WEEKLY GOSPEL MEDITATION

From a young age, I loved winning at sports. I confess that winning was a bit of an addiction. It was probably coming from a deep desire for attention and affirmation from others. Nevertheless, it was a driving motivation for me. Baseball, soccer, track, table tennis, and whatever else I could find was a chance to win. Competition was my obsession.

Another John, and his brother James, demonstrate a kind of wildly competitive obsession when they dare to say to Jesus: "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory" (Mark 10:37). Their audacity arouses an indignant reaction from the other apostles, who are clearly raw that these two are out to win the highest spots.

How does Jesus respond to us in our desires for greatness? The same way he does to James and John. He does not criticize them for their desire for glory. But he does highlight their ignorance ("you do not know what you are asking."). Then he invites them to be champions of true greatness: by drinking not the cup of worldly victory, but his cup of self-giving suffering love, to be the "slave of all." The true winners are slaves of love. This week, dare to tell Jesus what your ambitions truly are. Hear him call you to an even greater victory. — Father John Muir ©LPI

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

Dear St. Bruno and St. Paul Parishioners,

You and your family are warmly invited to join us for a Mass of Remembrance on Monday, November 4, at 6:30 p.m., at St. Bruno Parish. This liturgy is offered for anyone who has had a loved one die recently or some time ago. During Mass that evening, the names of all the departed will be read and a candle will be lit in memory of our loved ones. The coming holidays can be an especially difficult time for families who have had a death in the family, and this is our way of joining you in prayer and remembrance. There are several ways to assure that your loved one's name will be spoken aloud at this special Mass. To register online, please go to the parish websites: www.stbrunoparish.com OR www.stpaulgenesee.net. Visit the parish website or use the QR code below.

Those using a paper registration form will find these forms in the Gathering Place at both parishes or in the Parish offices. Completed response forms can be placed in the offertory baskets during Mass, dropped off at either of the Parish offices, or mailed if you want your loved one's name spoken aloud at the Mass. You may also call Sandy, at 262-968-4422 for St. Bruno Parish, or Kris, at 262-225-9414, for St. Paul Parish to register, or if you have any questions. Wednesday, October 23rd, will be the last day for ALL online registrations, paper response registrations and phone registrations to allow enough time to be included in the Order of Worship.

We look forward to joining you in honoring your loved ones during this meaningful Mass of Remembrance.

God's peace and comfort, St. Bruno Circle of Life Ministry and St. Paul Bereavement Committee

WORD OF LIFE

"An old Irish proverb says, 'It is in the shelter of each other that the people live.' Indeed, we are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when family members or friends approach life's end, we may not know how best to 'shelter' them. Here are some concrete ways we can compassionately care for them: usccb.org/end-of-life-care."

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Have you considered answering the call to help serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

In recognition of Pancreatic Cancer Awareness Month, the MCW LaBahn Pancreatic Cancer Program is organizing the SHINE event. The purpose is to raise awareness about cancer while highlighting pancreatic and breast cancers. This event was initiated by the late Dr. Shawnee Daniels Sykes, a Professor of Theology and Ethics. As a person with stage IV pancreatic cancer, Shawnee's experience with cancer and the complexities of receiving care sparked the idea of creating a community-based cancer awareness event. The SHINE event is open to the public! RSVP by visiting our website: tinyurl.com/SHINEevent2024. If you have any questions, please contact us at: (414) 758 2282.
