Pilgrims

On a beautiful fall day with the sun filtering through the trees, members of St. Bruno and St. Paul went on pilgrimage to Holy Hill Basilica and National Shrine of Mary, Help of Christians. Some pilgrims found renewal through Reconciliation, while others meditated on Jesus' suffering and death along the Way of the Cross, whose stations wind through the autumn woods in an inviting upward path toward the Basilica itself, where Mass was celebrated with hundreds of pilgrims. It was the kind of day that instinctively lifts one's heart to God and the marvelous beauty of his creation, found both in the natural world and in the striking architecture of this holy site. There is still time to journey to Holy Hill or any of the other Archdiocesan holy sites during this 2025 Jubilee Year of Hope. When you go, allow time to linger, to ponder, and to drink in the grace that God has prepared for you. ~ Nancy Boerger, Director of Adult Formation

Bereavement Support

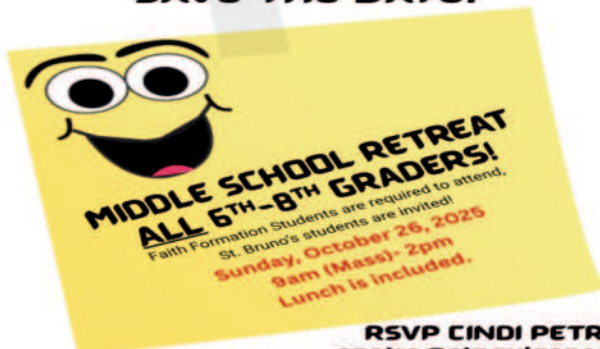

St. Paul Catholic Parish is offering three sessions for people who are grieving the loss of a loved one to help one move through the grieving process. Please allow us to nourish you, pamper you, and empower you, all offered in a loving environment. We, St. Paul's Bereavement Committee, believe that as we are supportive of people in times of joy, we also want to walk with those in times of sadness, loneliness and mourning, and help them bear their burden of sorrow. Three sessions are planned for Sunday mornings starting in late November and will be held at St. Paul from 10:30 – 12:00. For the first session, enter the main church doors on the West side of the property and go to the Family Room. Location subject to change for the following two sessions. Volunteers will be available to help you find your way. The facilitator will be Cathy Labinski, a retired hospice chaplain.

- November 23, an overview of the grieving process will be presented.
- November 30, we will focus on how to take care of oneself as one moves through the grieving process.
- December 7, ideas will be shared on how to get through the holidays which are just around the corner.

Please RSVP on our website or to St. Paul Parish Office at 262-968-3865 to let us know you will attend – or just come. We want to help you walk through the holidays without your loved one. St. Paul Parish is in Genesee Depot at the intersection of Hwy D and Hwy 83.

~ Fr. Dan Volkert and the Bereavement Ministry Team

Free Clothing Share

THANK YOU to everyone who supports us in making generous donations & utilizing the Share in making it the service & success in which it was intended for over 40 yrs.! This Share was one of the most successful with attendance of new & loyal "shoppers" who expressed appreciation for our hard work & how much they have been blessed by coming to the Share. No matter how many people may come, we never know WHO we are helping unless we learn of their story. A great big THANK YOU to those who set up tables & help throughout with unpacking, sorting & handling thousands of items. Most of all THANK YOU to the special people & students who helped with cleanup.

You are truly appreciated. Organizations blessed with donations were Casa Maria & Milwaukee Rescue Mission. Remaining items went to St. VincentDePaul's. If you are interested in volunteering in some capacity for the Spring Share next April, please contact Jerie at roderjerie55@gmail.com. ALL help is greatly appreciated!

All women are invited to celebrate the beauty of their Catholic faith at the annual Women of Christ Conference on Saturday, November 15, at the Brookfield Conference Center at 325 S. Moorland Road across from Brookfield Square.

The theme of this year's conference is: Anchored in Hope. Together, we will ponder the ways in which we anchor ourselves in Christ, especially the Eucharist and tether of the rosary.

Come for a day of joy and camaraderie and be renewed and fortified in your faith! Take encouragement from dynamic speakers - Fr. Chris Alar, Anne Auger, Msgr. James Shea, Julianne Stanz, Mother Amata Veritas OP and Dr. Ashley Pavlic as emcee. Take part in confession and Adoration and shop the vendor market for the perfect Christmas gifts.
