferings — and her daughter's, too — will lead a great banquet. In our sufferings this week, the Lord wants us to treat him less like a genie in a bottle and more like the Master who has taken us — lost little dogs that we are — into his home forever. Trust that and keep praying in the face of evil. — Father John Muir ©LPi

Thank you to everyone who is participating in the Love One Another campaign. Just a reminder that checks need to be made payable to: Love One Another Campaign and sent to the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, Love One Another Appeal, Box 78496, Milwaukee, WI 53278-8496. Call 414-769-3321 with questions.

Your favorite coffee is now in K-cups! Check out the cart for a new way to enjoy Mt. Meru coffee.

Price change:

As of October 1st, the price for a 12oz bag will change from $10 to $12 and the K-cup boxes will change from $8 to $9 per box. This is still a great value and comparable to premium coffee at your local store.

HOPE CENTER COMMUNITY MEAL

We have an incredible opportunity to spread love and compassion to those in need. This weekly gathering provides a free meal to the homeless, the elderly, families in need, and those living in shelters.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Wednesday, August 23

5:00-7:00pm

Hope Center, Waukesha

Serve

Be the Hands of Jesus
We are seeking 4-7 dedicated volunteers from our church community to help serve dinner and assist with clean-up. Let us come together as a family in Christ to share God's grace and warmth with those in need.

A Sweet Gesture

If volunteering during the event is not possible for you, you can still contribute! We are also seeking generous hearts to donate a dessert or a gallon of milk. Your sweet gesture will add a touch of joy and comfort to the evening.

Matthew 25:40

If you feel called to be a blessing and participate in this outreach meal, please contact Kris Kelm at kkelm1005@aol.com. Your kindness and willingness to serve will be greatly appreciated.

Why Faith Formation?

Part two of the 6 tasks of Faith Formation. Source: Sadlier

Choose the Faith

We choose our faith when we follow the Ten Commandments and, in a particular way, the Beatitudes of Jesus. Life as a disciple necessarily includes a moral component. God has a will for us to discover and live. To follow God's will, we have to make daily choices for or against God. When we choose to follow God the Father, we most resemble his Son, Jesus. The grace of the Sacraments helps us to follow God. The Word of God and the Teachings of the Church also inform our choices.

Pray the Faith

Prayer is our lifeline. When we pray, we connect with God, the Communion of the Saints, and each other. Like Scripture and the Church Tradition, prayer is a language of faith. It gives expression to our heart's desires and hopes, as well as our fears and anxieties. The Psalms is a book of prayers put to music. They cover the entire human emotional experience. Learning to pray includes understanding the different forms and methods of prayer the Church provides.

Faith Formation Registration for grades K3-11 is in progress! Classes begin on September 10th. Register today, see bulletin or website for details. I'll be happy to answer your questions.

Human Concerns

Unconscious Bias...

Knowing what you don't know. Catholic teaching tells us that bias prevents us from being the Body of Christ and reflecting "God is Here". The Catechism of the Catholic Church says "because of sin, we can sometimes fail to recognize the dignity of some members of our human family, even subconsciously" (814). Come and learn to recognize and mitigate unconscious bias to better become what we receive: the Body of Christ. Milwaukee Municipal Court Judge Derek Mosely will discuss how unconscious bias is a learned stereotype that is automatic, unintentional, deeply ingrained, universal, and able to influence thoughts. Presentations will be held at St Mary's, Hales Corners on 9/9 from 9am-12 OR at St Anthony on the Lake on 9/20, 6:45-8:15pm. Visit either parish's website to register, seating is limited. (This was an eye opening presentation for me when I first heard Judge Mosely a few years ago; Mary Kral) ~ Mary Kral: Shared Dir of Adult FF & Human Concerns

Adult Faith Formation

RIGHT and JUST

In the first reading, Isaiah prophesies: *Thus says the LORD: Observe what is right, do what is just. We hear these words in the Eucharistic prayer: "Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God" and our response? IT IS RIGHT AND JUST. The prayer continues: "It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God, through Christ our Lord." Observe what is right, do what is just, give thanks. Take that to prayer with you and LIVE IT every day so that the Lord can one day say, as He did to the Canaanite woman in the Gospel: "Great is your faith!"

I was watering a watermelon plant and saw this curlicue coming off the vine, reaching out for support and a place to extend its growth. I firmly believe if you are in a small group, discussing faith and life, you are all providing each other support and growth. As I move to a new status, I repeat my frequent message: Join with some friends and create a small group so you can be energized and talk about your faith to bring it out into the world. Suggestions for materials you could use are just an email away! mkral@stpaulgenese.net

Missionary Cooperative Program (MCP):

"...show hospitality to strangers, for by this some have entertained angels without knowing it." ~Hebrews 13:2
Magnificat! ...We Have a Visitor!

Welcome to Sr. Rubi Arellano, SSV!!

We welcome Sr. Rubi Arellano, SSV this month to visit with us as she participates in the USCCB 2023 Missionary Cooperative Plan. Sr. Rubi is a religious sister from the missionary congregation Sisters Servants of the Visitation who joyfully serves in her twenty seventh year of consecrated life as a missionary to the poorest communities and children in the Philippines. Sister will make her summer mission appeals visiting here in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, WI and also in the Diocese of Buffalo, NY.

Sr. Rubi makes her appeal for the Ain Karim Children's Home operated by the Sisters Servants of the Visitation in Borongan City, Philippines. Ain Karim Children's Home is the only Catholic Mission facility licensed to accept children in crisis age newborn to eight years for short term and long term care. These special children are each welcomed and loved as Jesus coming in the form of the most vulnerable children who are disabled, malnourished, neglected, orphaned, and abandoned. The children are raised in this humble Home by the SSV Sisters with tenderness and love in a family atmosphere.

Sr. Rubi arrives in the US on August 17th from Rome, Italy where she recently served for one month as a delegate to the seventh General Chapter Meeting of the SSV Congregation. Sister is looking forward to greeting the parishioners of St. Bruno and St. Paul Church on the weekend of August 19/20th.

You can follow Sister's MCP journey on the Guardians of the Visitation FB page or @ Guardians of the Visitation | United States. Please pray for Sister Rubi's safe journey to the US and for a fruitful mission spreading the Charism of the Sisters Servants of the Visitation in our parish and to our brothers and sisters in Buffalo! May the Holy Spirit and Our Mother of the Visitation guide and protect Sr. Rubi in her travels.

The Charism of the SSV Sisters is rooted in the Second Joyful Mystery of the Rosary, The Visitation. The SSV Sisters seek to: "To renew the visit of Our Lord to humanity in the spirit of Magnificat!"

As always, during the MCP weekend, we will take a special collection. This time for Ain Karim Children's Home. If you are not attending that weekend, envelopes are available at the Parish Office for dedicated gifts.

Thank You!

Prayers for Maui

Pope Francis offered "the assurance of prayers for the dead, injured and displaced, as well as for the first responders and emergency personnel," Cardinal Parolin wrote. "As a sign of his spiritual closeness, the Holy Father willingly invokes upon all the people of Maui Almighty God's blessings of strength and peace." WORD OF LIFE

"God's love—individual, real, unchanging—is the true source of our worth, identity, and dignity. It really is not a question of who we are, but rather whose we are. Because his love will never change, nothing can reduce our God-given dignity, and nothing can diminish the immeasurable worth of our lives."
