The Feast of Corpus Christi and the Forty Hours Devotion

This devotion has a long tradition in our Church. It calls to mind the hours Our Divine Lord spent in the tomb before His Resurrection. It also reminds us that during this time, He descended into the region of the dead to call forth the souls of the faithful to share in His triumph over sin and death. In observance of this profound truth, we enter into prayer at the time of the Church's celebration of Corpus Christi. For as Our Lord Himself said: "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day."

For a number of years now, our Parish has held the Forty Hours Devotion beginning on the Feast of Corpus Christi. We will have our Eucharistic Procession following the 12 Noon Mass on June 6th. We invite all of our children who received First Holy Communion to join the procession wearing their First Communion outfits. We will process through the village and have a Benediction on returning to the Church. At that moment the Forty Hours will begin. The Holy Eucharist will be exposed on our Altar in Church, continuously until Tuesday morning at 7am. It is extremely important that Our Lord always have someone with Him in adoration. We invite all of our parishioners to sign up for an hour of adoration. The sign-up sheet is in the vestibule of the Church for JUNE 6-8. We encourage families to come together for a time of adoration. Also, we especially encourage that more than one person be present in the Church building during the night hours. This is a time of great sacrifice, grace and blessing for our Parish and families. Come and be with the Lord; He will not be outdone in generosity.

Knights of Columbus

The next meeting of the Millbrook Council of the Knights of Columbus will be held on Wednesday, June 2nd, at 7:00pm in the Parish Hall.

Women's Guild

The Women's Guild will meet on Tuesday, June 1, 2021 at 7:00pm in the Parish Hall. All women of the Parish are invited to attend.

UNCLE AL'S THRIFT SHOP

One of the best things to do in Millbrook these days is to take a stroll up and down Franklin Avenue. It's easy to see that businesses take pride in the appearance of their storefronts and sidewalk areas. The planters with their many and varied flowers are so attractive. It's well worth it to take the time to stop and appreciate how lovely they look. Our Uncle Al's window display draws a lot of attention, especially if it's a new theme. Friday, May 21, was the first day for the Memorial Day window. Well, guess what? Thirty minutes after the shop opened, a number of items in the window had been sold! That's some group of talented gals who dress Uncle Al's window!

Volunteer opportunities — We are blessed with busy Fridays — that's good! But we really need an additional volunteer for each of the two shifts: morning (10:00am to 1:00pm) and afternoon (1:00pm-4:00pm). Please consider volunteering for one of these shifts. The three hours a week would be a gift to our parish and to our community. If you are concerned about the occasional need to take time off, be assured that our volunteers work together to make sure Uncle Al's is adequately covered. Call Irene Wing for more information. 845-677-3310.

All proceeds benefit St. Joseph-Immaculate Conception Church.

Mass Readings

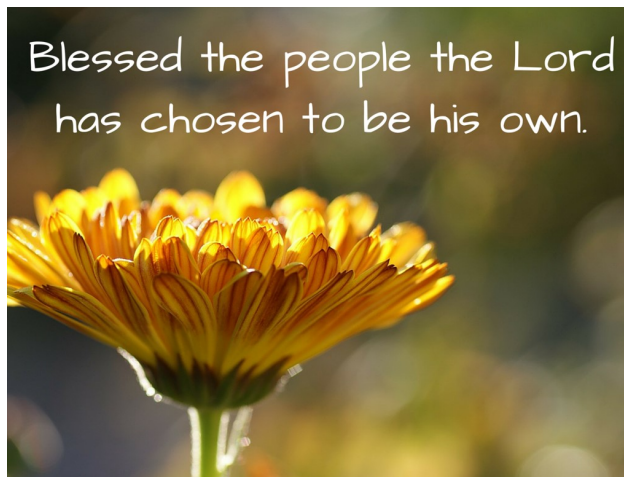

The Most Holy Trinity — Year B

FIRST READING

Deuteronomy 4: 32-34, 39-40

The Lord is God in the heavens above and on earth below and there is no other.

Moses said to the people: “Ask now of the days of old, before your time, ever since God created man upon the earth; ask from one end of the sky to the other: Did anything so great ever happen before? Was it ever heard of? Did a people ever hear the voice of God speaking from the midst of fire, as you did, and live? Or did any god venture to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation, by testings, by signs and wonders, by war, with strong hand and outstretched arm, and by great terrors, all of which the Lord, your God, did for you in Egypt before your very eyes? This is why you must now know, and fix in your heart, that the Lord is God in the heavens above and on earth below, and that there is no other. You must keep his statutes and commandments that I enjoin on you today, that you and your children after you may prosper, and that you may have long life on the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you forever.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 33: 4-5, 6, 9, 18-19, 20, 22

R Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

Upright is the word of the Lord,
and all his works are trustworthy.
He loves justice and right;
of the kindness of the Lord the earth is full. R

By the work of the Lord the heavens
were made;
by the breath of his mouth all their host.
For he spoke, and it was made;
he commanded, and it stood forth. R

See, the eyes of the Lord are upon
those who fear him,
upon those who hope for his kindness,
To deliver them from death
and preserve them in spite of famine. R

Our soul waits for the Lord,
who is our help and our shield.
May your kindness, O Lord, be upon us who have put our hope in you. R

SECOND READING

Romans 8: 14-17

You received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!"

Brothers and sister: For those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!" The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if only we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

GOSPEL

Matthew 28: 16-20

Baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they all saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always until the end of the age."
