Lenten Prayer for Grace

Loving God,
 During the sacred season of Lent,
 bring me closer to you.
 Prepare a place in my home and heart for silence and solitude, so that I may re-discover the grace of a prayer-full life.
 Help me to fast from those things that threaten the well-being of body and soul and remind me of the grace of simplicity.
 Enlarge my heart so that I give to those in need and, in so doing, re-discover the grace of gratitude and generosity.
 May this season be a grace-filled time to rekindle my love for and faith in you.

Amen.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Thank you to each person, who has crafted, prayed and donated prayer blankets. Father Mike has blessed. Each prayer blanket has been placed in a gift bag, along with a prayer card. Prayer blankets are ready to be given. If you are praying for someone and would like to offer a prayer blanket, please call one of our parish secretaries. It will be ready for you to pick up when you come to Mass. Or you may stop by one of the parish offices. If you would like to make, choose your own pattern, colors and sizes. Knit, crochet or quilted are appreciated. While you stitch, offer prayer for the person who will receive.

Sincerely-

Prayer Shawl Ministry Members

Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLW):

Pre-School thru 2nd Grade During 10:30 AM Mass.
Today is the Second Sunday of Lent. In today's Gospel Matthew 17:1-9 the Bible tells a story called "The Transfiguration" where Jesus takes three of his special friends, Peter, James, and John, up a mountain to pray, and suddenly, Jesus' appearance changes, becoming very bright and shining like the sun, with clothes as white as snow, showing that Jesus is very special and connected to God like no one else

Bunny Business — We will be filling 100 Easter baskets for Coopersville Cares to offer to needy families of the area on Sunday, March 22, following the 8:30 Mass. We currently have plenty of Easter baskets, and small stuffed animals. But we do need candy and other “fillers,” coloring books, word searches, crayons, small cars, bug catchers, etc. Please put them in the Easter Bunny Basket in the glass hallway NO LATER THAN March 15. There is also a container for donations if you would prefer that, and we will do the shopping. Candy must be packaged and individually wrapped. One of the neat things about “Bunny Business” is having young children from our parish to help fill the baskets. They have a sense of “helping others” by providing Easter baskets to needy children. Adults to help with the children will be needed as well as workers to bag, tie and deliver the baskets to Coopersville Cares.

St. Michael's Faith Formation

Children's Liturgy of the Word: CLW program is offered on Sunday during 8:30 Masses. Children 3-9 years old are welcome to join us each week as we pray, read and explore the Sunday Gospel from a child's viewpoint. We include the Gospel Acclamation so children understand the importance of preparing our mind and heart for the Gospel reading. This is the Second Sunday in Lent. The Transfiguration also tells us something about our own lives. Like disciples of Jesus, who are transformed in mind and heart while still on this earth, we too are called to transform the world by proclaiming His Gospel.

Elementary Faith Formation: The elementary program is for students in grades 1-5. We meet on Wednesday from 6:00- 7:30 pm. First Communion students and Parents have a meeting on Wednesday, March 4th at 6pm in the classroom. First Communion Retreat: A retreat for both student and parents will be held on Saturday March 14th from 9:00 am-12:00 noon. We will start in church. Contact Debbie Veneklas if you cannot attend.

Middle School Faith Formation: Grades 6, 7 and 8 will meet on Sundays after the 8:30am Mass from 9:45 to 11:15 AM in the Youth Room. The 8th Grade students will also receive Confirmation Preparation. Contact Debbie if you have any questions (616) 384-4026.

DAVID M. KNIGHT

Man of the Promise

Abraham was chosen by God to be the father of the Jewish race. To be born a Jew meant to be born a descendant of Abraham. It was only through their relationship with Abraham that the Chosen People shared in God's first covenant and promises. God told Abraham, "This is my covenant, which you shall keep, between me and you and your offspring after you...." (see Genesis 17:1-23).

Saint Paul begins his second letter to Timothy by recalling God's promise to give life to the whole human race through Jesus, according to the plan God made "before the ages began" (see 2 Timothy I: 1, 9). The grace, the favor of God is held out to us "in Christ Jesus." It is through our relationship with him that we share in God's New Covenant and its promises.

