Weekly Message

I confess that I have a soft spot for the scary things Jesus says because they are usually ignored. But there's gold in them thar hills, if we have courage to look. This week Jesus gives us a terrifying warning in his parable about the king who gives a marriage feast for his son and promptly goes berserk when people don't respond.

The point: those who do not properly respond to God's generous invitation will face totally devastating consequences. The invitees who don't show up get their city burned to the ground. The poor homeless man is tortured for not wearing the correct clothes. Scary indeed.

Is Jesus trying to intimidate or bully us into following him? No, because that is certainly not how he treats anyone in the Gospels. A better view is this: to Jesus, your life matters. The universe is not an empty wasteland where anything goes. It is a theater of love offered and either accepted or rejected. How easy it can be to glide through life thinking my life doesn't make a difference. But it does. It really does.

This should not only be sobering but exhilarating. The positive side of the negative in Jesus' scary parables is the thrill and joy that he is inviting us, therefore our lives matter a great deal. There is a reason to get up in the morning. God's generous love is relentlessly calling us. True, obstinately saying no through our indifference is a catastrophe for us and those around us. But how wonderful must the consequences of our 'yes' be? — Father John Muir ©LPi

Child & Family Ministry

Explaining The Eucharistic Revival to your Child

To revive something is to make something alive again.

In combining the two words, Eucharist and revival, the Eucharistic Revival hopes to encourage all people, especially us Catholics, to think about the Eucharist more and more. The Revival wants to help boost people's faith in the Eucharist, Jesus' True Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity, like when we, as young children, needed a boost from a parent to reach a water fountain when we were thirsty. The Revival wants to help make our faith alive and strong. The hope is that all people will start to take more interest in Jesus in the Eucharist and that the Eucharist becomes an important part of people's everyday life. The goal is that the Eucharist becomes something that we cannot live without. The hope is that over these three years that the Eucharist, Jesus, becomes wildly and endlessly popular! Lead a discussion with your child to help make connections to their passions and how they use their free time. It could look something like the following.

NATIONAL
Eucharistic Revival

Have you thought about the Eucharist today?
What about yesterday? Did you think about Jesus in the Eucharist yesterday?
Do you think about the Eucharist every day?
Now I want you to think about your favorite hobby or pastime. Something you are crazy about. Something you love. What is popular to you? What happens when something is popular or is our favorite?
We think about it and talk about it A LOT! We talk to our friends about it. We talk to our brothers and sisters about it. We talk to our parents about it. We can't wait to see it, play with it or play it!
When we have free time, we use it or watch it or think about it. You might even want to put it in your backpack to bring to school. You might even draw pictures about it.
This is what we want for Jesus, the Eucharist! To be crazy about Him! To love Him! To think about Him all the time! To talk to others about the Eucharist often! To bring Him with us everywhere we go! We want Jesus in the Eucharist to be our most favorite thing in all the world! Source: Catholic Link

Mass of Remembrance

Dear St. Bruno and St. Paul Parishioners,

You and your family are warmly invited to join us for a Mass of Remembrance on Monday, November 6, 6:30 PM, at St. Paul Parish. This liturgy is offered for anyone who has had a loved one die recently or some time ago. During Mass that evening, the names of all the departed will be read and a candle will be lit in memory of our loved ones. The coming holidays can be an especially difficult time for families who have had a death in the family, and this is our way of joining you in prayer and remembrance.

Please use the response form to let us know if you will be joining us at this special Mass. It is important that you complete and return the form if you want your loved one's name spoken aloud at this special Mass. This form is due not later than Wednesday, October 25, NO EXCEPTIONS!

You can mail the form to the St. Bruno or St. Paul Parish Office or place completed form in the offertory basket during Mass. There will be extra copies of this form in the Parish Office and in the Gathering Place.
