EASTER MESSAGE FROM FATHER DAN

Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen" (Lk 24:5).

These words of the two men dressed "in dazzling apparel" rekindle the hope of the women who had rushed to the tomb at the break of dawn. These women did not yet know that this was the dawn of the most important day of history. They could not have known that they, they themselves, would be the first witnesses of Jesus' Resurrection.

Each of us must encounter the risen Christ in our own way if we are to go beyond simply a rational acceptance of church teaching to build a personal relationship with God. In some way we must go through our own passion, crucifixion and descent to the dead, to recognize the gaze of the risen Jesus. "I will be with you always, even to the end of the age," Jesus told his disciples in Matthew's Gospel. And, indeed, He is, in response to prayers, in the sacramental life of our church, and in even in our human relationships.

Then, in recognizing the risen Christ in our own lives, we begin to see him in others. And be Christ to others. This can, and should, be the gift of Christians to the world.

After the risen Lord encountered the apostles in Jerusalem and asked them why they were troubled, he showed them his hands and his feet. He affirmed to reality of his resurrection, and they became "incredulous for joy and were amazed" (Lk 24:41).

Joy is a hallmark of our encounter with the risen Christ, for we who were lost have been found.

This Easter, let us kneel before our risen Lord and ask him to transform our hearts, so that all who see us, see him in us. Let us joyfully celebrate Christ's final victory over death, and let us share this joy with our world. I would like to wish you and your family a Blessed and Happy Easter!

~Father Dan Volkert: Shared Pastor

My Easter Prayer

Dear Jesus, You are the Lamb of God. You are risen from the dead! Thank You for dying on the cross for me. Thank You for forgiving me of all my sins. Thank you for loving me and for being my good Shepherd. You save me from the evil one. You give me new life. Dear God our Father, through the prayers of our Blessed Mother Mary, may Your Kingdom come, may Your Will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Amen.

Bible Study-Acts of the Apostles

Read one chapter a day or every other day starting after Easter. Ask a friend or family member to join you on the journey. It is the story of the Apostles setting out to share all they learned from Jesus. In the very last four verses of Matthew, Jesus tells them to go, make, teach - to all nations - it is the Great Commission. He wasn't just talking to those guys in that time - He asks the same of us. If you don't feel comfortable with the Great Commission, start small with just one or two people. Read Acts during this Easter season and just share with one or two and then end your conversation by praying for each other. If you didn't try it during Lent, try it from now until Pentecost. In order for our Church today to grow, we NEED to start talking about the Scripture. Also, the story of the Apostles is an excellent read!!!

SEDER MEAL

What a beautiful and enriching experience we shared together!

Earlier this week, our weekday adult small group had the pleasure of coming together with the students from St. Bruno School for a Seder Meal.

Immersing ourselves in the story of the Passover, we reflected on the journey of the Jewish slaves out of Egypt. It was a moment filled with prayer and participation as we listened attentively and engaged with the traditions of this sacred meal.

With gratitude, we extend a SPECIAL THANKS to Karen Warnes for her dedication in coordinating this rich learning opportunity.

And of course, what's a gathering without some delicious food? We had the chance to taste lamb, charoset, matzo ball soup, and bitter herbs—each dish carrying profound significance for our Jewish brothers and sisters.

Thank you to everyone who joined us in this prayerful experience, where faith, learning, and fellowship intertwined beautifully. ~Mary Kral: Shared Director of Adult Formation and Human Concerns

Easter Blessings!

The students and staff of St. Bruno Parish School wish you a very blessed Easter Season. We will keep YOU (our parishioners) in our prayers at school.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.—1 Peter: 1:3

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Grace and peace be to you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ!

As we enter this joyous season of Easter, I am filled with gratitude for the many blessings we have received from God throughout this year. Easter is a time of renewal and hope, a time when we celebrate the victory of life over death, light over darkness, and love over sin. No doubt, we've all experienced moments of sadness and grief, yet with the Lord's grace, we've carried on.

As we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord, I encourage you to reflect closely on the significance of this great feast. Easter is not simply a historical event that took place more than 2000 years ago; it is a reality that continues to shape our lives today. Through his death and resurrection, Jesus conquered sin and death, opening the way to eternal life for all who believe in him.

This Easter, let us renew our faith in the risen Christ and recommit ourselves to living as his disciples. Embrace the message of home and salvation he proclaimed and make a commitment to share it with others. May we all strive to love one another as he has loved us, showing compassion, mercy, and forgiveness to all.

I pray that the joy of Easter fills your hearts and homes, bringing renewed hope, peace, and love. May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

With prayers for a blessed Easter,

+ Jerome E. Listeki