Jesus, however, did not have an impressive presence on earth while walking the roads of Galilee. He was an ordinary man, dressed in ordinary clothes, who traveled on foot and generally attracted the poor and uneducated as followers. The large crowds that followed Jesus were usually small by our standards: small enough for Jesus to teach them while sitting down, without a microphone. Important people, like the Sanhedrin leader Nicodemus, were afraid to be seen with him. When a low-ranking Roman officer asked for a cure, Jesus was amazed. Mostly, he was a small-time preacher on a small-town circuit.

Today Jesus is still not that prominent. He does not have high visibility in most countries' national life. And when he does, in the person of the pope or Church dignitaries, it may be because they are using the same status symbols (private jets, motorcades, clothing, protocol) that other political figures use. But in most of Jesus' ministry today—his quiet influence on family and social life, business and politics; the daily initiatives and decisions of all the members of his Body; his daily presence through everyone engaged in teaching, preaching and healing ministries—Jesus keeps a very low profile, so low that many people hardly notice his presence.

That is why God gave us the Transfiguration and why we celebrate this liturgy. Here, as on the mountain of the Transfiguration, God invites us to look at Jesus in his glory: to see his face shining like the sun, to hear the Father saying to us, "This is my Son, the Beloved...listen to him!" In the liturgy Jesus is recognized for what he truly is: the Good News, the Light of the world, the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world, the Bread of Life. In the liturgy bread and wine, ordinary things, symbols of ourselves and of our ordinary lives, are given back to us transfigured, transformed into Eucharist, into the Bread of Life and our spiritual drink. The host and the chalice are held up to us, lifted up as Jesus was on the cross, and a voice proclaims, "This is my body. This is the cup of my blood. Take this, all of you. Eat. Drink." And we adore.

After the Transfiguration, Jesus said to his disciples, "Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead." Now Jesus is risen. Now is the time to proclaim him to the world as what he is: the Savior, the Lord, the fulfillment of all God's promises, Abraham's descendant in whom "all the families of the earth shall be blessed."

It is time for us to focus our own hearts on the grace given to us in Christ Jesus, "who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel." It is time to look, to see and to believe.

REFLECTING ON THIS WEEK'S GOSPELS

Second Week of Lent

Pray daily: God our Father, help us to hear your Son. Enlighten us with your word, that we may find the way to your glory. Grant us this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Monday: Luke 6:36-38. "Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful." The expression "be merciful" means to come to the aid of another out of a sense of relationship. On the basis of Jesus' teaching, can you see every person as God the Father does and treat every person as a brother or sister? How will doing this change your life?

Tuesday: Matthew 23:1-12. "The greatest among you will be your servant." Can you serve everyone, wherever you are, whatever you are doing? What are you seeking in your work, social and family life, civic involvement or participation in your parish? Is it service?

Wednesday: Matthew 20:17-28. "...[T]he Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many." How is Jesus serving you now? [n what ways are others sacrificing themselves for you? How are you responding?

Thursday: Luke 16:19-31. "And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man's table." Who would gladly receive from you a "scrap" of notice or attention, a smile, a thoughtful act or some help you can give? Whom do you know who is "covered with sores" wounded by life experiences? How can you help?

Friday: Matthew 21:33-43, 45-46. "Have you never read in the scriptures: 'The stone that the builders rejected / has become the cornerstone;/ this was the Lord's doing,/ and it is amazing in our eyes?'" Is Jesus the cornerstone of your life, the key to everything you think, say and do? Have you rejected him in favor of building your life around something else, some other goal, value, program or attitude? If you stopped believing in Jesus, tomorrow, what concrete things would you change in your lifestyle?

Saturday: Luke 15:1-3, 11-32. "But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found." When people sin against you, insulting or treating you unjustly, is your first reaction to defend yourself? To get even? Or do you pray that they will be converted and "come to life"?

SEVERAL SUGGESTIONS FOR LENT

Prayer: Put the Bible on your pillow. Read one line before going to sleep each night and again on waking up.

Fasting: Pick one activity of your day that you enjoy. Decide not to satisfy yourself by doing that until you have done something kind for someone else.

Almsgiving: Each time someone (including God!) is nice to you or does you a favor, do something right away for someone else.
