WEEKLY GOSPEL MEDITATION

When I feel down, I sometimes watch the famous "Double Rainbow" video on YouTube to feel better. It's hilarious. A young man camping in Yosemite Park sees two rainbows stretching across the sky. He bursts into a kind of ecstasy. "Double rainbow, all the way! Oh my God!" he announces. Then he starts to weep. He cries out, "What does it mean?" Beneath the humor of his glorious overreaction is the deep intuition we all have, I think, when we see the colorful bow in the sky. This Sunday, God sends a rainbow to Noah, and to us. What does it mean?

Long before YouTube had the double rainbow, Dante's medieval poem The Divine Comedy featured one in his image of paradise. Seeing two rainbows, he muses that one is born of the other. The bow is God's promise of peace. For Dante, it's even more: nature's encrypted image of the Trinitarian God. One visible rainbow (God the Son) is begotten of another usually invisible one (God the Father) united by invisible light between them (God the Spirit). Like invisible light, Trinitarian glory surrounds us in every moment — but Jesus has made it visible in his glorious body.

Lenten challenge: This might seem silly, but this Lent I invite you to find a rainbow and meditate on it. You might have to make one yourself, like this current desert-dweller will. Gaze on it. See there a natural gift from the Creator, saying to you, "Here I am! I will love and protect you, surrounding you in My glory." This Lent let's embrace that with confidence, rain, or shine. — Father John Muir ©LPi

GENEROUS OUTREACH

Here are some thank you's from Giving Tree gifts YOU donated to EasterSeals Safe Babies/Healthy Families: Thank you for the toys for my child and clothes for my child. We are blessed to receive gifts from you. Thanks for gift for my baby; I wish all the people who help me to have many blessings. And from the social workers there: You brought so much joy to the families that we work with. We appreciate everything you do for our program. You put smiles on several children and family's faces. Thank you for making many families happy.

A recent thank you to Heavenly Babies from Women's Care Center: Thank you for your generous donation of baby clothes. Distributing supplies to our moms is such an important part of our mission and it wouldn't be possible without your support! ~ Mary Kral: Shared Director of Human Concerns & Adult Formation

OUR PARISH FAMILY

Join us on Sunday, March 3rd at 6pm at St. Paul in the Church for a special presentation about Human Trafficking in Wisconsin. The presentation will be put on by the Redeem and Restore Center. No registration required.

Learn the Who, How, Why. It Happens in plain sight. It happens in all 72 counties of Wisconsin. Come learn about this issue and what you can do to make a difference in lives of those affected. You will leave with understanding: how individuals get trapped, why they stay, why it's so hard to leave and what Redeem and Restore Center doing to impact their lives.

Children's Liturgy of the Word

We offer this unique opportunity for children to learn about the Sunday readings. Children are called forward before the Liturgy of the Word begins. Our adult Children's Liturgy of the Word leaders share the scriptures, have discussion, and do an activity to help the children understand the Word of God. Then they join their family for the remainder of the Sunday Mass.

Children's Liturgy of the Word is offered at the 9:00 Mass, on the Sundays we have Child Formation classes. It is open to all children attending Mass, and no registration is required.

If you are interested in becoming a Children's Liturgy of the Word leader, contact Amy Golden agolden@stpaulgenesee.net, 262-968-2276 ext. 208

FAITH FORMATION

Child & Family Ministry

Families spend time together in Eucharistic Adoration

First Grade students learning about John

12:24-26, "Unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains a single grain, but if it dies, it produces much grain". As followers of Jesus, we are asked to give up our old selfish ways and follow the lesson of love that Jesus taught. To reinforce the lesson, children planted their own seeds to take home.

INVITE ONE OR TWO TO JOURNEY WITH YOU THIS LENT

Go deeper in your faith this Lent. Join Jesus and the Eucharist, 6:30pm, Thursdays, St Bruno. A small group is a wonderful place to share and learn with and from others about our rich Catholic faith. OR go to the parish website and find more resources and then IN-VITE SOMEONE TO JOIN YOU. Meet in person or on the phone once/week during Lent. Together pray, learn, share, and grow in faith. We all need to start talking MORE with each other about our faith so we can become comfortable sharing it with others beyond our immediate circles. You can do this. You've got the power of the Holy Spirit within you!

ALMSGIVING FOR LENT

Locally, we are invited to support the Archdiocese of Milwaukee's annual appeal, help sustain a broad spectrum of life-changing ministries and programs that meaningfully impact people's lives. Your gift does God's work. You can also impact people internationally through donations to Rice Bowl, a program through Catholic Relief Services.
