A Personal Greeting from Fr. Jim Mayzik, our new Parochial Vicar

Someone once said, "For every goodbye, God also provides a hello."

Well, hello, my new friends and family!

When I was a little boy my mother had a recording of the The King and I. I used to sit in front of the record player and sing along. A teacher in the play sang these words to her new students:

Getting to know you,

Getting to know all about you.

Getting to like you,

Getting to hope you like me.

I can't wait to get to know and love you all. And I hope you get to know me too...and of course I am hoping you like me too!

I've just completed almost 25 years of my life teaching filmmaking to students at Fairfield University in Connecticut, and there have been many tearful goodbyes as I ended that wonderful chapter of my life. I loved my students, and loved helping them to discover their beautiful souls through the art of film. I also loved being part of the larger mission of a great university: to find God in all things, in every one, in every place and in every thing. That is the core of the spirituality of St Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits, whom I joined a few years after my graduation from Georgetown University.

About a year ago it was clear to me that my work was done at Fairfield, and I spent a lot of time praying and considering how I might next serve God and my brothers and sisters. It became clear that I should continue to practice my filmmaking (writing, producing, directing narrative and documentary films), but more importantly I should give of myself to help communicate the wonder-filled love of God in a parish community. If I could do both things in my beloved New York City, it would be amazing. And God's invitation finally was realized through the kindness of Fr Austin, a dear friend and inspiring pastor under whom I served as a weekend assistant at Holy Family Church in Staten Island. I can't adequately communicate to you how grateful I am to him, and how thrilled I am to be living and working with him in New York's great Epiphany parish!

I'd love to tell you more about myself, and I will over the next months, and if you are interested you can check out my website where I post some of my creative work, my homilies, my Mass schedule, and my blogs. It's got a bizarrely long website title:

www.immuchbetternowthatyourehere.com. The website address is the answer to a question people often ask of me: "How are you?". I'm much better now that you're here! I will tell you now that am not an 'answer man', and the older I get the more questions I have. But I believe God has been inviting me to 'go deeper' into the wonder and mystery beneath all creation, and it is both challenging and incredibly exciting.

But I'm dying to know about you, and the things that matter to you in your life. I want to share with you our faith, and I also want to share our fears, pain, joys and hopes. I've come to believe, that in the end, our mission in life is to help one another, and to become what Martin Luther King Jr called "the beloved community."

Finally, I want you to know that I have a lot of faults and I'm working on them, and I seek inspiration from people in my life, many of whom are my heroes. And I am sure that you will join that distinguished group very soon!

With love and respect,

Fr Jim Mayzik SJ

23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CAN YOU HEAR ME NOW?

If you are not able to hear or discern the words proclaimed at Mass, please help us solve the problem by completing one of the forms provided at the back of the church and returning it to one of the ushers or simply dropping it in the collection basket.

Thank you for helping us make Epiphany a great place to practice our faith and hear the Word of God.
