A Call for Altar Servers

It is a privilege to minister as an altar server at Sunday
Mass, at Masses for special events, and at other liturgical services at Epiphany parish. When an altar server assists the priest and helps the congregation, the server enters into a very special and prayerful relationship with God.

For any boy or girl, 4th grade & older, whose families are members of the parish, who are students at The Epiphany
School, or who attend the inter-parish Religious Education Program, we invite parents, grandparents and guardians to encourage their children to share the special privilege of becoming altar servers.

Active altar servers must be willing and able to serve at our Saturday and Sunday liturgies on a regular basis.

For further information, please get in touch with Mr. Joseph Torre at serveepiphany@gmail.com or call the parish office at 212-475-1966.

When Church & State Meet

Father O'Malley answered the phone.

"Hello. Is this Father O'Malley?"

"It is!"

"This is the IRS. Can you help us?"

"I can!"

"Do you know Ted Houlihan?"

"I do!"

"Is he a member of your congregation?"

"He is!"

"Did he donate $10,000 to the church?"

"He will!"

"Lord! Lord! Open the door for us!"

But he said in reply, 'Amen I say to you, I do not know you.'
Matthew 25:11-12

Quotes from the Saints - from Father Titus

"What use is it telling me that so and so is a good son of mine – a good Christian – but a bad shoemaker? If he doesn't try to learn his trade well, or doesn't give his full attention to it, he won't be able to sanctify it or offer it to Our Lord. The sanctification of ordinary work is, as it were, the hinge of true spirituality for people who, like us, have decided to come close to God while being at the same time fully involved in temporal affairs."

~ St. Josemaria Escriva

"We are at Jesus' disposal. If he wants you to be sick in bed, if he wants you to proclaim His work in the street, if he wants you to clean the toilets all day, that's all right, everything is all right. We must say, 'I belong to you. You can do whatever you like.' And this is our strength. This is the joy of the Lord."

~ St. Teresa of Calcutta

"[B]y their competence in secular fields and by their personal activity, elevated from within by the grace of Christ, let them work vigorously so that by human labor, technical skill and civil culture, created goods may be perfected according to the design of the Creator and the light of his word."

~ St. John Paul II

"Always try to have success in your work, but remember God is often glorified in your failure."

~ St. Mary MacKillop

"Idleness is the enemy of the soul; and, therefore, the brethren ought to be employed in manual labor at certain times, at others, in devout reading."

~ St. Benedict

The sign of peace is an ancient liturgical gesture, dating back to the early Church.

The spiritual symbolism of the act is found in the Gospel of Matthew, where Jesus said, "If you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift" (Matthew 5:23-24).

The current General Instruction of the Roman Missal confirms this symbolism and explains, "There follows the Rite of Peace, by which the Church entreats peace and unity for herself and for the whole human family, and the faithful express to each other their ecclesial communion and mutual charity before communicating in the Sacrament" (GIRM 82).

This gesture is found throughout the liturgical history of the Church and from the time of St. Gregory the Great was seen as a prerequisite for the reception of Communion.

Among the East Syrians it is customary for each one to clasp the hands of his neighbor and kiss them. Among the Maronites the faithful clasp the neighbor's fingers with their own, then kiss the latter. Even more reserved are the Copts, who merely bow to their neighbor and then touch his hand.

The sign of peace is a highly symbolic act that is meant to point towards the disposition of heart required for receiving the Holy Eucharist. It reminds the faithful that in order to be in full communion with Christ, one must first "love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength," and not forget to "love your neighbor as yourself" (Mark 12:30-31).

24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CAN YOU HEAR ME NOW?

If you are not able to hear or discern the words proclaimed at Mass, please help us solve the problem by completing one of the forms provided at the back of the church and returning it to one of the ushers or simply dropping it in the collection basket.

Thank you for helping us make Epiphany a great place to practice our faith and hear the Word of God.
