EPIPHANY'S NEW MUSIC DIRECTOR

Among his many accomplishments, our new Music Director, Justin Bischof, has performed in Zurich, London, Paris, Oman, and, of course, in the USA. He has received numerous awards, including the Gold Prize from the American Guild of Organists. He has established annual benefit concerts to help at-risk children attend summer camp. He has served on the faculty of numerous prestigious colleges and universities.

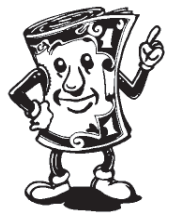

Justin begins his music ministry at Epiphany on August 1st. We look forward to attending his first Sunday Masses next weekend.

We welcome Justin to Epiphany!

Every parent in the world can perfectly understand why Pope Francis has light-heartedly decorated his office door with a sign he was given during a general audience.

COMPLAINING PROHIBITED!

Violators are under the influence of "I'm a victim" syndrome with a resulting decrease in a sense of humor and the capacity to solve problems. Punishment will double if the violation is committed in the presence of children.

To become your best self,
concentrate on your own potential and not on your limitations.
THEREFORE...stop complaining and change your life for the better.

New Shrine Statues

As soon as Dennis Hawkes' work is complete,
we will have a new Shrine,
which will be home for three statues.

The statues of St. Francis and Pope John Paul II have been memorialized and will make their appearance in the near future.
