WEEKLY GOSPEL MEDITATION

Sin isn't given its due these days. Downplaying sin is dangerous. But there is also another spiritual misstep in which we make way too big a deal out of sin. It happens, for example, when we persistently wonder if our confessed sins are "really" forgiven, or suspiciously ponder what God "really" thinks about us, behind His merciful face. Or when someone returns to Church, and we question whether his or her conversion was genuine. Or when we commit some sin and put on a sad face for days, thinking, "Maybe my sins are too great for God to deal with." God save us from that attitude!

Well, he does just that, this week, in the raising of Jairus' daughter. The dead twelve-year-old's house is filled with a spirit of excessive moaning and groaning, tumultuous weeping and wailing. They even laugh at Jesus in a mocking tone. It's shocking how easy it is for him to raise the dead child. It is equivalent to gently waking a kid from a light nap. And then he sends her off to get some lunch. No big whoop. The overactive drama is actually part of the problem, and removing it is a key part of the miracle.

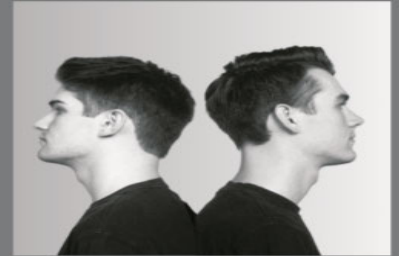

Friends, sin can and does kill, but Jesus is always ready and able to raise us back to life, often without much hullabaloo. His ease of forgiving should never be a pretext for presumption, minimizing sin, or taking lightly the cost he pays for our sins on the cross. But for God's sake, we often need Jesus to put out the weepers and wailers. He's the Lord. And remember, the girl is not dead, she's just sleeping. — Father John Muir ©LPi

FAITH FORMATION: ADULT

FORGIVENESS

Check out a video watched by two parish small groups recently. Very moving and not very long: <https://www.iamsecond.com/film/an-innocent-man-a-crooked-cop/>

One of my favorite lines:

"Andrew I forgive you and the reason why is that if God didn't forgive us for our actions, or we were charged for every single thing we've done in our life, where would that leave us? If these things we're holding onto, trying to fix, or trying to make it right, all we gotta do is just let it go."

As in let it go to let God have it. Find more videos like that one here: <https://www.iamsecond.com/film/>

These films capture the true and authentic story of an individual whose life had been changed in Christ. At the end of every story, the person summarizes their new life with one singular statement: "I Am Second."

Can you say YOU are second???

~ Mary Kral: Shared Director of Adult Faith Formation and Human Concerns

A PLACE TO PRAY

The Blessed Sacrament Chapel is a peaceful space to offer your prayers of praise, thanksgiving, and petitions to God. Or maybe to sit in the quiet with Ps 46:10 - Be still and know that I am God. If you'd like access to our chapel, contact the parish office to obtain a key card. ~ Mary Kral: Shared Director of Adult Faith Formation and Human Concerns

MISSIONARY COOPERATIVE PROGRAM (MCP)

On the weekend of July 13th and 14th, we will welcome Sr. Lucy Peter Mshami from the Sisters of Our Lady of Usambara in Tanzania. Follow the bulletin for the sisters story:

The Sisters of Our Lady of Usambara is a growing congregation of over 600 African nuns, whose work is caring for the poor and most deprived people in the northeastern region of Tanzania. Rt. Rev. Bishop Eugen Arthurs, I. C. founded the congregation in collaboration with Precious Blood Sisters, CPS to address the needs of the local church within the diocese. To date, the Sisters have expanded services outside of the diocese. The area of ministries includes but not limited teaching religious education to young people, providing services to the poor and the sick, and providing education in schools and colleges. Also, the Sisters provide food and shelter to the poor and needy people and run orphanages for helpless children who have lost their parent to malaria endemic, HIV/AIDs and other killer diseases. Provide care to malnourished children and medical services to people. (more information next week)

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In today's Gospel we see how in faith, Jarius asked Jesus to heal his daughter and how Jesus then answered his prayer. In prayer we also come to know that we are loved by God, and in that trust we ask for healing for ourselves, our loved ones and all those who are suffering. This week, please join with the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in praying for the healing of all those who are ill and especially those who have no one to pray for them.
