

St. Augustine Catholic Church & School

*Mother Church of Black Catholics
In the Nation's Capital*

Founded 1858

15th and V Streets Northwest, Washington, DC

Mission Statement

Saint Augustine Catholic Church is the oldest Black Catholic Church in the Nation's Capital. As the Mother Church of Black Catholics, Saint Augustine Church continues in the tradition in which it was founded, namely as a strong Black Catholic institution which witnesses in faith to a Living God, His Son, and the Holy Spirit. Saint Augustine will continue to be a center which recognizes, proclaims, and preserves our Black Catholic heritage. It will expand and improve all activities to advance the education of our children, to continue work in evangelization, liturgy and music, ecumenism, and efforts toward the development of all people. This is our call.

FATHER PAT'S SERMON NOTES

5th Sunday In Ordinary Time

Faith Must Be Put Into Practice!

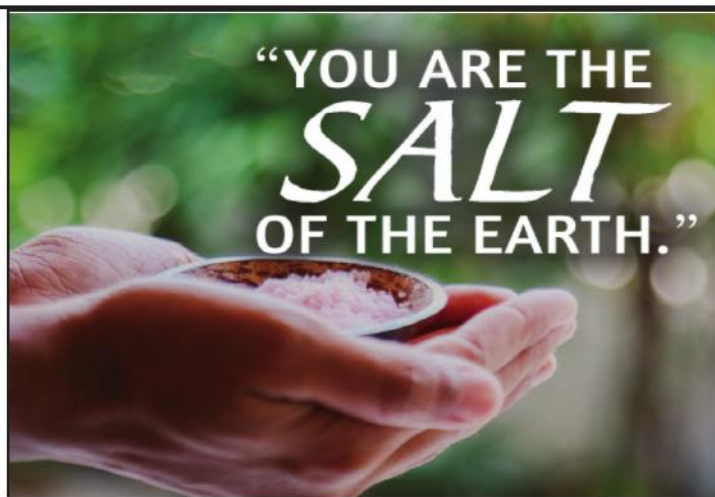

In today's Gospel Jesus describes his followers as salt and light. But what good is salt that doesn't season or light that doesn't shine? What good is a voice that doesn't speak, or a mind that doesn't think or a heart that doesn't care, or a hand that refuses to share? What good is a Christian that doesn't witness to Christ, or a spiritual counselor that offers no sound advice? What good is a truth that doesn't set free or a food bank that doesn't think it should feed? What good is mercy that refuses to forgive or a charity that does everything but give? What about a parish that doesn't serve or a courage that lacks all nerve? What good is a school that doesn't teach; or an arm that doesn't reach; a faith that won't trust, or righteousness that's not just? What good is a disciple that doesn't follow; or a compassion that rings hollow? What about a leader that won't lead or a child of God that won't believe? In the words of the prophet Isaiah, true religion moves one to share their bread with the hungry, shelter the oppressed and the homeless; and clothe the naked when you see them. Only then will our light break forth like the dawn, and our wounds quickly be healed (Isaiah 58:7).

Jesus wants to awaken his Body, the Church, to its true identity: You are salt, so, SEASON! You are light, so SHINE! St. Paul once wrote: "The world eagerly awaits the revelation of the children of God" (Romans 8:19). Maybe today the word "eagerly" is an understatement. I think the world "desperately awaits" the day that believers in Christ would live what they profess and preachers would practice what they preach. Our world wants and needs the Church to witness to the Great Commandment of Love and the Great Commission to Evangelize! Because the Good News is too good to be kept hidden and those who have yet to hear it are too desperate to be kept waiting! The time is past due for God to get the Glory He deserves from the good works being accomplished in your life! Decide today to be the reason that someone gives thanks to God that you crossed their path when they needed you the most.

ARCHDIOCESE OF WASHINGTON 2020 ANNUAL APPEAL

Next weekend, Saint Augustine will ask you to prayerfully consider your gift to the 2020 Annual Appeal. This weekend, brochures and frequently asked questions about the Annual Appeal are available in our church to help inform your giving. You may also visit the Annual Appeal at appeal.adw.org. The Annual Appeal supports more than 60 ministries and programs that benefit countless women, men, children and families in the Church of Washington, including within our own parish and local community. As in every year, 100% of your contribution will be designated to the ministries and program supported by the Appeal. Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.
