Announcements

“You Shall Be Like Gods” ... This original temptation, outlined in the first reading, was a promise that what was right and what was wrong would be up to us; that we could write our own moral law. That’s what the “tree of the knowledge of good and evil” meant, and why Adam and Eve couldn’t eat from it. We are all called to know good from evil, but not to decide it. To think we decide it is the error of the “pro-choice” mindset. “It’s all up to me and my choice, even if it means killing a baby.” In the culture of life, on the other hand, we live in the freedom of the children of God and pattern our lives on the obedience of Jesus that leads to life eternal.

Speak Up and Show Up ... for a day of legislative advocacy at the NE State Capitol with Catholics at the Capitol! With our state and nation facing so many unique challenges, we must use the power of our voices to influence decision-makers. If you use your voice, you are protecting our values and advocating for the good of all people. If you don't use your voice, other people will speak for you, often advocating for the opposite of our values. We're calling on our advocates, especially first-timers, to prayerfully consider joining us at this year's Catholics at the Capitol

On Wednesday, April 12th 8:00am – 2:00pm, St. Mary Catholic Church in Lincoln is hosting Catholics at the Capitol. An event where you'll hear from Governor Jim Pillen, NCC (NE Catholic Conference) staff, and State Senators on the progress they're making for education, human life protection, religious liberty, and more. Most importantly, you'll learn how to help pass laws protecting life, the family, human dignity, religious liberty, and more. They will also equip you with the four pillars of advocacy so you can confidently advocate for your issues year-round. Refreshments and lunch is provided along with a chance to watch live legislative debate in the balconies of the chamber! Register by April 9th and pay your $15 registration fee online at www.necatholic.org or for questions call Paige Brown at 402.477.7517 or email at pbrown@necatholic.org.

HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS ...

FEBRUARY: For parishes: We pray that parishes, placing communion at the center, may increasingly become communities of faith, fraternity and welcome towards those most in need.

MARCH: For victims of abuse: We pray for those who have suffered harm from members of the Church; may they find within the Church herself a concrete response to their pain and suffering.

Pray for our Seminarians:

Mitchell Salcedo Schleiss is the son of Michael & Maria Schleis from Sacred Heart, Shelby. He entered the Seminary in 2018 and is in Theology 3 at Mount St. Mary Seminary

Pray for our Religious Sisters:

Pray for young women to discern a vocation to the Sisterhood in our Diocese of Lincoln Motherhouses.

EUCCHARISTIC THOUGHTS ... St. Theresa of Lisieux says, “For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward Heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy.” St. John Damascene says, “Prayer is the raising of one’s mind and heart to God or the requesting of good things from God.” Humility is the foundation of prayer. Only when we humbly acknowledge that we do not know how to pray as we ought, are we ready to receive freely the gift of prayer. St. Augustine says, “Man is a beggar before God.” (CCC 2559)

EUCCHARISTIC THOUGHTS ... The life of prayer is the habit of being in the presence of God and in communion with Him. This communion of life is always possible because, through Baptism, we have already been united with Christ. Prayer is Christian insofar as it is communion with Christ and extends throughout the Church, which is His Body. (CCC 2565)
