A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

November 14, 2021:

The 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's gospel teaches us UNCERTAINTY is normal. There are some things in life which "no one knows... only the Father." Marriage and parenting are full of uncertainty for like the fig tree in the gospel, the people we love grow and change.

Bishop David J. Walkowiak asks us to PRAY FOR OUR SEMINARIANS

Heavenly Father,
We give you thanks and praise for your son, Jesus Christ. Send your Holy Spirit to inspire holy, faithful men to minister as priests. Lord, we pray for our seminarians, especially Deacon David. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray for:

Deacon David J. Sacha

Healing Our Church

Bishop invites Catholics to become part of the renewal

In a letter marking the conclusion of the Healing Our Church process, Bishop Walkowiak invited participants to become a part of the renewal of a Church "deeply wounded" by the sexual abuse of minors by clergy. "Each of us has a role to play in the ongoing healing and transformation of our Church," he wrote. "Each of us has a share in this responsibility. Each of us has a gift to give for the general well-being of God's flock."

Healing Our Church, a lay-led process offered by the diocese through RENEW International, provided an opportunity for Catholics discouraged or angered by the sex abuse scandal to meet in small groups and submit questions to Bishop Walkowiak about the Church's response. Bishop Walkowiak answered all questions submitted in a diocesan report. You can read the full diocesan report at:

English: https://view.flipdocs.com/?ID=10001746_734394

Attention families with children ages 3 through grade 8: If you have not yet registered your child, you can find registration forms on the parish website and forms are also located in the church narthex.

Children's Liturgy of the Word— this program is offered on Sunday during Mass. Children 3-7 years old are welcome to join us each week as we pray, read and explore the Sunday Gospel from a child's viewpoint. We include the Gospel Acclamation so children understand the importance of preparing our mind and heart for the Gospel reading. Do you know why we will have glorified bodies and not just stay as souls without bodies in heaven? It's because we are embodied beings! God created us, and creation matters to God.

Elementary Faith Formation: The elementary program is for students in grades 1-5. We meet on Wednesday from 6:00- 7:30 pm. Contact Debbie if you cannot attend 616-384-4026. We will not have class on Wednesday, November 24 due to Thanksgiving.

The 8th Grade students will also receive Confirmation Preparation. 8th grade Confirmation. Thank you to the parents and sponsors who supported the 8th grade Confirmation candidates at the Rite of Enrollment mass last weekend. Please continue to pray for all of our Confirmation candidates.
