My Fellow Parishioners,

On this, our 150th Anniversary, my heart is filled with gratitude to God for this, His Church, which He has kept so vibrant from the very beginning.

God doesn't like working alone, so He gives us the dignity of working with Him to build up His Church.

A special thanks goes to all those who built, paid for, maintained, shepherded, and served the parish throughout its history.

This year, especially, so many have worked so very hard:

The Spirituality Committee

The Planning (events)

The Commemorative Journal & Advertisers

The Liturgy & Music

The 150th Mass, Reception Committee & Donors

The 150th Dinner Committee (Jim Hayes & Ray Curley)

Particularly impressive was the work done by Kevin Beauregard, Kate McHugh, Richard Sawicki, & Janet Bitner on the soon to be published Commemorative Journal, which is no less than a masterpiece!

We offer honorable mention to our parishioners who are organizing all the events that will take place in our sesquicentennial year, especially the events committee, headed by Joseph Torre and Thomas Lewis and all those lending both their spiritual and practical support.

Last, but most of all, I continue to be grateful and deeply moved by every parishioner who sets aside his and her own preferences and taste and, in a self-sacrificing attitude, strives to make this a loving, faith-filled community. That is our God-given mission and purpose.

I am extremely privileged to be chosen by God to lay down my life for you.

Your servant,

Rev Austin Titus
