Pause for Prayer

So busy we are about so many trivial things.
Perhaps that's why, Lord, you blanketed us with snow last week, slowing our steps,

hitting our pause button.

We needed that, Lord,

we needed to be inconvenienced, interrupted, slowed down, stopped, by the pure, soft beauty of your presence settling gently, flake by flake, dressing us and our world in a garment of pure grace.

Let your snow fall upon our upturned faces, Lord,

as a child catches snowflakes on the tongue, so let us taste the sweetness of your wintry advent.

Are we too old, Lord,

for making angels in the snow?

Then send some snowy angels to make of us what you would have us be.

Even as the snow chills our limbs, let your touch melt our hearts and draw us all inside to where the fire of your love burns for us always crackling, bright, and warm ...

Remind us Lord, of those burdened by the weather and call us to empty our pockets and purses in support of those who serve and shelter the homeless.

And later, Lord,

when the snow's been shoveled and our pace has quickened once again:

keep us mindful of the moments when the blanket of your presence calmed and warmed our hearts and brought us close to you. Amen.

A Concord Pastor
