All Saints Day & All Souls Day: What's the Difference?

Let's begin with All Saints Day, a holy day of obligation that we celebrate each year on November 1. On this day, the Church commemorates the lives of all those who have attained eternal life with God in heaven, particularly noting the canonized saints of the Church whose lives are models of heroic virtue for all of us. This feast was originally celebrated in the year 610 as the Feast of All Holy Martyrs in Rome. In 835 the name was changed to All Saints Day by Pope Gregory IV and was set for November 1 each year. (Whenever the feast falls on a Saturday or a Monday, the obligation to attend Mass is lifted.)

All Souls Day, which is celebrated on November 2, commemorates all the faithful departed, those who have died in friendship with Christ and are awaiting full sanctification in purgatory. Though Jesus' sacrifice on the cross has redeemed us and atoned for the eternal punishment due for our sins, we may die with attachments to sin that prevent our readiness to be in the Lord's presence. Jesus wants to purge us from any residual effects of sin that would inhibit us from entering into full communion with the saints in heaven, since purity of heart is absolutely necessary for participation in the divine perfection of God's love. "Blessed are the pure of heart, for they shall see God (Mt. 5:8)." All Souls Day is a day to reflect on our own mortality and to offer prayer and sacrifice on behalf of the dead. Though it is a somber day, it is also a day of great hope through the victory of Christ. ~Nancy Boerger: Director of Adult Formation

More information is coming soon.

Bereavement Support

St. Paul Catholic Parish is offering three sessions for people who are grieving the loss of a loved one to help one move through the grieving process. Please allow us to nourish you, pamper you, and empower you, all offered in a loving environment. We, St. Paul's Bereavement Committee, believe that as we are supportive of people in times of joy, we also want to walk with those in times of sadness, loneliness and mourning, and help them bear their burden of sorrow. Three sessions are planned for Sunday mornings starting in late November and will be held at St. Paul from 10:30 – 12:00. For the first session, enter the main church doors on the West side of the property and go to the Family Room. Location subject to change for the following two sessions. Volunteers will be available to help you find your way. The facilitator will be Cathy Labinski, a retired hospice chaplain.

- November 23, an overview of the grieving process will be presented.
- November 30, we will focus on how to take care of oneself as one moves through the grieving process.
- December 7, ideas will be shared on how to get through the holidays which are just around the corner.

Please RSVP on our website or to St. Paul Parish Office at 262-968-3865 to let us know you will attend – or just come. We want to help you walk through the holidays without your loved one. St. Paul Parish is in Genesee Depot at the intersection of Hwy D and Hwy 83.
