Weekly Message

In our secularized culture, we all struggle with belief in God, at least to some degree. An atheist man named Robert Bridges once wrote to his friend, the Jesuit poet Gerard Manley Hopkins, asking how he could possibly learn to believe in God. Hopkins pithily responded: "Give alms." Would that help someone tempted by atheism today, like you and me?

I think so, and here's why. This week Jesus speaks of love for God and neighbor. These dual commands were nothing new when Jesus used them to sum up the Jewish law. What is new is the way he links them together in mutual dependency. In Jesus, God and man have become one. Human-love and God-love are now inseparably married forever.

The newness of the God-man means that there is now a permanently counter-intuitive way into the knowledge and love of God: love of our neighbor. To experience charity is to know God. That's what Hopkins was getting at for his friend. How we treat our fellow human beings is inseparable from faith in God. Do you want to have a stronger sense of God's loving presence and goodness? Commit to serving someone today and this week. Love him or her. Don't wait for love for God to appear in your heart before loving others. Jesus has united divine and human love. If you want to believe more in God, give alms. — Father John Muir ©LPi

Can Catholics Celebrate Halloween?

There is a lot of misconception and confusion around whether or not Catholics can participate in Halloween. The truth is, Halloween actually belongs to the Catholic Church. The word "Halloween" comes from the name All Hallows' Eve. The word "hallow" means "holy." All Hallows' Eve is essentially the "Christmas Eve" of All Saints' Day. All Saints' Day is a feast day on November 1st. This day is also called All Hallows' Day. All Saints' Day (or All Hallows' Day) is a major feast day on the Catholic Church's calendar.

On this day we honor not only the saints we know by name in Heaven, but also any saints whose names we don't know. Halloween, All Saints' Day, and All Souls' Day (November 2nd) is a triduum of feast days called the Days of the Dead. They are also known as Allhallowtide, Hallowtide, or Hallowmas. This is the time of year when the living honor all the dead: the saints already in Heaven and all the holy souls stuck in purgatory on their way to Heaven.

Brief History and Origins of Halloween

The Feast of All Saints was originally only a local feast day to Rome. Pope Gregory III transferred the Feast of All Saints from May 13th to November 1st. Pope Gregory IV then extended this feast to the Universal Church. That is why Halloween is celebrated by Catholics all around the world, but in their own cultural ways. Dressing up for Halloween comes from the French. Carving pumpkins comes from the Irish, who carved turnips originally. The English went door-to-door begging for "Soul Cakes." They promised to pray for the loved ones who had passed on of those who gave them the cakes. This is how trick-or-treating got started. Celebrating Halloween and the holy days surrounding it reminds us of the reality of Heaven and Hell, the saints, demons, angels, and all the holy souls suffering in purgatory. Let's say a few prayers for those souls. (source: Cultivating Catholics)

VISIT the SICK, COMFORT the AFFLICTED

Both our parishes have talented, generous members who knit/crochet prayer shawls, baptismal blankets, and other items. If you are visiting someone who is sick, you are welcome to take along a prayer shawl to bring some comfort. Contact Yvonne Hickey (jonvon@execpc.com) at St Bruno or JoAnn Presta (jdpresta@gmail.com) at St Paul to make arrangements to pick out a handmade prayer shawl.

On a related note, if you are cleaning closets and find more yarn than you know what to do with, your donations will be transformed into vessels of comfort for the afflicted. Leave a message with your parish contact.

10 Ways to Support Her When She's Unexpectedly Expecting

Read the full version at respectlifeprogram.org/support-her.

As a mom who had my first baby in college, I know that an unexpected pregnancy can sometimes bring fear, shame, and doubt. Perhaps one of your friends has become pregnant unexpectedly. I encourage you to support her in her new journey of being a mother.

Your support may be the only support
she receives.

It's okay if you don't know the perfect words to say. Let her know you are there for her, and ask how you can support her. Assist her in lining up practical help. She may not feel she "deserves" to show happiness; reassure her it's okay (and good) to be happy. Your support might be the only support she receives. You can make a difference in her life. Will you?

Healing within Marriage from an Abortion

Read the full version at respectlifeprogram.org/healing-in-marriage.

When Susan's* husband, Juan, told her about the abortion he was involved in during college, she finally understood why he was so depressed and had trouble bonding with their children. The devastation of abortion brings with it many challenges. Often, the people who have participated in an abortion are unaware of the countless ways it is affecting their lives. It is scary to tell a spouse or fiancé(e) about a past abortion. It requires great trust in that person's love and trust in God. But with the help of an abortion healing ministry, couples can successfully work through abortion-related challenges. God's grace can bring true healing to the relationships of those who trust in His infinite mercy.

God's grace can bring true healing.
