2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

My Fellow Parishioners,

In my message to you last week I expressed my gratitude to God for the Church of the Epiphany, which, through His Grace, has been so vibrant a worshipping community from its very beginning.

I could not have imagined how manifest His Grace would be until our anniversary Mass on Saturday. Our parishioners filled the church to capacity with worshippers who came to participate in one of the most beautiful Masses I have experienced at Epiphany.

The music was inspired and inspiring! We thank Dr. Justin Bischof for the instrumentalists, the choral musicians, and for his superb selection of sacred music.

It was a great pleasure to welcome back our priest alumni who joined Cardinal Dolan to concelebrate the Mass. Every pastor and parochial vicar who served at Epiphany is an integral part of Epiphany's spirit, each one giving a part of himself to enrich our parish.

It is impossible to thank all the individuals who created the beautiful spirit that was so alive at Epiphany last Sunday. From the altar servers who could be seen in procession and lending their hands at the Mass; to the people who worked behind the scenes, making our church shine; to the creative hands who know just how to present God's gift of flowers; to the many ministers who volunteered to assist at the Mass; to the many committees who organized and executed all the work that comprised Sunday's inspiring success.

Cardinal Dolan was quite impressed by our people. He praised the participation of the congregation in the prayers and music. The Cardinal is a man who celebrates Mass in many parishes. His praise of our people is high praise, indeed. He thought the atmosphere was electric as our parishioners participated in the Mass.

As I wrote in my last letter, God doesn't like working alone, so He gives us the dignity of working with Him to build up His Church.

I continue to be grateful and deeply moved by every parishioner who sets aside his and her own preferences and taste and, in a self-sacrificing attitude, strives to make this a loving, faith-filled community. That is our God-given mission and purpose.

In gratitude, as your servant,

Father Titus

He first found his own brother, Simon, and told him, "We have found the Messiah."

Then he brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, "You are Simon, the son of John. You will be called Cephas." - which is translated to Peter.
