

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 29, 2018

“Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?”

Feeding people with love

The Christos,
for a skinny guy,

sure was interested in good things to eat: he is constantly talking about bread and wine and oil and grain and seeds and vineyards, and he turns a hundred-some gallons of water into excellent wine, and he turns two fish (probably sardines) and five loaves of barley bread into so much food that 12 baskets of bread shards remain after 5,000 people have eaten, and he grills fish (probably St. Peter’s fish, or tilapia) and bread on the shore of the Sea of Galilee; and even after he died and traveled unto the nether reaches of hell, and was returned by the word of the Father to life, and walked along the road to Emmaus expounding learnedly, and appeared suddenly amid the rattled remaining 11 disciples in a locked room, he is still absorbed with food, for the first question he asks his followers is this:

“Have ye here any meat?”

learn how to survive the ending of a relationship. The group encourages an atmosphere of trust. It is not a singles group or dating network. Instead it is like a family where it is safe to be oneself and to receive support in a Catholic environment.

Goals:

Improving self-confidence & self-esteem
Developing into healthier, loving men & women
Developing spiritual & personal growth and self-knowledge
Recognizing one's talents & abilities
Giving oneself the time to grieve and to heal Effective & loving parenting during separation & divorce enriches our Catholic faith in so many ways.

July 6	# of gifts	GOAL	PLEDGED thinking and praying about a gift or a pledge, please help our parish by making your gift soon. You may make your

The goal of the 2018 Annual Cardinal's Appeal is to help the Church do its work in hope and faith to serve the needs of God's people, including caring for the elderly, feeding the hungry, passing on our faith, and supporting parishes that need help to keep their doors open so their parishioners can celebrate the joy of Christ among us communally.

UPCOMING MEETINGS

IN THE CHURCH

"Be still before the Lord and wait patiently for him." Psalm 37:7

God Provides!

I sit down at a restaurant and order drinks and an appetizer.
Then I order an entrée with a salad. When all of that has been consumed, I order a dessert. Uh-oh, now my belt is too tight! I guess my eyes were bigger than my stomach. I ordered not what I needed, but what I wanted.

In our daily lives, we find ourselves wanting many things. We desire outcomes and good fortunes – ones that we think will make all the difference. But often, when we receive the things we "ordered", we find ourselves wanting more. Sometimes, when we don't receive them, we see our lives as incomplete.

A lesson to remember: God always provides what we need. It may not be what we want. Our eyes can deceive us into believing that what we receive is not enough to fulfill us. If we trust in God and seek to live only with what sustains us, rather than what saturates us, we will find that we are happier, healthier, and at peace. God knows what we need even if we cannot see it for ourselves.
