WEEKLY GOSPEL MEDITATION

A protestant pastor friend of mine was invited to meet Pope Francis with a group of other pastors. He noticed the Pope's chair was especially ornate and set at the head of the group. He somewhat playfully said, "Holy Father, why do you get that special chair?" The group chuckled nervously at my friend's audacious chide.

The following year, the group was invited to return. They entered the room to find only simple chairs placed in a circle. Pope Francis entered, sat down in one of the humble chairs and, looking directly at my friend, with a twinkle in his eye, asked, "What do you think of my chair now?" My friend was stunned that the Pope remembered his concerns — and took the time to answer them.

Thomas the apostle was certainly stunned by the Risen Jesus displaying his wounds in person. But he also must have been equally shocked that Jesus knew and answered his particular questions, worries, and even demands related to his faith. How humbled — and perhaps a bit terrified — he must have been to realize God remembers his concerns and cares enough to answer them.

What questions or demands about Jesus do you find in your heart? Like Thomas, will you be bold enough to voice them this week? How wonderful to know that if we do so, God will remember and respond even to our most audacious desires. — Father John Muir ©LPi

JESUS AND THE EUCHARIST

A small faith sharing group of 15-20 (depending on people's schedules) just finished up this study for Lent at St Bruno. Topics covered included What's our story, Who is

Jesus, Am I saved, God is with us, The story of the Eucharist. If you are interested in learning more, follow the directions to access Formed.org on the ministry page of the website, scroll to the very bottom of the Lenten resources page. In this year of Eucharistic Revival, it's never too late to invite a friend or two to watch and discuss and pray together ALL AT THE SAME TIME GROWING in appreciation for the gift of Jesus – body, blood, soul, and divinity – every time you receive the Eucharist. Thank you to Warren and Sue Mundschauf for stepping out of their comfort zone to facilitate this group for 7 weeks, backed by the power of the Holy Spirit! ~ Mary Kral: Shared Director of Adult Formation & Human Concerns
