WEEKLY GOSPEL MEDITATION

Our national pastime isn't baseball. It's what the Bible calls "condemning the world." We generally enjoy pronouncing curses upon those whom we see as trouble, wrong, or evil. Don't believe me? Listen to almost any podcast, cable news network, or social media platform to hear it. It will be some version of: "We all agree that if they are eradicated, things will be great." Condemning is almost always clothed in virtue. It basks in its good intentions. That's why it is so attractive. Condemning seems like our best path to saving what is good.

What a shock, then, to hear Jesus announce: "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him" (Jn 3:17). He comes to save the world, as we all want, but he will accomplish it without an act of condemnation. How hard it is to accept this! Condemning feels godlike. I judge who and what must be lost to protect the good. But in the light of Jesus' endless mercy and love, this is the least godlike thing we can do.

Lenten challenge: This week, I invite you to give up the delicious experience of condemning whomever in the world you most would like to see gone. Perhaps write down their names. Secondly, I invite you to consider fasting from any media that feeds the tasty but deadly tendency to condemn.

— Father John Muir ©LPI

RAISING CHICKENS TO SUPPORT HER FAMILY

Nowadays, in Morazán, El Salvador, it is very difficult to know when the rainy or dry seasons will be. The unpredictable weather puts the livelihood of Sandra's family in jeopardy. Despite the challenges, Sandra and her husband, Santos, remain dedicated to ensuring their children grow healthy and succeed in school. Learn how their strong family dynamic enabled Sandra to participate in a Catholic Relief Services' project on raising chickens and how her determination has helped her family and community. Visit crsricebowl.org to read this week's Story of Hope.

Don't forget to fill your rice bowl!

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

Jesus is our Bread of Life

There is still time this Lent to gather a friend or two to watch or read something and then discuss and pray together. Formed.org has a series of five short videos (each less than 10 minutes): BREAD OF LIFE: The Eucharist in Galilee. You can find directions to login to Formed.org on the parish website, under Ministries, Adult, Lenten Resources. As Catholic Christians, we NEED to start talking more with each other about Jesus so we can become more comfortable sharing with others beyond our immediate circles. Small groups can be a safe place to start. ~ Mary Kral: Shared Director of Adult Formation & Human Concerns

EASTER FOOD DRIVE

We are partnering with the Capuchin Community in Milwaukee to provide Easter dinners to those who frequent the House of Peace. Guests there are often employed, but unable to make ends meet, or are experiencing chronic poverty. When guests arrive at the House of Peace they find a place where someone cares and where they can get the little extra help they need.

Suggested Easter dinner grocery list: boxed scalloped potatoes, flavored rice mixes, flavored pasta mixes, canned yams, canned pineapple (rings/chunks), jars of applesauce, canned beans or other vegetables. Please deliver to church by March 24, Palm Sunday. Cash donations on Loaves and Fishes weekend will help House of Peace purchase hams to finish off the meal.
