HOLY HOUR

Sacred Heart of Jesus Holy Hour

An icon of the Sacred Heart of Jesus will be the centerpiece of a special Sacred Heart Holy Hour at St. Bruno's on Thursday, November 13th, at 6:00 PM, and at St. Paul's on Wednesday, November 19th at 6:00 PM. The holy hour, flowing from the jubilee for the 350th anniversary of the apparitions of the Sacred Heart of Jesus to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque and inspired by Pope Francis' encyclical letter Dilexit Nos (He Loved Us), is sponsored by the Knights of Columbus - St. Bruno's Council 6436 and St. Paul's Council 15276.

During the holy hour adoration of Jesus, an icon depicting the most famous image of The Sacred Heart of Jesus, painted in 1767 by Pompeo Batoni and now venerated in the Church of the Gesu in Rome, will be displayed. This reproduction of the original image bears the blessing of Pope Francis and is one of more than 300 icons traveling across the world as part of the Knights of Columbus Pilgrim Icon Program.

All are encouraged to attend and join in prayer at the holy hour. We further encourage all to consecrate themselves and their homes to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Materials for home devotion and consecration to the Sacred Heart will be available. May all be led to grow in their love of God and devotion to The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Come to the Table (Part 1)

Our Adult, Youth, and Child Formation team has a theme for this year - Come to the Table. The table we are invited to is none other than the Table of the Lord, where we receive him in the Eucharist. Because the Eucharist is, as the Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us, the "source and summit of the Christian life" (CCC 1324), we will take our time exploring it in a series of articles, with the hope that our explorations will awaken our spirits and deepen our desire to come to the Table.

The word "Eucharist," meaning "thanksgiving" from the Greek eucharistia, is both a sacrament and sacrifice of thanksgiving and communion. At Mass we recognize that Christ's sacrifice on the cross and the Eucharistic sacrifice are one and the same – one bloody and the other unbloody – as Christ's body and blood are offered anew under the appearance of bread and wine for the forgiveness of sins. We have heard these words so many times that we may easily become complacent, perhaps even indifferent to what is happening right before us at Mass, but complacency and indifference have nothing to do with thanksgiving. So let's shake ourselves awake and remember why we are here. Let's remember to look into our hearts and express our gratitude to Jesus for his great sacrifice. Let's pray attentively during the Eucharistic Prayer. Let's respond not merely by rote memory, but out of sincere thought. Let's walk down the Communion aisle toward our King with reverence. Let's truly rejoice that we have been given the invitation to come to the Table. ~Nancy Boerger: Director of Adult Formation

Bereavement Support

St. Paul Catholic Parish is offering three sessions for people who are grieving the loss of a loved one to help one move through the grieving process. Please allow us to nourish you, pamper you, and empower you, all offered in a loving environment. We, St. Paul's Bereavement Committee, believe that as we are supportive of people in times of joy, we also want to walk with those in times of sadness, loneliness and mourning, and help them bear their burden of sorrow. Three sessions are planned for Sunday mornings starting in late November and will be held at St. Paul from 10:30 – 12:00. For the first session, enter the main church doors on the West side of the property and go to the Family Room. Location subject to change for the following two sessions. Volunteers will be available to help you find your way. The facilitator will be Cathy Labinski, a retired hospice chaplain.

- November 23, an overview of the grieving process will be presented.
- November 30, we will focus on how to take care of oneself as one moves through the grieving process.
- December 7, ideas will be shared on how to get through the holidays which are just around the corner.

Please RSVP on our website or to St. Paul Parish Office at 262-968-3865 to let us know you will attend – or just come. We want to help you walk through the holidays without your loved one. St. Paul Parish is in Genesee Depot at the intersection of Hwy D and Hwy 83.

All women are invited to celebrate the beauty of their Catholic faith at the annual Women of Christ Conference on Saturday, November 15, at the Brookfield Conference Center at 325 S. Moorland Road across from Brookfield Square.

The theme of this year's conference is: Anchored in Hope. Together, we will ponder the ways in which we anchor ourselves in Christ, especially the Eucharist and tether of the rosary.

Come for a day of joy and camaraderie and be renewed and fortified in your faith! Take encouragement from dynamic speakers - Fr. Chris Alar, Anne Auger, Msgr. James Shea, Julianne Stanz, Mother Amata Veritas OP and Dr. Ashley Pavlic as emcee. Take part in confession and Adoration and shop the vendor market for the perfect Christmas gifts. The day concludes with a Vigil Mass celebrated by Archbishop Jeffrey Grob. To register, go to www.womenofchrist.net.

Question: How can we pray for the dead throughout the year? Answer: We commemorate the faithful departed on November 2nd each year. However, we can and should continue to pray for the dead. Our growth in Christian perfection takes a long time. At the time of our death, many of us might not be saints yet. But God, in His mercy, allows for those who love Him to experience purification after death. Our word for that state is Purgatory. It's the antechamber of heaven, so to speak. We know we're getting in the house, but we're not quite ready to go all the way in. There's rain to shake off our coats and dirt that's clogging our shoes.

Here on earth, we can pray for the souls in Purgatory. One way is to request that your parish offer a Mass for the intention of a specific loved one. We can also remember the departed in our daily prayers. Just as we have special intentions for family and friends here on earth, we can pray for those who have died. It's also a good act of Christian charity to pray for the forgotten, those who have no one else to pray for them. God knows who they are! ©LPI
