UNCLE AL'S THRIFT SHOP

As we approach the season when thankfulness has even more focus than at other times, we pause and wonder, what would we do without volunteers? Once more, volunteers have stepped up to do behind-the-scenes work for the upcoming Christmas sale. For several weeks now, a hard working group has gathered in the school to sort and price items for the sale. How blessed we are! Additional volunteers to help prepare for the sale are most welcome. Call Irene Wing at 677-3310.

The Christmas sale is going to be exciting with numerous Christmas decorations, gift items of all kinds, lovely accessories for the home, holiday clothing, and jewelry. The dates will be : Thursday, Friday and Saturday, December 3, 4 and 5. The hours will be 10:00am to 4:00pm on Thursday and Friday and 10:00am to 2:00pm on Saturday.

Meanwhile, back at the shop all is well. Now in stock, very nice serving pieces that are great for holiday gathering — lots of kitchen and houseware items are also available.

All proceeds benefit St. Joseph-Immaculate Conception Church.

Thanksgiving Food Baskets

Our Thanksgiving Food Baskets, which provide food for needy families in our area for Thanksgiving dinner, will be assembled again this year. Previously we collected food at the back of the Church. However, to reduce the risk of contagion, we will follow the same procedures as for Easter and are asking for monetary donations to be made to the Church for this purpose. Members of the Women's Guild will then purchase the food for the baskets. Your donations can be mailed in or dropped off at the Rectory. Please indicate "Thanksgiving Food Baskets" on your check or envelope.

Thank you in advance for your generosity. Your support is greatly appreciated and is needed in these times more than ever!

Mass Readings

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time — Year A

FIRST READING

Wisdom 6: 12-16

Wisdom is found by those who seek her.

Resplendent and unfading is wisdom,
and she is readily perceived by those who love her,
and found by those who seek her.
She hastens to make herself known in anticipation of their desire;
whoever watches for her at dawn
shall not be disappointed,
for he shall find her sitting by his gate.

For taking thought of wisdom is the perfection of prudence,
and whoever for her sake keeps vigil
shall quickly be free from care;
because she makes her own rounds,
seeking those worthy of her,
and graciously appears to them in
the ways,
and meets them with all solicitude.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 63: 2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8

R My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

O God, you are my God whom I seek;
for you my flesh pines and my soul
thirsts
like the earth, parched, lifeless and without water. R

Thus have I gazed toward you in the sanctuary
to see your power and your glory,
For your kindness is a greater good than
life;
my lips shall glorify you. R

Thus will I bless you while I live;

lifting up my hands, I will call upon your name.
As with the riches of a banquet shall my
soul be satisfied,
and with exultant lips my mouth shall praise you. R

I will remember you upon my couch, and through the night-watches I will
meditate on you:
You are my help,
and in the shadow of your wings I shout for joy. R

SECOND READING

1 Thessalonians 4: 13-18

God, through Jesus, will bring with him those who have fallen asleep.

We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep. Indeed, we tell you this, on the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will surely not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself, with a word of command, with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God, will come down from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Thus we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore, console one another with these words.

GOSPEL

Matthew 25: 1-13

Behold the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!

Jesus told his disciples this parable: “The kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were wise. The foolish ones, when taking their lamps, brought no oil with them, but the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps. Since the bridegroom was long delayed, they all became drowsy and fell asleep. At midnight, there was a cry, ‘Behold the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!’ Then all those virgins got up and trimmed their lamps. The foolish ones said to the wise, ‘Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.’ But the wise ones replied, ‘No, for there may not be enough for us and you. Go instead to the merchants and buy some for yourselves.’ While they went off to buy it, the bridegroom came and those who were ready went into the wedding feast with him. Then the door was locked. Afterwards the other virgins came and said, ‘Lord, Lord, open the door for us!’ But he said in reply, ‘Amen, I say to you, I do not know you.’ Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour.”
