ABUSE SURVIVORS: We are grateful you are here today. We are sorry for the intense pain you suffer. We know there are many types of abuse; including sexual, physical, emotional, and psychological. We hope you find this Church community a place of sensitivity that does not exacerbate your pain. We pray that you seek the support and help you need. We also pray that God holds you in His gentle loving hands and helps you heal. Amen.

From the Pastors deskBe kind when it can be seen

So much has been said about loving your neighbor like yourself and doing good to others just the same way you want to be treated, but it's not the same when it's time to act. We are prone to doing favors to people whom we expect good things from. A lot of times however, those goods we do are not reciprocated and we are heart broken. This is because we choose to do good when it cannot be seen. A hot plate of food to a hungry man and a truck load of food to a wealthy man is not the same. Even though you spent more to give to the rich, the plate of food is much precious because it's fed to the hungry and to someone who cannot pay back. Be kind to someone who has no means of paying back, he will never forget your kindness. God sees what you do also. This is when your kindness is visible, because God sees when men can't and God pays when men can't. Let's learn to be kind when it can be seen.

"Thank you to those parishioners who have participated in the Cardinal's Appeal this year. Your generous gifts truly make a difference to those lives impacted by the various ministries and programs that the Appeal supports. In the coming days, if you have not yet participated in the Cardinal's Appeal, you will be receiving one last letter from Fr. Joseph. Please be on the lookout for the letter and consider joining your fellow parishioners by participating and making a difference today. Desde el escritorio del Pastor

Sé amable cuando se ve.

Se ha dicho mucho sobre amar al prójimo como a ti mismo y hacer el bien a los demás de la misma manera que quieres ser tratado, pero no es lo mismo cuando llega el momento de actuar. Somos propensos a hacer favores a quienes esperamos cosas buenas. Sin embargo, muchas veces, esos favores que hacemos no son correspondidos y nos descorazonamos. Esto se debe a que elegimos hacer el bien cuando no se ve. Un plato de comida caliente para un hombre hambriento y un camión lleno de comida para un hombre rico no es lo mismo. Aunque gastes más para dar a los ricos, el plato de comida es mucho más valioso porque se le da al hambriento y a alguien que no puede pagar. Sé amable con quien no tiene con qué pagar; él nunca olvidará tu bondad. Dios también ve lo que haces. Es entonces cuando tú bondad es visible, porque Dios ve cuando los hombres no pueden ver y Dios paga cuando los hombres no pueden. Aprendamos a ser amables cuando se ve.

La Campaña Anual de Corresponsabilidad del Cardenal

Gracias a los feligreses que participaron en la Campaña del Cardenal este año. Sus generosas donaciones realmente marcan la diferencia en las vidas impactadas por los diversos ministerios y programas que apoya la Campaña. En los próximos días, si aún no han participado en la Campaña del Cardenal, recibirán una última carta del Padre Joseph. Estén atentos a la carta y consideren unirse a sus feligreses participando y marcando la diferencia hoy. Si hicieron su donación recientemente y reciben una carta, por favor, ignórenla. Gracias por su consideración y que Dios los bendiga.
