The child born to Jesus and Mary was named Emmanuel, which means "God is with us." Every child is EMMANUEL, reminding us "God is with us." Children are signs of God's continuing presence in our lives.

An Unambiguous Sign

Matthew and Isaiah both speak of the virgin who conceives as a sign of Emmanuel: God-with-us. The Incarnation or enfleshment of God took place when God the Son, the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, was conceived in Mary and of Mary without any act of human intercourse. Jesus, the fruit of her womb, is called Emmanuel because he is truly God and truly man. He is God-with-us as a human being.

God had to take flesh in Mary in order to be truly human. Jesus was not prefabricated in heaven from some divine stuff and then put into Mary's womb. His body was formed from hers.

Mary had to be a virgin so that it would be clear that Jesus was divine. If he had no human father, it would be clear that Jesus was conceived by the power of God. Mary's virginity was an unambiguous sign that Jesus is both divine and human.

Jesus visible as Emmanuel, God-with-us, is an unmistakable sign of God's love for us. Jesus' "being there" cannot be explained except as the sign, the proof, the expression of God's desire to be with us, to reveal God's self to us and to save us. Jesus' every human word and action flowed from this desire, which reached its apex in Jesus' offering himself for us on the cross. In every Mass we celebrate his death and resurrection to new life.

The Church is the continuation of Jesus' visible, human presence and action in the world. In the Church, Christ's Body on earth, the Incarnation is extended in time; Jesus continues to be Emmanuel, God-with-us. The existence, witness and ministry of the Church cannot be explained except as the continuation of Jesus' divine presence and action

DECEMBER 18, 2022

4TH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Isaiah 7:10-14; Romans 1:1-7; Matthew 1:18-24

in us, the human members of his Body on earth.

For years Catholics have described sacraments as visible signs instituted by Jesus Christ to give grace. A sacrament gives grace through some visible, human action. The sacraments do not depend on any human power, even on the holiness of their ministers. Like the virginity of Mary, they are signs of God's action taking place through human beings, but without using any human power to produce their effect. Unless Jesus Christ is speaking and acting through these signs, the water of Baptism does not cleanse, the bread and wine of Eucharist do not nourish, the words of absolution do not pardon, the vows of marriage do not commit irrevocably, the laying on of hands at Confirmation and ordination do not consecrate and empower, and the oils of Anointing do not heal.

When we receive the sacraments, we give unambiguous signs of faith in Jesus-Emmanuel, God still with us in the flesh. The way we express and experience the invisible faith we have in God, in Jesus and in the Church is through visible, human gestures which do not make complete sense unless we have that faith.

God has chosen to act with divine power through human words and actions

Saint Paul's claim to "be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God," consecrated and empowered for ministry, is based on this same faith. Beginning in a radically new way with Jesus and continuing in the Church, God has chosen to act with divine power through human words and actions. Jesus was born of Mary "according to the flesh and was declared to be Son of God with power"—not with the human power that comes from wealth, education, connections or the authority to command armies, but "according to the spirit of holiness," by abandoning all human power on the cross and by his "resurrection from the dead." The Church's ultimate refusal to rely on human power to spread the Good News is the clearest sign of its reliance on God's power.

REFLECTING ON THIS WEEK'S GOSPELS

Fourth Week of Advent

Pray daily: God, you chose to redeem the world through human beings acting with divine power, beginning with Jesus, your Son. Teach me to open myself to your power so that you might do through me what you desire. Amen.*

Monday: Luke 1:5-25. The angel said, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah ...Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will name him John." How did John's birth differ from that of Jesus? What does this difference show about them? How were you reborn as a Christian? Was this simply human training or the power of God? How does it make you different?

Tuesday: Luke 1:26-38. Mary said, "Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word." What are you ready to surrender to God, to be done according to God's word?

Wednesday: Luke 1:39-45. Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, cried out, "And why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me?" What does it mean to say that Jesus Christ comes to you in Holy Communion? Is your appreciation for that growing?

Thursday: Luke 1:46-56. And Mary said: "The Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his name." What great things has God done for you? How do you remember and celebrate them?

Friday: Luke 1:57-66. "Now the time came for Elizabeth to give birth, and she bore a son." Was John's birth more important to God than yours? Than anybody else's?

Saturday: Luke 1:67-79. "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has looked favorably upon his people and redeemed them." What signs in the world proclaim this same truth today?

LIVING THIS WEEK'S GOSPELS

As Christian: Put a picture of Mary where you will see it frequently. Imagine her pregnant. Remember that you are also giving flesh to God.

As Disciple: Reread one of the Sunday readings. Then reflect on it, ask questions about it and make a decision in response to it.

As Prophet: Realize that you belong to the Body of Christ. Each day consciously do something that can be explained only by your faith.

As Priest: Through some word or action, minister to someone else, conscious that you are sharing the love of Jesus Christ within you.

As King: Before each thing you do this week, remind yourself that God's power enables you to bear fruit for the Kingdom of God.?
