"As for you, do not be called
'Rabbi.' You have but one teacher, and you are all brothers. Call no one on earth your father; you have but one Father in heaven. Do not be called 'Master'; you have but one master, the Christ. The greatest among you must be your servant."

Weekly Message

Last Easter season a new convert to Catholicism at my parish asked me with a grave tone in her voice: "Why do we call priests 'father' if Jesus says, 'Call no man on earth your father, for you have one Father, who is in heaven?'" Thinking myself clever, I asked, "Do you think it's okay to call someone your 'teacher' or 'mister' or 'dad'?" She said, "Yes, I do." I responded, "Well, Jesus seems to forbid that, too. So, it's obviously hyperbole that he's using." She thought for a moment and declared, "Then I will stop using those words, too!" And she walked away. Not the outcome I was seeking.

We shouldn't be too hasty in dismissing this complaint voiced by many non-Catholics. The expression "father" for ordained priests is not honorary for the individual man. The priest's fatherhood doesn't begin or end in him at all. Rather, the title "father" indicates that he is a sacramental sign of God's Fatherhood revealed in Jesus. I can tell you, as a very unworthy bearer of that title, we should give and receive that title with some trepidation (because of God's awesomeness) and with a little sense of humor (because of the lowliness of the men with the title).

The longer I'm a priest, the more I'm comfortable with people not using the title "father" and just calling me "John." After all, only God is Father in the truest sense. At the same time, Jesus has brought the Father close to us, very close. We honor this closeness in some men with the title "father." Who are the priests in your life whom Christ has sent to you? How wonderful that Christ has surrounded us with humble signs of his Father's love. It's good to celebrate that love with gratitude for the priests in our lives. — Father John Muir ©LPi

Child & Family Ministry

Celebrating Saint Elizabeth

Today we celebrate the feast day of Elizabeth, the mother of John the Baptist.

In Luke's Gospel we learn that Elizabeth was a righteous woman who obeyed God's commands and was blameless. She was also advanced in age and was unable to have children. Her husband Zechariah used to pray for her to conceive, and one day his prayer was answered. An angel delivered the good news to him as he was serving the Lord in the temple. But the angel said to him,

"Do not be afraid, Zechariah, for your prayer is heard; and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John. — Luke 1:13

Elizabeth became pregnant shortly thereafter and she rejoiced.
Source: Catholic.org

Gabriel visited the Virgin Mary at Nazareth, telling her that she would conceive of the Holy Spirit and become the mother of Jesus. Gabriel also told Mary that her cousin Elizabeth was with child.

We know that after her visit from Gabriel, Mary went in haste to visit Elizabeth. She must have been so excited to share all that had happened with her cousin! The picture perfectly captures the incredible joy Mary and Elizabeth must have felt! Mary stayed with Elizabeth for about 3 months. Can you imagine the conversations they must have had? A young woman carrying the Son of God, and an elderly woman carrying the one who will prepare the way for Jesus. Take some time to ponder the life of Elizabeth today!

~Amy Golden: Shared Director of Child & Family Ministry

Angels and stars will be on the trees November 18th—December 8th.

If you take an angel, please ensure that you return a gift as these are for specific children. The stars have the name of the organization that have requested that item on the label. Please wrap the angel gifts and attach the angel to the outside of the gift securely. Please include any gift receipts for items that may need to be returned (ie: clothing). Star gifts do not need to be wrapped and the star should be attached securely to the unwrapped gift. Gifts should be dropped off the weekends of November 18/19, November 25/26 or December 2/3 before Mass. If you are unable to drop off gifts during the above times, please drop off at the Parish Office no later than December 8th at noon. If you have any questions, please call: Sharon Rehnberg at 414-828-8436.

Serve

We are seeking 4-7 dedicated volunteers from our church community to help serve dinner and assist with clean-up. Let us come together as a family in Christ to share God's grace and warmth with those in need.

A Sweet Gesture

If volunteering during the event is not possible for you, you can still contribute! We are also seeking generous hearts to donate a dessert or a gallon of milk. Your sweet gesture will add a touch of joy and comfort to the evening.

HELP WANTED

"IN-CHOIR" WITHIN

Word Of Life

"I would now like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion. The Church is aware of the many factors which may have influenced your decision, and she does not doubt that in many cases it was a painful and even shattering decision. The wound in your heart may not yet have healed. ... But do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope. ... The Father of mercies is ready to give you his forgiveness and his peace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation."
