I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing. --John 15:5

We are excited to announce that Deacon Joe Senglaub will assume a new role as Parish Coordinator on July 5.

He will serve both St. Paul and St. Bruno in leadership capacity and will help manage various aspects of business and financial functions for both parishes where he will continue to serve as Deacon.

He will have offices in both parishes and can be contacted at: joseph.senglaub@lpl.com

Please help us welcome Joe in his new role!

Peggy's Retirement Reception Reminder

Don't forget! This weekend we will be hosting Peggy Kolonko's Retirement Receptions after each St. Paul Mass. If you didn't get a chance to RSVP, please fell free to stop by and wish her well! She'd love to see all of you!

We will miss you, Peggy!
Best wishes and a thousand thanks!

Stewardship Spotlight

Everyday Stewardship's Tracy Welliver addresses the sense of inadequacy many of us feel when we consider our roles in stewardship and reminds us that strength to do the task comes from God; stepping up to the plate is our job.

What's New

St. Paul's Heavenly Babies Ministry provides hope and a sweet start at life

Each month, 30+ "baby shower in a bag" layettes are provided to 10 different agencies in Milwaukee and Waukesha that provide assistance to women and children in need. The bags contain newborn baby supplies a personal note of support for the new mother.

Find out how you can be a part of these special deliveries by visiting our web page or by contacting Jennifer Aldrich @ jaldrich38@hotmail.com.

Hospital Visits

If a member of your family is in the hospital, please let us know so we can send someone to visit them.

Someone from the church would be happy to drop by!

Please call the parish office at 262-968-3865 and we will help make arrangements.
