The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

This Sacrament is administered to bring spiritual and even physical strength during an illness, especially near the time of death. Sacraments are outward signs established by Jesus Christ to confer inward grace. The Anointing is a rite performed to bestow God's grace on the recipient through the power of the Holy Spirit.

The special grace of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

- ✠ unites the sick person to the passion of Christ
- ✠ brings strength, peace, and courage to endure in a Christian manner the sufferings of illness or old age
- ✠ bestows the forgiveness of sins if the sick person was not able to obtain it through the sacrament of penance
- ✠ can provide restoration of health if it is conducive to the salvation of his soul
- ✠ prepares the faithful for passing over to eternal life

We do not have to be at the point of death to receive this sacrament.

The Catechism says that the anointing of the sick is not a sacrament only for those who are at the point of death. As soon as anyone of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, it is certainly a fitting time for a Catholic to receive this sacrament.

Any parishioner in need of anointing is invited to call the rectory to make arrangements.

UNDERSTANDING TODAY'S READINGS

(In order to understand God's love, we need to understand and ponder what He says)

Exodus 17:8-13

"I will be standing on top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand."

Israel's victory in the battle against the Amalekites was a small event in the history of God's chosen people. Why do we learn about it at all?

The important lesson in this reading is Moses' perseverance in prayer. When Moses raised his arms in prayer, God answered his prayers by supporting Joshua's army. When he faltered in his prayers, God turned away from Israelites and they began to lose. With the support of Aaron and Hur, Moses' resolve to pray for his people remained firm.

Two morals are passed on to us in this reading: continue to pray even when we are weary and discouraged; and rely on others to support us in prayer when we are tempted to abandon our conversation with God.

2 Timothy 3:14-4:2

"...be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient..."

Timothy has been Paul's student for the past six Sundays. He must have seen a lot of potential in his protégé, who was raised as a Christian from childhood.

Paul could remember when he, himself, was not only not a Christian, but a persecutor of Christians. The memory of his violent conversion served to keep him focused on his duty to preach God's word and Christ's salvation.

Perhaps he worried that Christians like Timothy, who were two generations removed from Christ's resurrection, would lose focus on their faith and tradition. Paul urged Timothy to "remain faithful to what you have learned and believed" and to be true to the sacred Scriptures, which would provide "wisdom for salvation through faith in Christ."

Paul used a lot of verbs in his letter to Timothy: "I charge you...proclaim...be persistent...convince...reprimand...encourage." He wanted his student to be passionate when preaching God's Word, to remain faithful and to teach with patience and clear direction for the followers of Christ in the new generation. Timothy would find all he needed in sacred Scripture to fulfill his duty as a Christian.

Today's Psalm: 121

Our help is from the Lord who made heaven and earth.

Luke 17:11-19

"...pray always without becoming weary."

The parable of the persistent widow is an allegory for "storming the gates of heaven". When Jesus lived, widows were poor beggars, often homeless, who were weakened by the elements, attacked by thieves, and ignored by a disdainful public. Even if the widow was entitled to relief through her legal suit, there was no guarantee that she would receive a fair judgement. Through sheer persistence, she obtained justice. Storming the judge with her demands, she was heard and was rewarded.

In many respects, the widow represented Christianity. In the gospel of Luke, Jesus aligned himself with the poor, the outcast, those with disease. The image of the widow included all three. Christians were shunned by Jews as heretics and hated by the pagan populace as disloyal to the Roman Empire. They truly stood alone as outcasts. The image of the widow fit Christianity well.

Aside from the similarity of life circumstances, there is a decided difference between the widow and the Christian. The widow sought her justice from a temporal power, while Christians appeal to God, the true source of power, to satisfy their needs. Neither the judge, nor the Jewish elders, nor the Roman leaders possessed the power to answer the prayers of the Christians.

Jesus promises that God will "secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night." We must have faith that the answer will come. Jesus asks if he will "find faith on earth" when he returns. If we have the strength to persist in prayer, he will find people of faith when he comes for us.
