Join us for a morning of reflection and spiritual growth as we explore the profound truth that we are all made in the Image and Likeness of God. During this retreat, we will reflect on what it means to live into the Imago Dei and how our everyday choices can glorify God. We will also look to the saints as living examples of the Image of God, drawing inspiration from their lives and witness. Don't miss this opportunity to deepen your understanding of your divine calling and grow in faith during the Advent season.
