Little Sisters of the Poor

Sister Mary John sends her sincere thanks to the generous parishioners of Epiphany parish.

The sisters enjoyed the hospitality of our parish. They even enjoyed Murphy's company, calling him "a good friend."

In her thank you note, Sister John said that Our Lord in His Mercy showed great favor to their foundress, St. Jeanne Jugan, by allowing her to devote herself completely to the elderly poor. "What happiness for us to be Little Sisters of the Poor!" This happiness extends to all those who help them to create a beautiful family spirit within their Home in the Bronx.

The parishioners of Epiphany gave generously to the spirit of the Jeanne Jugan Residence. Sister Mary John and her sisters will pray for Epiphany in our Anniversary year and count our parish among their most precious blessings.

Sister Barbara Takes a Chance

One evening, sitting by the window of her convent, Sister Barbara opened a letter from home.

Inside the letter was a $100 bill her parents had sent. Sister Barbara smiled at the gesture.

As she read the letter by the window, she noticed a shabbily dressed stranger leaning against the lamp post below.

Quickly, she wrote, "Don't despair. - Sister Barbara," on a piece of paper, wrapped the $100 bill in it, got the man's attention and tossed it out the window to him.

The stranger picked it up, and with a puzzled expression and a tip of his hat, went off down the street.

The next day, Sister Barbara was told that a man was at her door, insisting on seeing her. She went down, and found the stranger waiting. Without a word, he handed her a huge wad of $100 bills.

"What's this?" she asked.

"That's the $8,000 you have coming, Sister", he replied.

"Don't Despair paid 80-to-1."

A "Difficult Choice"

Advocates of abortion often refer to the decision to have an abortion as a "difficult choice."

Why is it a difficult choice? The reason is very simple and obvious. An unborn child is a person growing inside the mother's womb.

Of course, it is "difficult". Choosing to terminate the life of a human being should be a "difficult choice". If the unborn child was not a person, what would be so difficult about choosing to end his or her life?

Is killing a cancer growing inside your body a "difficult choice"?
Of course not.

Dehumanizing the child is a vital strategy used by pro-abortionists to disguise the "difficult choice" that is being made. The baby is made to appear like an invading "blob of tissue"----like a cancerous growth.

Why do we allow such deceit and victimization of the pre-born? Can we find a more innocent or vulnerable human being than a precious baby boy or girl inside his/her mother's womb?

The theme for this year's March for Life and for the year ahead is "Love Saves Lives." Choosing life is not always easy, but it is the loving, empowering, and self-sacrificial option. Love is universally attractive because it is directed towards others. Love is what we all strive for because deep-down we are all drawn to give of ourselves in this way. Love saves lives in countless ways.
